OPPORTUNITIES FOR SPONSORSHIP

- Coy is open to all levels of sponsorship for his race program and can adapt to what is best for his representation of your business. The racing community is loyal to those that support the sport, and Coy is well-known and liked in the sport as well as on social media, with over 4,300 followers on Facebook. His reach is local and national with his race program, so your marketing dollars would be used wisely, growing your business and helping a young man actively pursuing his dream of being professional flat track motorcycle racer.
- Your business logos can be placed on bike, race rig, merchandise and website, depending on level of sponsorship.
