FROM THE HEART OF THE PASTOR.....

“Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the LORD, and he will reward them for what they have done.” Proverbs 19:17

Sometimes we need a little extra incentive to remind ourselves to be generous. Knowing that God will reward our compassion and kindness towards the less fortunate can be just that, but we trust God in the process.

A man, whose heart is full of compassion to the poor, and whose hands distribute to their necessities, from a true principle of love and charity to men, and with a view to the glory of God, and not from any selfish principle and with an end, that a man or woman's such gift to the poor is a loan to the Lord. It is not cast away upon the creature, but is a "depositum" in the hands of God, and shall be returned with advantage; and that which he hath given will, he pay him again; either in this life, in things temporal and spiritual, increasing his worldly substance, blessing his posterity, granting him larger measures of grace, indulging him with his gracious presence, and giving him peace of mind, which passeth all understanding; or in the world to come; not as a reward of debt, but of grace.

Here is outstanding investment advice. Where else can you find a risk-free rate of return that pays guaranteed dividends in this life and eternity? History's richest king, Solomon, tells you about a fully secure investment that yields a variety of large profits perpetually.

Helping the poor financially is like making a loan to the LORD Jehovah. The metaphor is powerful. The true God is a great credit risk. He will repay for sure, and He will include interest and blessings with it. You can never lose giving to the LORD. He represents the poor, because He has made them and protects them.

Financial success is not hard. Give to the truly poor, and God will repay your kindness with liberal blessings. Economic prosperity was never so easy. Almighty God will send prosperity down on you. If you scatter money cheerfully, He will compensate you well. If you hold back, poverty will come for sure. Of course, the world and your flesh, which are hateful by nature, do not believe this rule, but this proverb is a God-ordained law. Believe and trust it like you do gravity and other natural laws.

As we look at the activities around the country and the world, I wonder is anyone working on behalf of the Lord to address the concerns of mission. In specific I must mention Haiti. According to the latest news, people have been kidnapped with a ransom of one million US dollars for freedom, and one of them happens to be a 5-month-old child. Zion Hill, there is much to be done.....
