

WOLFHOUND COP TRAINING

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Legal Update:

A Prosecutor's Perspective on Law Enforcement

A seasoned and experienced Prosecutor will provide training on a variety of relevant law enforcement topics, including a heavy focus on the 4th amendment. The instructor will give updates in new legislation, noteworthy cases and legal decisions, as well as review fundamental topics that are imperative for law enforcement officers. Officers will be able to ask questions of a veteran prosecutor who shares the goals and values of Police Officers. The training will enable the students to perform professionally as a law enforcement officers and produce complete work products in investigations and reports. In addition to extensive prosecutorial experience; The instructor has also worked as a Police Officer and understands law enforcement needs from multiple perspectives.

COURSE TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Traffic Laws – Updates and Review.
- Firearms Laws & Weapons Offenses.
- Case Law Updates, and discussion of relevant cases.
- Review of Michigan Specific Cases reviewed by the Michigan Appeals Court and Supreme Court.
- Discussion of new legislation effecting L.E. at both the Federal and State levels.
- Instruction in legal concepts necessary for Officers in Patrol and Investigative functions.
- Provide opportunities for participants to discuss in detail how new legal decisions and legislation affect particular cases that they are working.

DATE: March 20, 2025

TIME: 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Royal Oak Police Department- 450 E. Eleven Mile Rd., Royal Oak, MI 48067

CLASS SIZE: Limited to Available Seating.

COST: $259.00 (This Course will be Registered with MCOLES for use of 302 funds)

REGISTRATION: Complete registration form and email to: info@wolfhoundcoptraining.com

Make Checks payable to: Wolfhound Cop Training

Website: WolfhoundCopTraining.com

Questions: info@WolfhoundCopTraining.com