RESPONSIVE READING

Exodus 16:2-15

Minister: And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

Congregation: And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

Minister: Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

Congregation: And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

Minister: And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt:

Congregation: And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that ye murmur against us?

Minister: And Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

Congregation: And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

Minister: And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

Congregation: And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Minister: I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

Congregation: And it came to pass, that at even the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

Minister: And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

Unison: And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

FROM THE HEART OF THE PASTOR.....

"Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint." Isaiah 40:28 - 31

The prophet Isaiah reproves the people of God, who are now supposed to be captives in Babylon for their unbelief and distrust of God, and the dejections and despondencies of their spirit under their affliction. "My way is hidden from the Lord; he takes no notice of our straits, nor concerns himself any more in our concernments. There are such difficulties in our case that even divine wisdom and power will be nonplussed." A man whose way is hidden is one whom God has hedged in. That God could not help them: "My judgment is passed over from my God; my case is past relief, so far past it that God himself cannot redress the grievances of it. There are times when our bones are dried." He reminds them of that which, if duly considered, was sufficient to silence all those fears and distrust. For their conviction, as before for the conviction of idolaters, he appeals to what they had known and what they had heard. Jacob and Israel were a knowing people, or might have been, and their knowledge came by hearing; for wisdom cried in their chief places of concourse.

Now, among other things, they had heard that God had spoken once, twice, yea, many a time they had heard it, that power belongs unto God. That is, He is himself is almighty God. He must needs be so, for he is the everlasting God, even Jehovah. He was from eternity; he will be to eternity; and therefore, with him there is no deficiency, no decay. He has his being of himself, and therefore all his perfections must needs be boundless. He is without beginning of days or end of life, and therefore with him there is no change. He is also the Creator of the ends of the earth, that is, of the whole earth and all that is in it from end to end. He therefore is the rightful owner and ruler of all and must be concluded to have an absolute power over all and an all-sufficiency to help his people in their greatest straits. Doubtless he is still as able to save his church as he was at first to make the world. He has wisdom to contrive the salvation, and that wisdom is never at a loss: There is no searching of his understanding, so as to countermine the counsels of it and defeat its intentions; no, nor so as to determine what he will do, for he has ways by himself. None can say, "thus far God's wisdom can go, and no further;" for, when we know not what to do, we can trust that God knows. He has power to bring about the salvation, and that power is never exhausted: He faints not, nor is weary; he upholds the whole creation, and governs all the creatures, and is neither tired nor toiled; and therefore, no doubt, he has power to relieve his church, when it is brought ever so low, without weakness or weariness. He gives strength and power to his people and helps them by enabling them to help themselves. He that is the strong God is the strength of Israel. He can help the weak, and often He gives power to the faint, to those that are ready to faint away; and to those that have no might he not only gives, but increases their strength, as there is more and more occasion for it. Many out of bodily weakness are wonderfully recovered, and made strong, by the providence of God: and many that are feeble in spirit, timorous and faint-hearted, unfit for services and sufferings, are yet strengthened by the grace of God with all might in the inward man. To those who are sensible of their weakness, and ready to acknowledge they have no might, God does in a special manner increase strength; for, when we are weak in ourselves, then we are strong in the Lord. He will help the willing, and help those who, in a humble dependence upon him, help themselves, and will do well for those who do their best.

Those who trust to their own sufficiency, and are so confident of it that they neither exert themselves to the utmost nor seek unto God for his grace, are the youth and the young men, who are strong, but are apt to think themselves stronger than they are. And they shall faint and be weary, yea, they shall utterly fail in their services, in their conflicts, and under their burdens; they shall soon be made to see the folly of trusting to themselves. But those that wait on the Lord, who make conscience of their duty to him, and by faith rely upon him and commit themselves to his guidance, shall find that God will not fail them. They shall have grace sufficient for them: They shall renew their strength as their work is renewed, as there is new occasion; they shall be anointed, and their lamps supplied, with fresh oil. God will be their arm every morning. If at any time they have been foiled and weakened they shall recover themselves, and so renew their strength. They shall change their strength, as their work is changed, doing work, suffering work; they shall have strength to labor, strength to wrestle, strength to resist, and strength to bear. They shall use this grace for the best purposes. Being strengthened, first, they shall soar upward, upward towards God: They shall mount up with wings like eagles, so strongly, so swiftly, and so high and heaven-ward. In the strength of divine grace, their souls shall ascend above the world, and enter the holiest. Pious and devout affections are the eagles' wings on which gracious souls mount up. They shall press forward, forward towards heaven. They shall walk, they shall run, the way of God's commandments, cheerfully and with swiftness, constantly and with perseverance they shall not faint; and therefore, in due season they shall reap. Just as this chapter admonished Jacob and Israel in their greatest distresses to wait on the Lord, Zion Hill continue waiting upon God, but not in despair, but in timely and effectual relief and comfort from him. In this chapter a reproof was given to the people of God for their fears and despondencies, and in a few words, God silenced those fears. And we, through patience and comfort of this scripture, have hope. And because of that hope, a blessed hope, we should be "Growing Stronger, Growing Deeper, and Reaching Higher"

We give praise and thanks to God for the establishment of this church. When we rejoice, we are reminded of the faith that these Christian men and women stood in when worshipping God. They believed that this church would be accomplished. Only a Holy God could have shown them this accomplishment!

THE CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led as we believe, by the Spirit of God to receive the LORD Jesus Christ as our Savior; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, and the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel through all nations

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just to those in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting and excessive anger; and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place, we will as soon as possible unite with some other church, where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.
AMEN.

In memorial to our mother. A Deaconess and Mother here at Zion Hill. A church where she loved her Pastor, Rev Clarence Hicks, his wife Sis Mary F. Hicks, and the entire congregation. Momma was a special saint and daughter of God, who felt it was most important to share love. There was no one considered to be a stranger, and her life was reminiscent of the love of God deeply rooted within her heart. Momma we miss you, and are looking forward to the day of joining you around the throne. In the meantime, keep praying on our behalf. We love and miss you forever and always.

Historical Review of Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church

There is a song entitled, "Beautiful Dreamer" that best captures the spirit of Dr. Charles C. Ailer, who founded and organized Zion Hill Baptist Church on the first Sunday in September, in the year of our Lord, 1917. From the moment of her birth, Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church embarked upon her God ordained destiny of being one of God's oaks in the city and the nation. In the spiritual, social and political realm. Thirteen members who had been a part of the Second Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Atlanta, Georgia, where Rev. Dr. C. Ailer pastored, formed the nucleus of the new congregation. With spirits aglow with the love of God and love for their pastor, Rev. C. Ailer, they all unitedly blended their spiritual forces to make their new church a great force in the community.

What a mighty force they became, for after nine short months at 2404 Central Avenue, with the Spirit as their director and the Gospel of Jesus Christ as their only product, the church outgrew their original site and they had to expand, and thus they purchased a new site on East 55th Street and Thackeray Avenue, from the Christian Reform Congregation for $11,000. This church became Zion Hill's new home from May, 1918 to August, 1920.

Under the direction of the Spirit and using the Gospel as the magnet, they quickly outgrew the edifice on Thackeray Avenue and moved to 2541 East 37th Street in 1924. This magnificent structure was purchased for the sum of $55,000 and immediately, Rev. Ailer, with a fire-up flock, was moved by the Lord to host the National Baptist Congress. For this event, the church was redecorated, the pulpit and pool were built, the extension added and the $10,000 organ installed and unveiled at the opening of Congress.

"There was Power in our Founder and Dreamer, Rev. Dr. Ailer"

No achievements are permanent in a church that weren't produced by the power of the Holy Ghost, Rev. Ailer was a spiritual dynamo. Zion Hill reputedly had 10,000 members. We had, supposedly, one of the largest congregations in the city and state. Dr. Ailer had powerful convictions. During his pastorage all teachers attended Teacher's meetings or they didn't teach. If you didn't teach the Bible, he sat you down. Slowly, Rev. Ailer's health failed and after a fruitful 24 years pastorage, God's highstepper departed this life on August 31, 1941.

The Reverend E. Smith, assistant to Rev. Dr. Ailer and was one of his best supporters for 23 years, assumed the role as acting pastor and led the church in the burning of a $4,000 mortgage in a year. This feat left the Rev. Smith in the heart of all the parishioners.

Brief History of the Pastorate

Rev. F. N. Tate (June – October, 1942)

Rev. L.M. Johnson (February, 1943 - September, 1946)

Rev. T.E. Weems (March, 1947 – February, 1953)

Rev. A.Wm. Jamerson (1953 -1979)

Rev. Clarence Hicks, Pastor Emeritus (June,1980 – October, 2012)

Rev. Jimmy L. Gates, Sr. (Interim Pastor Nov. 2012 – August 2014)

Rev. Jimmy L. Gates, Sr. (September 2014 - present)

Under the pastorate of Rev. Clarence Hicks, our building fund was increased from $99,000 to enough to build and to move Zion Hill into its new home at 11115 Kinsman Avenue on the second Sunday in November, 1986. We also burned our million plus dollar mortgage in 1999 under his leadership, and then Dea. Jimmy L. Gates, Sr. was chairman of the Mortgage Burning Committee that asked each member to donate $500.00 to pay off the mortgage.

Under the pastorate of Rev. Gates, we have upgraded our audio and video technology with large screens, added a website, social media sites, and callin for weekly servives for our convalescent and shut-in. Zion Hill has become a church that not only dwells on the spiritual being, but also the whole man. Zion Hill is actively involved in the Mt. Pleasant community and surrounding neighborhoods, feeding residents with hot meals, meals on wheels, fresh fruit and vegetable pantry, and our annual summer youth camp. Active ministries that help with community trauma, local schools, criminal justice reform, crime reduction, community youth initiatives, social justice and environmental concerns.

CONGRATULATIONS AND HAPPY BIRTHDAY

ZION HILL BAPTIST CHURCH

As we have come to another anniversary, I want to say a word of thanks to our Chairlady, Deaconess Felicia Mason and Co-Chair's Sis Janet Mays-Gates, Sis Vicki Dennis, and Dea Richard Mason. The responsibility of leading is not easy, and it comes with a price, but God in His infinite wisdom will always bless those who desire to be a blessing.

This is always a wonderful occasion to commemorate. The birthday of the church. The opportunity to reflect on the years God has allowed His church to be in existence. I do recall where He stated in Matthew 16:18, "And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Jesus still is taking ownership of His church, and as long as Jesus is still the CEO, there is no need to panic, in spite of everything we've been through His church has enjoyed over 2000 years of sustainability.

Zion Hill we are celebrating 103 years of lifting the name of Jesus, but this year has been one of challenges, commitment, reflections, renewal, and refreshing. While reflecting over this year, I thought about the biblical number or meaning of 103. There are 206 bones in an adult, which is: 2 x 103. The number 103 means "Name of God" or "Image of God". The number 2 means witness. The highest purpose of man is to express in his thoughts, words, and deeds the nature of God. Man sinned and so it was necessary for Jesus to come to fulfill the purpose of man to be the witness of God.

Confusion is also associated by the 103. You might have started something new and you don't know what to do next. God is more than willing to guide you. Start listening to the Holy Spirit which God speaking so that you get the message. In my lifetime, I have never seen the world in such a state of confusion that it is in today. The world is in utter chaos. If there was ever a time of people facing challenges especially those who identify with Jesus, we are experiencing those times. Politics and Social media are poisoning the minds of people and raising heights of bigotry and racism to resemble the Jim Crow era. COVID-19 surfaced in February of 2020 causing the shutdown of this country, while sending the economy, jobs, and schools into an extended stay at home policy.

While the world is in a state of confusion, the church, the people of God are holding on to the promises of God through His written word stating, "for God is not the author of confusion, but He is the God of peace" That is the peace that surpasses all understanding.

Deaconess Mason committee members, and the entire congregation once again I say thank you. Thank you for a job well done and I challenge you to keep your eyes on Jesus. He promises in His word, "no weapon formed against us would prosper. He did not say that it would not form, but He promised that it would not prosper. Congratulations and keep working for the Master.

In Agape Love,
Pastor and Sis. Jimmy L. Gates
