2.4 Structural Maintenance

INTENT

1. It is in the interests of all lot owners to ensure that the concrete slabs of the building are structurally sound, and protected from damage which can be caused by the ingress of water into the slabs.
2. The purpose of this by-law is to facilitate the Owners Corporation fulfilling its obligation to keep the common property in a state of good and serviceable repair in this context.

PROVISIONS

3. Inspections

The Owners Corporation will periodically arrange to have an inspection made of the whole or part of the building and lots within the building to determine if damage may have occurred in the concrete slabs of the building, and to identify any defect in the building which is causing, or could cause, damage to the concrete slabs.

4. Scope

Such periodic inspections will be non-invasive, that is, will not involve the removal and replacement of fixtures within the lot, and will rely on visual inspection and the use of moisture meters or similar equipment. To facilitate the inspection, the edges of perimeter carpets, where readily accessible, may be lifted, and immediately refixed, by suitably qualified professionals.

5. Access

Each lot owner is required to consent to the Owners Corporation entering the lot to allow the inspection to take place. At least 14 days notice will be given. The lot owner is also required to do what may be needed to allow the Owners Corporation to enter. This may require attendance by the owner, the owner's agent or other representative, the provision of a key, or giving the tenant of the lot proper notice of entry. Lot owners, or their representatives, are encouraged to attend all inspections of their lot.

6. Conduct

Such inspections will be conducted by suitably qualified persons selected by the Owners Corporation, and take place each seven years, or at such other times as the Owners Corporation determines.

7. Costs

The Owners Corporation will pay the costs of such inspections.

8. Obligations

The Owners Corporation cannot and does not warrant that such inspections will find all possible and potential faults within the building and its lots. Each lot owner is required to promptly advise the Owners Corporation of any defects evident from within the owner's lot, for example, any bulging or bumps in the floor coverings of the lot, and of any events, such as fire or electrical damage, water leaks or breakages, which could allow water ingress into the building immediately or over time.

9. Precautionary Inspections

Additionally, each lot owner or their agent should ask the Owners Corporation to conduct a precautionary inspection:

- (a) at such time as the lot is undergoing such a general renovation, new plumbing, replacement of floor coverings, repainting or replacement/installation of major appliances and systems, or such works; and
- (b) at the time of the sale of the lot or change of tenancy; and
- (c) if concerns have arisen related to potential structural damage or dampness.

10. Repair

Should such inspections identify the potential need for repairs, each affected lot owner will cooperate with the Owners Corporation to allow any repairs to be promptly and effectively assessed and, as necessary, made as recommended by the Owners Corporation's consultants. Each lot owner will promptly replace or repair any facility or appliance within the owner's lot which is reasonably identified as a material risk to the structural integrity of the building.

11. Large Water Spillages

The flooding of any carpeted areas, as a result of a significant water spillage arising from a burst hot water heater, an overflow from a laundry, bathroom or kitchen, rainwater (say, from a window left open during a storm) or the like, must be reported immediately to the building manager. The affected carpet and any underlay must be lifted and dried, and any saturated magnesite topping on the concrete slab must be thoroughly dried, typically using a heated blower, and treated with a rust inhibitor, before the carpet and underlay are re-laid. This procedure must be implemented by, or with the consent of, the building manager or managing agent.

12. Carpet Cleaning

Recognising the potential for the creation of residual dampness, any cleaning of carpets must be conducted by professional cleaners who have the equipment and skills to ensure that moisture is not allowed to penetrate through the carpet or a damp residue created. Particular care must also be taken to ensure that any moisture does not come in contact with, and thus potentially soak into, timber smooth-edges used to hold carpets down, the result of which could be to rust nails holding down the smooth edge and create conduits for moisture ingress into any magnesite topping. The building manager will maintain a list of suitably qualified and equipped professional cleaners, and lot owners, or their agents, are required to use those cleaners only.

13. Hot Water Heater Overflow

An owner must ensure that any hot water heater servicing their lot is fitted with an overflow system to prevent flooding in the event the heater leaks. Existing systems as at the date of registration of this by-law must comply where possible. The system will be prescribed by the strata committee from time to time, or must be approved by the strata committee in the event one is not prescribed or the type of system prescribed is unable to be used in connection with the heater.

2.5 Parking

1. An owner or occupier of a lot can only park or stand any motor or other vehicle on common property with the written approval of the Owners Corporation.
2. The Owners Corporation may cause a vehicle parked or standing in breach of this by-law to be towed from the common property and removed to a public road or impounded.

3. The owner or occupier of a lot must pay the costs of and incidental to the Owners Corporation and its servants and agents for having the vehicle towed and/or impounded (including without limitation strata management fees and legal fees) which are recoverable by the Owners Corporation as a debt due by the owner or occupier.
4. An owner or occupier who parks a vehicle, or allows a vehicle to stand on any part of the common property without written consent of the Owners Corporation is taken to:
 - (a) be the person in lawful possession of the vehicle; and
 - (b) have given consent to the Owners Corporation and its servants and agents to have the vehicle towed off the common property and impounded at the cost of the owner or occupier; and
 - (c) consent to this by-law being an arrangement in force in respect of the vehicle.
5. The Owners Corporation must provide written notice to an owner or occupier prior to them having their vehicle towed off the common property and impounded.
6. If the owner or occupier fails to reply to the notice provided by the Owners Corporation under clause (5) and/or does not remove the vehicle from the common property within 24 hours of receipt of the notice, the Owners Corporation may cause the vehicle to be towed from the common property and removed to a public road or impounded pursuant to this by-law.
7. To the extent of any inconsistency between this by-law and any other by-law, this by-law prevails.

Dear Sir,

Re: Strata Plan 4701
74-76 Upper Pitt Street, Kirribilli
Unit 10 Air Conditioning Installation

Further to your request, the above-mentioned property was inspected on the 8th May, 2020 in conjunction with yourself to inspect the proposed alterations within your Unit.

We understand that it is proposed to install an Air Conditioner in the Unit and that a hole is required to be drilled through the external wall of the building. The position of the hole is shown on your marked-up photograph sent to us via email on the 15th May, 2020. The hole is located in the uppermost section of the western end balcony brickwork cavity wall and we confirm this is acceptable and will not affect the structural integrity of the building. The penetration through the brickwork needs to be completely sealed with flexible sealant prior to installing the trunking over the top.

Your installer will be responsible for identifying any services such as electrical or plumbing in the area of the works and ensuring they are not damaged during the installation.

We advise that the overflow pipe from the external unit placed on the balcony needs to be plumbed into the vertical downpipe (specifically installed for AC overflow) directly to the western end of the balcony.

We trust this report meets your current requirements. Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you wish to discuss the matter further.

Yours Sincerely,
STRATA REMEDIAL ENGINEERS PTY LTD

Dear Sir,

Re: Strata Plan 4701
74-76 Upper Pitt Street, Kirribilli
Unit 20 Vertical Garden Installation

You have provided us with plans prepared by The Garden Philosophy Pty Ltd dated 11th July, 2023 detailing the proposal for a vertical garden installation on the balcony wall in your Unit.

We confirm we have reviewed the plans and advise there will be no adverse structural affect to the masonry wall as a result of this installation.

We do note however that you propose to connect the garden to the water supply which will involve drilling a hole through the wall from the kitchen located directly opposite. The location of the hole is yet to be determined as we understand this work will take place next year during your proposed kitchen renovation. Our advice in relation to this is that the hole should not be drilled through the balcony membrane or the bottom 3-4 courses of brickwork where the cavity flashing exists. The hole is also to be sealed effectively with a polyurethane sealant from the inside skin as well as the external brick skin. Any resultant leaks from this location shall be the responsibility of you the individual Unit owner to rectify.

We trust this report meets your requirements. Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you wish to discuss anything further.

Yours Sincerely,

DAVID A. WRIGHT
Director

 - (a) Waste will be removed from Lot 20 in covered bins and collected by tipper truck daily.
 - (b) A precautionary inspection of the structural integrity of the concrete slab will be requested of the Owner's Corporation, when the kitchen, hallway, bathroom, ensuite and laundry floor surfaces are removed.
 - (c) Both renovations may take up to 3 months, noting this time frame is conditional upon concrete cancer not being detected.
6. Certificates -

Acoustic certificate will be provided for hallway floor.

Waterproofing certificates will be provided, where required.
7. Slimline Vertical Garden to balcony wall -

Further to your request, the above-mentioned property was inspected on the 13th December, 2023 in conjunction with yourself to inspect the proposed alterations within your Unit.

We understand that it is proposed to undertake the following works:

- To remove a section of the single skin brick wall positioned between the entry and the dining area.

The proposed wall removal between the entry and dining area has been marked-up on the enclosed building plan. The note on the plan regarding the concrete wall opening is to be ignored now as it has been removed from the scope of works.

We have assessed the proposed alterations regarding the removal of this wall and confirm that the proposed changes shall not affect the structural integrity of the building.

The internal masonry walls are generally non load-bearing infill brickwork however it is likely that the concrete structure may have relaxed onto these walls with time thus the structure may settle slightly on removal of walls. This has the potential to cause some cracking to the apartment above and possibly to the apartment below. To this effect we recommend a condition survey of both the apartments located directly above and below be completed and provided to the Owner's prior to any demolition being carried out.

We recommend that all demolition work be carried out by a suitably experienced building contractor with due attention to careful removal of walls.

We trust this report meets your current requirements. Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you wish to discuss the matter further.

Yours Sincerely,
