RECCESIONAL.....LET THE CHURCH SAY AMEN

THE CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led as we believe, by the Spirit of God to receive the LORD Jesus Christ as our Savior; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the Word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputations, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Savior in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

When we're removed from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word. AMEN

ADDITIONAL ANNOUNCEMENT

WHO

At the Saint Luke's Foundation, we strive to put our stated values to practice, where our words show up in our actions. We are a Foundation that awards millions of dollars each year to organizations that serve you and your community. The goals are to align our grant awards with your interests and for the associated activities to have a positive impact on your health and wellbeing.

WHY

We know you have the power to be your own best advocate!

We created Lift Every Voice as a means to hear directly from the people we intend on uplifting. More specifically, we want to invest our grant funds where you have input in shaping the services meant to help you and your neighborhood. For these reasons, we want to maintain ongoing dialogue to learn directly from you.

WHAT

Lift Every Voice is a community engagement platform consisting of the lev216.org website with corresponding email and text messaging features. It is designed for community stakeholders to provide feedback on community services that allow people to thrive. The effort includes an outreach campaign to make the community aware of this initiative. Members of Lift Every Voice will receive updates on our findings and notices about available community resources.

As you stay connected with us through Lift Every Voice, we hope you see your imprint on our grantmaking decisions.

HOW

Explore the site and share your feedback where prompted. Become a member by sharing your email and/or cell phone number. This will allow us to keep you informed about our findings. In addition, we will continuously garner your feedback as we evaluate, learn from, and modify our grantmaking decisions. We will not share your contact info with any other entity.

FROM THE HEART OF THE PASTOR.....

“And the Lord heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying, surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers. Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed the Lord. Also, the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, thou also shalt not go in thither. But Joshua the son of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.”

Deuteronomy 1:34-38

At this point Israel was camped on the great plains of Moab, able to see across the Jordan River into the Promised Land. This was the land of Canaan that God promised them but which they had not occupied for 400 years. They had come through a long, and difficult journey from Egypt made all the more long and difficult because of their unbelief and the death of the adult generation which first came out of Egypt. At this pivotal point in Israel's history, on the threshold of the Promised Land, and ready to adopt a true national identity, Moses spoke to Israel.

After seeing God's faithfulness in enabling them to cross the land of the Amorites, Moses was ready to lead the nation into Canaan. This encouragement was important because this was the critical moment for Israel. They were a little more than a year out of Egypt and ready to go into the Promised Land. It was there before them, ready for them to take by faith if they would not fear or be discouraged. As Moses remembered this suggestion, "let us send spies over to check out the land" he looked back with regret. There really was no compelling reason to send forth spies into the Promised Land. God had told them that the land was good. Unless they did not believe Him, there was no reason to confirm it on their own. God had told them they would take the land and defeat the nations living there. Unless they did not believe Him, there was no reason to take a look at the enemies and see if God was somehow up to the challenge.

Once again, Moses must have had regrets as he remembered this. The people suggested it and Moses agreed to it. Yet when ten of the twelve spies came back with a report filled with fear and unbelief, the nation believed them and refused to believe God's promised and enter in. Significantly, Moses didn't mention the evil report of the unbelieving spies. It is almost as if the memory was so painful that Moses wouldn't even deal with it. It was enough that the nation of Israel had the report from the godly spies, Joshua and Caleb.

Ultimately, the ten spies and all Israel said, "We went into the land of Canaan and found it to be a wonderful land, just as the LORD said it would be. God's word was true on that point. Nevertheless, essentially saying, 'despite all that, we don't believe God when He says He will enable to overcome the enemies of the land and to possess it. Despite the fact we have seen that God's word is true, we will not trust Him for great things in the future. This is a terrible testimony. How can we as children of God allow our fears to overcome our faith?
