"MESSAGE FROM YOUR ER"

Dear Members,

This will be my last message to you as Exalted Ruler, as the new slate of officers takes over on April 1st. I have taken some time to reflect on our Elk year, and I must say it has been a great one. You, the members, guide the course of our organization, and you all deserve a big round of applause for your exceptional navigation skills.

We have had a very successful year financially, and we have also managed to uphold our reputation as a caring and sharing organization. When I began my third term as your Exalted Ruler, I was made aware that we were not in good financial condition, and there was concern that we might not remain open. I refused to entertain that idea because I knew that the members of Delray Beach Elks Lodge 1770 would never let that happen.

I believe that an Elks Lodge cannot be successful if the members are not truly involved. This is why I stated at the beginning of the year that we would not say no to anyone who had an idea for an event, and I am proud to say that we have had something happening every month.

Transforming our ballroom into a revenue-generating engine required the talents of a professional focused solely on the ballroom. I am happy to report that Sylvana (Gigi) Dominguez has done just that, and we are beginning to see the benefits.

Regarding food, Kathy Glynn, Kevin Smith, and their team of volunteers have revitalized our kitchen, providing us with excellent meals and catering opportunities. The bar, under the guidance of our bar manager, Gina Lambert, continues to see increasing revenues with no significant price increases. Thank you, Gina and your bar staff, for your hard work.

Management is crucial for keeping an Elks Lodge running smoothly, and I have been fortunate to work with an outstanding team: Joe Civitano, Bill Rogers, Marilyn DePalma, Mike Sinneck, Kenn Goatley, Victor Hewit, Laurie Rogers, Jeff Aubrey, Patti Lydon, and Les Nelson, Lynn Levanco, Charlie Winters and Paul Byrne. Thank you all for your dedication and hard work.

Members, I owe you a debt of gratitude for a fantastic year. Your continued support of the lodge and the charities we support has truly been a blessing. I know that you will continue to support the incoming officers as they guide us through 2026-2027.

Thank you all once again.

Fraternally yours,
Cecil Broderick
Exalted Ruler

ELK OF THE MONTH

We are proud to announce that our Elk of the Month is Gina Lambert. Gina has been an official member of our lodge for nine years, but she has been a part of our community even longer, as her late husband was a member for 16 years.

Gina is well-known at the lodge and currently manages our bar staff. She works behind the bar on Saturdays during Bingo, and she is responsible for ordering supplies and scheduling shifts.

Please join me in congratulating Gina Lambert as our Elk of the Month! I know that Garry would be proud of you, not only for your dedication to the Elks but also for the wonderful job you did raising your son, Austin, into the man he is today. Congratulations, Gina!
