& HOFFY TOURS PRESENT

CALIFORNIA HISTORY TOUR

Missions & Richard Henry Dana!

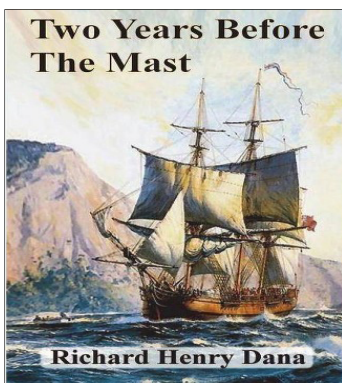

“Step back in time and learn about the rich history of early California”

Tuesday, April 7, Departs Gate 3: 8:30 AM – 4:30PM

$90 - Chicago Club Members/$95 - non-members

EARLY BIRD SPECIAL: DEDUCT $10.00 IF PURCHASED BEFORE MARCH 10, 52 SEATS

- ✓ Mission San Juan Capistrano and Los Rios Historic District – enjoy a guided tour of Orange County’s most precious landmark and learn about its development, devastating earthquake, decline during the Californio period, and rebirth in the early 20th century. You’ll also love the Mission Store and the incredible gardens (thanks to the Gardening Angels).
- ✓ Sailing Brig Pilgrim & Richard Henry Dana – Come see the famous sailing ship that plied the California coast in search of hides for the New England Market. Learn about life aboard this 1834 vessel, and the man who made it famous.
- ✓ Mission San Luis Rey Lunch and Tour – Despite its proximity, many people have not seen this beautiful 1798 mission, built in the Spanish Colonial, Classical and Baroque style. We’ll enjoy lunch in the Mission grounds prior to a tour that includes the historic church, lavanderia, convent, cemetery and extensive museum. The Mission was declared a National Historic Landmark in 1970. Includes lunch: hot entrée, salad bar, drink and dessert. Veggie option on request.

INCLUDES: ADMISSION FEES, GRATUITIES, LUNCH, SNACKS AND HOFFY’S TRIVIA GAMES
