FROM THE HEART OF THE PASTOR.....

“But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.” John 14:26

The power of the Holy Spirit. It is a feeling that is difficult to explain. One that takes over when we are at the point of giving up, out, and in.

The Spirit is a person and not merely a force, but when we start on page one of the Bible, before creation ever even began, we see a depiction of the spirit of God hovering over the dark, disordered waters of the earth, ready to begin spreading goodness and creation. In the Bible, any time we see a description of the spirit of God, such as what is depicted in the first few verses of the Bible, the Hebrew word "ruakh" is used. Ruakh can describe an invisible, powerful energy, and necessary for life, making "The Spirit" a fitting description for the Spirit of God.

In this text, the mission of the Spirit is here ascribed to the Father, but not to the exclusion of the Son, who is also said to send him, which was not so proper to be mentioned here, because he speaks of his being sent, "in his name"; that is, at his request, through his mediation and intercession, in his room and stead, acting, the same part, and bearing the same flame of an advocate or comforter, and for the glory and honor of his name. The act of sending does not suppose any local motion, which cannot agree with an infinite and immense spirit; nor inferiority in him to the other two persons, since he who is sent by Christ, and in his name, is also the sender of Christ; but it denotes the joint consent and agreement of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The text further says, “he shall teach you all things” This is the appropriate work and business of the Spirit, to teach, interpret, and explain all things which Christ had said to them; to make them plainer and easier to their understandings; to instruct them in all things necessary to salvation, and to be known by them, that they might teach them others.

The Lord promised the Holy Spirit, would “bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said to you.” So through inattention, or want of understanding in them, even some had slipped their minds, and were forgotten by them. This accounts for it, how the evangelists some years after the death of Christ; at different times and places, and without consulting each other, could commit to writing the life, actions, sayings, and sermons of Christ, with all the minute circumstances attending them. Why, because of the power of the Holy Spirit that dwells within us. I submit to each of you today, try it, you just might like it.
