

Bill A. Jones

Bill A. Jones sings and swings the great standards in the tradition of Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett, Michael Buble & others, backed by a Big Band.

Although known to millions from his recurring role as news anchor 'Rod Remington' on the Fox TV show Glee, Bill was named one of LA's Best Male Cabaret/Concert Artists by BroadwayWorld's Don Grigware, and has opened for Tony Bennett, Steve Tyrell, & The Mills Brothers. Other credits include touring with The Glenn Miller Orchestra, starring in the stage productions of Big Band Christmas & Battle of the Big Bands, and selling out LA venues with his 6-piece group "The A Players." Bill's solo show "The Great Gentlemen of Song" made its New York debut in March 2019 to high acclaim, and he garnered multiple standing ovations during appearances with renowned pianist Lenore Raphael.
