DELMAR, NEW YORK

JANUARY 1964

WHAT PRICE "IMAGE"

Before the tragic event of November 22 last, we went to press with a rather timely article, to put it mildly, entitled "Thunder on the Right".

Well, the lightning has struck. Not from the direction of the alleged thunder but rather from just the opposite direction, the Left, a point of origin which many would have the American people believe is perfectly harmless.

It would be naive to expect those terrified by a non-existent thunder, of which they have been so supposedly concerned, to admit their blindness, and close ranks with those who have been warning the American people for years of the deadly cancers of materialism, inertia and indifference, that have been gnawing at the vital organs of this beloved country of ours.

Yes, we should all be ashamed of the "image" that we have given to others, but not those for whom our apologists are so concerned. Let's give more thought to how we appear in the eyes of our children, our young people, and our fellow Americans who are really concerned at the apathy that has been actually created by appeasers and others who would rather be Red than dead.

The pathetic seeking to explain away this awful killing on other than the source from which it came is nauseating indeed. There is no difference between the Left and the Right, so the story goes, except that the death of a President is now chargeable to that Left.

There is no doubt that we should be ashamed of the image we have given to our youth, an image of failing to heed the warnings of J. Edgar Hoover, and other loyal Americans, of the danger from within, as represented by a vicious, soulless, murderous Communist Party.

Let us resolve in the new year to be on guard against the dangers from any extreme, and never again allow ourselves to be blinded from one direction.

Building Fund

In reply to a question about the status of the Building Fund, Commander Dalton replied that the Fund had surpassed a $3,000.00 goal. The Fund is still active and anyone inclined to do so should contribute or pledge whatever their means will allow.

MARYROSE ORATORESS

In the interest of distributing the opportunity for students in the various secondary schools in the Post's community, Commander Dick Dalton this year has invited Maryrose Academy on New Scotland Road, Hurstville, to provide the orator which Blanchard Post will sponsor in this year's American Legion County Oratorical Contest. Maryrose is an all-girl's academy operated by the Sisters of the Holy Names.

Blanchard's entrant in last year's contest made an outstanding second-place with good delivery and content only to miss winning because of an overtime of two minutes — and that because of not receiving proper instructions on the time limits.

The subject matter of the orations had to do with the Constitution of the United States. It is left to the contestants as to what they will say and to say it. The talks are from memory and offer a full afternoon of enjoyment to hear them.

At press-time the Academy had accepted the invitation to furnish the speaker whose name was not as yet selected.

Commander Dalton asks as many Blanchard Legionnaires who can do so to set aside the afternoon of Sunday, January 26, to go to St. Teresa of Avila Auditorium on New Scotland Avenue (near Hollywood Avenue) in Albany by 2 p.m. To do so will give moral support to our entry in this American Legion program for the youth of our country. Wear a Legion cap if you have one.

PERSONAL NOTICE:

Jim Barackus, you lost $20 by not being at the mid-December Post meeting. And the meeting before, Clayt Smith missed out on $15. That's what the attendance kitty amounted to when the names of these fellows were drawn from the roster cards. Had they been present when their names were drawn, they would have collected. Don't let this happen to you!

Welcome '64

If this issue of the TEN FORTY TIMES arrives before 1963 departs, this will serve to let anyone who is interested to know that a New Year's Eve Party is being held at the Post at $6 per person. Barney Greene is chairman of the affair. For reservations, call him or Art Quinn at the Post.

MEMORY LANE

It has become the custom for the mid-monthly January Post meeting to be set aside as "Old Timers" Night. This year will be different. After opening the meeting, Commander Dick Dalton will suspend regular business of the Post and turn the gavel over to old timer and Past Commander, Ralph Butler. We do not know what Ralph's program will be but it is certain that a goodly, but diminishing, number of the Post's World War I members will join with Ralph in reminiscing those "good old days". The Post is now over three decades old. In that time, and with their memories of their World War I trials and tribulations, the old timers should have a happy evening. Chairman Butler calls on his younger buddies of World War II vintage and the "Juniors" of the Korean War to join in the pleasantries of the evening.

MARY'S CORNER

The start of a new year is the time when most of us take a rather hasty look back at the year about to end. Usually, with a pang of regret, we think of the many good intentions and plans which failed to work out, so we close that chapter of our life and look ahead determined to make the most of our next year. President Mary will be glad to know that one of your firm resolutions is to be a more active member of your Blanchard Auxiliary by your attendance and through your support of the many wonderful Auxiliary programs.

Legislation and National Security head the Auxiliary program calendar for the month of January. Let's make it our business to read up on what is taking place during the legislative session. Many people look in on the sessions held Monday nights and find them most interesting and informative. Legislative Chairman Anne de Heus will tell you what time, where and how, if you are interested.

As for National Security, that is something that deeply concerns us all. The most effective way the majority of our members can help is through the purchase of savings bonds. Mabel McCredie would be happy if you would report these purchases to her each month (HE 9-1149) so that our Unit may receive credit for participation in the National Security program.

Sunday, December 1, found our ever-faithful workers — Maud Hafley, Mary Conner and Esther Cooke—helping with Open House at the VA Hospital, Albany. Then on Monday, December 2, Maud, assisted by Mary Conner and Chris Barkhuff, represented Blanchard Unit working on Gift Shop at the Hospital. Maud reports that Blanchard Unit contributed over 100 gifts with a value of $195.00 and also that the Post assisted the Unit in this program with a financial contribution. For all of this Maud is grateful and extends a sincere "thank you" to all.

Esther Cooke, God bless her, celebrated her 70th birthday recently and some of her many friends surprised her with an impromptu party at the Post. We understand Esther was thrilled! The rest of her Auxiliary friends join now in a belated but hearty greeting with the best of wishes for at least seventy more swingin' years!

News from our ill members is on the brighter side this month. After a serious siege, we are happy to learn that Ruth Dickinson is now out of the hospital and recuperating at home (27 Partridge Rd.) Florence Holmes is slowly but steadily regaining strength at home (447 Kenwood Ave.) and sounds like her usual self over the telephone. Lillian Davenport, for so many years one of our most outstanding and energetic members, is seen occasionally taking a ride around town or a short walk near her home at 25 Fernbank Ave. To these members goes a New Year's greeting with best wishes for a rapid return to good health.

Now is the time, too, to circle Tuesday, February 18, on your calendar. Blanchard Unit will have another birthday and the annual dinner party is in the planning stage. More details about that in the next 1040 issue!

A happy, healthy and pleasant year to come to each and every Auxiliary member from each and every Auxiliary member!

J. F. K. MEMORIAL

Triggered by a suggestion from Mike Norton, a brief memorial ceremony was hastily assembled by Commander Dick Dalton at the flag pole on the Post lawn on the afternoon of the funeral of our late President, John Fitzgerald Kennedy. Chaplain Charles Kaufuss officiated with a Prayer for the Deceased followed by a volley of rifle-fire by the Firing Squad, composed of Dick and Kenny Lenseth, Mike Norton, George Feiden, Frank Nealon, Sid Kaplan and Don Wilcox.

In attendance at the ceremony were Legionnaires Otto de Heus, Harold Barkhuff, Phillip Murray, Bert Kohinke, Bob Schreck, Joe Von Ronne, Rodger Fryer, Al Woehrle, Jim Fanning, Bill Johnston, and the wives of several of these Post members. They responded in reply to telephone calls made by the organizers of the ceremony.

New Post F.O.

Post Finance Officer is now David Parr of Evelyn Drive, Delmar. Dave succeeds Paul Nelson whose pressure of business made it necessary for him to vacate the position. Election of Dave to the vacancy was made by the Post Affairs Committee last month. Dave, an examiner in the N. Y. State Division of the Budget, has lived in Delmar since 1950. He is from Rochester, N. Y. A World War II vet, he saw combat with the 100th Infantry Division in Europe. He and his wife, Jeanne, have two young sons.

NEW DATE FOR PA COMM

A move was started last month to reduce the number of meetings at which the Post Commander and the Post Finance Officer must attend under the schedule then in operation. In addition to the two regular Post meetings held on the first and third Mondays of the ten months of the year, they were also required to attend the Post Affairs Committee meeting on the monthly second Monday and the Board of Directors meeting which takes place on the last Monday of each month. The Post meetings are fixed by the Post's Constitution and By-Laws. The other two meetings are at the discretion of the Chairman, who happens to be the Post Commander for the Post Affairs Committee and the Chairman of the Board of Directors, who according to the Constitution cannot be the Post Commander.

The move for the change was also made in the interest of increasing the attendance at Post meetings which continue to be from under-quorum (which is 20) to about ten over quorum. The discussion was begun by Al Woehrle at the mid-December meeting. Objection to any change of meeting date for the Board of Directors was expressed by Chairman Barkhuff and some others. As a result of the discussion, a motion by Vice Commander Gene Fitzpatrick was approved which changes the time of the Post Affairs Committee, which will now meet at 7:00 p.m. on the first Monday of the month prior to the regular first meeting of the month. The Post Affairs Committee is composed of the Commander, Vice Commanders, Adjutant, Finance Officer and committee chairmen whom the Commander invites to these meetings.

30% TO GO

As of December 12th, reports Vice Commander - Membership Chairman Fred Stahlhut, Blanchard Post had 529 paid-up Legionnaires for 1964. In this number were nearly 4% new-comers to American Legion and Blanchard Post.

"These figures," says Fred, "point up two significant Legion concepts. First, here in the Blanchard Post we have a sincerely Legion-minded group of war-veterans devoted to the principles of the American Legion. Secondly, there is available a large reservoir of eligible Legion members just waiting to be asked to join. The conclusion: It's up to you to ask and sign up the next new Legionnaire."

New members are urged to attend the mid-monthly meeting on January 20, so that they might be formally received into the Post with induction ceremonies which includes presentation of the American Legion lapel emblem.

Winter Wonderland

Sometime this month some Blanchard Legionnaires living near the Von Ronne pond are going to get a call from Hank Voorhees to come to the pond to help make it ready for the Winter Carnival Day. Hank suggests to those who regularly use the pond, or whose children skate on it, to take time out and bring a shovel to scrape off the loose snow. This is a worthy community project which the Post sponsors and all members in the Post who can, should help keep the pond in good skating condition. Again, Chairman Voorhees suggests that the Legionnaires who come to work, or play, on the pond should wear their Legion caps as their "status symbol".

Indoor Sports

Blanchard Post's date to sponsor this year's Indoor Sports is February 1. Mike Norton is chairman for the event. There will be entertainment and refreshments for our guests, some of whom have previously visited our Post and others who will be making their initial visit as an Indoor Sport. The "Sports" are those persons, young and old, invalidated because of physical handicaps. Commander Dalton and Activities Chairman Fitzpatrick ask that all who can chip in to help Mike with the transportation of our guests and lend whatever other assistance he may need to make this a gala day.

Beginner's Luck

Commander Dalton was recently invited to fill in on the Valek Post bowling team in the Albany County Legion League and he wound up leading the League with a 617 high triple. Richard suggests any idle bowlers anxious to get in a league, to make up a five-man team and apply to the County Legion League for membership.

WHERE ARE THE FLAGS?

The lack of American Flags being displayed in our community caused considerable discussion at our recent Post meeting. Legionnaire George Reiber and Past Commander George Butman both reported they had made surveys in the tri-village area which showed them only a half-dozen flags being flown from in front of homes or places of business on days when it was expected the flag would be hoisted.

As a result of the discussions, Commander Dalton named George Reiber to be the Post Flag Chairman for this year. George's first move was to sell a Flag Kit from the Post's stock to Legionnaire Burr Deitz. There is still available at the Post a small supply of these Flag Kits at $4.00 and 40¢ a kit. George says, "start the year off right. Buy one of these kits so that you'll have it at home for the occasions when your home should have the American Flag flown in front of it."

BB Chairman Does It Again

The Blood Bank has received another donation which brings its balance up to only three pints, reports Chairman Warren Moesner. This donation, says the Chairman, came from Warren Moesner.

If Warren keeps giving all his blood, the Post will have to get a new Blood Bank Chairman.

Warren hopes that by setting this good example he can excite some other equally healthy members of the Post, or others who can be encouraged to do so, to donate their blood to the Post's Blood Bank Account at the Albany Medical Center.

Please do your share in this vitally important program.

Winter Carnival Day

Vice Commander and Activities Chairman Gene Fitzpatrick has the task of setting up a busy schedule for Saturday, January 25, and will need all the help he can get.

Subject to weather conditions, the annual Winter Carnival for the kiddies which Blanchard Post sponsors will take place at the Joe Von Ronne pond at 1:30 p.m. The Carnival will feature ice skating races and prizes and lots of hot dogs and hot chocolate.

That night at the Post, there will be a Winter Carnival Dance. Music will be furnished by the Red Coats, beginning at 10:00 p.m.
