FROM THE HEART OF THE PASTOR.....

“But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away.” II Timothy 3:1-5

The Apostle Paul forewarns Timothy what the last days would be, with the reasons thereof. He prescribes various remedies against them, particularly his own example when he says, “but thou hast fully known my doctrine,” and the knowledge of the holy scriptures, which are able to make us wise unto salvation, and will be the best antidote against the corruptions of the times we live in. In this chapter Paul tells Timothy how bad others would be, and therefore how good he should be; and this use we should make of the badness of others, thereby to engage us to hold our own integrity so much the firmer.

Timothy must not think it strange if there were in the church bad men; for the net of the gospel was to enclose both good fish and bad. Jesus Christ had foretold that there would come seducers, and therefore we must not be offended at it, nor think the worse of religion or the church for it. Even in gold ore there will be dross, and a great deal of chaff among the wheat when it lies on the floor. Timothy must know that in the last days, in gospel times, there would come perilous times. Though gospel times were times of reformation in many respects, let him know that even in gospel times there would be perilous times, not so much on account of persecution from without as on account of corruptions within. These would be difficult times, wherein it would be difficult for a man to keep a good conscience. He does not say, “perilous times shall come, for both Jews and Gentiles shall be combined to root out Christianity,” but “perilous times shall come, for such as have the form of godliness shall be corrupt and wicked, and do a great deal of damage to the church.” Perilous times shall come, for men shall be wicked.

Sin makes the times perilous. When there is a general corruption of manners, and of the tempers of men, this makes the times dangerous to live in; for it is hard to keep our integrity in the midst of general corruption. The coming of perilous times is an evidence of the truth of scripture-predictions; if the event in this respect did not answer to the prophecy, we might be tempted to question the divinity of the Bible. We are all concerned to know this, to believe and consider, that we may not be surprised when we see the times perilous: This know also, Paul tells Timothy what would be the occasion of making these times perilous, or what shall be the marks and signs whereby these times may be known. Self-love will make the times perilous. Who is there who does not love himself? But this is meant of an irregular sinful self-love. Men love their carnal selves better than their spiritual selves. Men love to gratify their own lusts, and make provision for them, more than to please God and do their duty. Instead of Christian charity, which takes care for the good of others, they will mind themselves only, and prefer their own gratification before the church’s edification. That’s why the question is asked, “Lovers of Pleasure, or Lovers of God”
