OCTOBER 2024

"MESSAGE FROM YOUR ER"

Happy October, Everyone!

Unfortunately, we have some disappointing news regarding our roof insurance claim—the claim was denied. The board will be meeting this week to explore any possible options to challenge this decision. In the meantime, we kindly ask that you continue to contribute to our Building Fund. Every little bit helps as we work towards maintaining and improving our Lodge.

In better news, thanks to the efforts of some of our dedicated members, we now have the NFL package, which means you can watch all the football games right here at the Lodge! Sunday Funday is officially back, and we look forward to seeing you in the lounge, enjoying your favorite teams.

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, October 23rd, as we will be welcoming the Brotherhood Ride to our Lodge. This incredible event honors fallen first responders, and we are proud to host these riders and their support team. They will arrive between 4 PM and 5 PM, and dinner will be served at 7 PM. Tickets for dinner are available now for $10 and can be purchased in the lounge or online. For more details, see the flyer on page 9. Please note that Bingo is canceled that evening in observance of this special event.

Lastly, a friendly reminder regarding parking. The parking lot behind our building on Federal Highway belongs to our neighbors. Please respect their property, and if spaces are marked or blocked off, do not move the barriers to park there.

Warm Regards,

Danielle Smith

BROTHERHOOD RIDE – WHY WE RIDE

Why ride to honor those who have fallen in the line of duty?

When I heard the news that one of my brothers had died, I felt so low.

We had never met, I never shook your hand, our spouses did not know each other, nor did your kids call me uncle. But I knew I had lost a brother.

You were a total stranger to me, but there was a lump in my throat and a hole in my heart.

Why did it bother me so much, how could my wife tell that I had lost another friend?

Why did I feel I needed to show how firefighters, police officers, and emergency responders are all brothers?

You had worn the same uniform as mine, that of an emergency responder. You had taken the same oath to protect lives and property, to serve and protect, care for the sick and you knew that the oath was more than a bunch of words to get on the job.

You knew from the day that you repeated those words that you would have to put your life on the line to save others. You knew that if you had to, you would risk everything to save someone who you never met.

We are not like other workers; we expect to be in danger from the start of our shift until we are relieved by another emergency responder. We will defend and protect anyone who calls us without hesitation.

I wonder what you thought as you made the ultimate sacrifice. I can only hope that as you lay in the dark smoke-filled hallway or on the dark lonely street, I hope that you were comforted knowing that your brothers and sisters were coming to get you.

We know that they were unable to reach you in time, but rest assured brother they finished the job you started. They made your community safe again.

Other fallen brothers lost their lives because they sacrificed their bodies throughout their careers. They fought the fires and saved lives and property despite the repeated risk to their health. Those brethren bore the burden of their illnesses with courage and fortitude. They had to endure physical pain as well as the mental anguish of knowing their lives were coming to an end far earlier than they had control over. I hope that they were comforted with the knowledge that we would watch over their families and remember their spirit long after they left this physical world.

So, my brother, I was not able to be with you when you paid the ultimate price, but my brothers and I have come here to honor you. We know that you will say "I was only doing my job." No, you were doing the work of God, and we will not apologize for reminding everyone that you gave your life to protect their community.

So why do we train so hard to ride for a total stranger? Why do we ride in all different kinds of weather: rain, wind, cold, heat? Why do we sleep wherever we can find space on the floor? Why would we do this for a total stranger? We wouldn't, but we will for our brothers.

We always say NEVER FORGET, but time moves on and people will forget about that day. Rest assured we will remind them that there are families and co-workers who still have a hole in their heart that will never be filled.

We are not heroes, but we are proud to wear the names of the heroes on our backs for all to see.

So stand down my brother, you have completed your shift. Let our legs carry your memory and remind all who will listen that "You gave your life to save a total stranger and protect your community".

BUILDING FUND – WE NEED YOU!

Many thanks to those of you who made a donation to the Lodge building fund. The generous donations allowed us to resurface the roof of the Lodge eliminating many of the leaks that we were experiencing.

Unfortunately, this roof repairs did not fix all the leaks and the funds have been depleted. We have learned that some of the existing leaks were caused by the air conditioning units on the roof. These air conditioner(s) need to be replaced because of age and rusted components that are causing the leaks.

The dues we collect and the money raised from various events at the Lodge only produce enough revenue for the normal operation of the Lodge. Florida Statute requires money raised in the Queen of Hearts be placed in our charity account. These major capital expenses can only really be funded by generous donation from our members. That is why we are again asking you to donation whatever you can (small or large) toward the Lodge Building Fund.

We are aware that you, as Elks, are constantly asked to contribute and donate to various events. We also know that some are in a better position to donate than others. Just know that every donation of any amount is truly appreciated.

Donation can be made either at the Lodge or on our website at delrayelks.org.

T-SHIRT SALES

Our T-shirt sales have been going very briskly. While at the Lodge, you can see what's available in our glass display cases. We are preparing to place a new order so if there is a particular t-shirt or size you wish to have, please leave a message at the Lodge or speak to Suzy Sims to see if your request is available. It does take a few weeks to receive the order once it is placed so we appreciate your patience.
