

WOLFHOUND COP TRAINING

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

MCOLCS - Continuing Professional Education approved

Drunk and Drugged Driving:

A Cop-Friendly way to Investigate

Students will be effectively trained so the mystery and daunting process of conducting an OWI/OUID investigation becomes familiar and understandable. The material and investigation process will be taught with a Cop-Friendly, global approach rather than in a strict linear fashion. This training course will make impaired driving investigations substantially easier for every road patrol officer on the street. Cops will learn how to identify potentially impaired drivers; and the complete process of investigating impaired driving using SFSTs and other methods. Officers will receive training on how to articulate the necessary information in both arrest reports and search warrants, as well as tips and hints to aid officers in courtroom testimony. Whether you are a veteran with hundreds of drunk driving arrests, or a young officer looking to improve, this course will benefit you! This training will build your confidence and ability to handle OWIs and OUIDs.

COURSE TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Review of SFSTs for Drunk Driving and Drugged Driving investigations.
- Provide officers practical ways of differentiating between sober and Impaired Drivers.
- Examples of relevant case law for officers investigating Impaired Drivers.
- Education on interpersonal communication and interviewing techniques.
- Instruction relating to Impaired Drivers who are not “Drunk,” but impaired by drugs.
- Cops will be taught practical techniques to observe more Impaired Drivers
- Information on how to recognize signs of impaired driving when interacting with a driver.
- Instruction in articulating information in Arrest Reports as well as in Search Warrants.
- Discussion of Search Warrants so they are no longer intimidating.
- Relevant Michigan Laws Impaired Driving Laws will be discussed.
- Teaching for cops to be able to verbally articulate information on the stand in a court room.
