BCSH SR. TO TALK FOR BLANCHARD

Blanchard Post this year is sponsoring David L. Williamson as its entry in the Albany County American Legion Oratorical contest.

The contest takes place Sunday afternoon, January 24 at St. Teresa of Avila Auditorium on New Scotland Avenue in Albany. The time is two p.m.

DAVID L. WILLIAMSON

Russ Denegar, Blanchard Post Chairman for the Oratorical Contest, with the cooperation of the faculty of Bethlehem Central Senior High School chose young Williamson from among several prospective candidates for the program.

David, 17, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland P. Williamson of 535 Wayne Place, Delmar. Mr. Williamson is office manager for the A & P Tea Company's Albany headquarters.

Young Williamson is on the BCHS debating team. He looks to a future in the law profession and politics. He has strong musical talents and is active in the school's band, orchestra and choral groups. He is a member of a Dixieland band. Chess is another of his activities.

Post Commander O'Hara reminds all Blanchard Legionnaires that sponsorship of the American Legion Oratorical Contest is among the major Legion programs. As always, the topic given to the young speakers has to do with the Constitution of the United States. Subject to the rules of the contest, it is up to the contestant to use his or her talent on how best to present the oratory.

Post members can offer strong moral support to our contestant by going to St. Teresa Hall on the afternoon of the contest. For those who have them, it is urged that they bring and wear their Legion caps. "The important thing", says Commander O'Hara, "is to attend this inspiring program."

GEMUTLICHKITE

"For your enjoyment" is what the headline means. It's the theme of the German Night Dinner and Dance being sponsored by Blanchard Post at the Post Hall on Saturday, January 23. Serving is from 5:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Chairman Joseph Bauhofer, Jr., heads a committee of German - named Blanchardites like Butman, Von Ronne, Dalton, Reeber, Woehrle, O'Hara, McGoe, Cannizzaro, etc.

A novelty souvenir is in store for the diners. A supply of 19-oz. earthenware steins on which the American Legion emblem has been stamped is being imported from Germany. For $1 the adult diners will be able to purchase a stein-full of imported German beer and keep the stein. Refills of the German beer will be 50 cents per stein.

To lend color to the event the waiters and waitresses will be dressed in Bavarian costumes.

The menu will be fresh pork with sauerkraut, apple kuchen and coffee.

"Jah, dos is ein schnitzelbank" and other music of similar nature will be provided by the dance band which starts at 9:00 p.m.

It is anticipated, unless a blizzard hits us, that the German night will out-do the successful Irish and Italian nights held at our Post. That means 300 servings!

Another feature for this affair will be the raffling off of a ceramic eight-horse drawn wagon with a load of beer barrels. Truly, a conversation and decorative piece anyone would be delighted to own.

Dinner tickets are priced at $2.25 for adults and $1.25 for children. The souvenir steins are not included in the price for the dinner tickets. Tickets are available from Art Quinn at the Post, from Joe Bauhofer, and any members of his committee or from Commander O'Hara and any of the Post officers.

IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

At the mid-January Post meeting on Monday, January 18, will be featured by a program on the choice, service and use of wine. Through the courtesy of the Great Western Wineries which produces New York State wines there will be a movie and talk by an expert in wine-making. Sampling is also on the agenda.

Commander O'Hara says: "The business portion of the meeting will be held to a minimum in the interest of giving the most time to this special event. A purpose of this meeting is to encourage a larger turn-out for a Post meeting as well as encouraging prospective members for the American Legion to visit our Post. Women veterans are urged to become active in the American Legion and this may be an incentive to move them in this direction. Post members are reminded to have their wives accompany them to these public service meetings and most certainly Blanchard Auxiliary members should attend."

IRENE'S CORNER

Holiday season is always a busy season and the one just passed was no exception for our Auxiliary members.

Starting off with Open House at the Gift Shop at the Veterans' Hospital, then followed by Albany County Day, Tuesday, December 8. Workers from our unit were Mary Conner, Betty Costigan and Chris Barkhuff. It was a very busy day, but we felt well repaid for our efforts in such a worthwhile program.

Who will ever forget the weekend of December 5 and 6? Through the years we have heard of the blizzard of '88, now we can tell of the ice storm of '64! Saturday, December 5th was the night scheduled for the annual tinsel ball, but of course, it had to be postponed because of the storm, in our town, as well as many surrounding towns. Everything outside was covered with ice—a real Tinsel Ball outside, a pretty picture to look at, but not very pleasant to have to do without heat and light which all goes along with loss of electric power. However, we survived to attend the tinsel ball on the following Saturday, December 12. This was a very nice affair and although the attendance was small, due to conflicting dates with other parties, those who attended had a good time.

Tuesday, December 15, was our Christmas dinner party, served by ladies of the Eastern Star. Christmas greetings were all around us and it was good to give the season's best wishes to old friends and new. Instead of the usual grab bag gift exchange, we made contributions to Johnny's Fund and a nice sum was realized to add to this very worthwhile endeavor on behalf of Johnny Johnston, whose father and mother, Bill and Charlotte, are one of our most dedicated and respected couples in our Legion family.

Ann Carroll, Claire Colonna, Henrietta Ballo entertained us and the tables had been beautifully decorated by the Decorations Committee which consisted of Helen Kemnitzer, Lee Hurley, Grace Von Ronne, Peg Butman, Mary Greenwood, Kathy Buker, and Peg Mosmen.

Chairman Ruth Jorgensen and Betty Costigan thank all who contributed such grand hors d'oeuvres for the Egg Nog Party, Saturday, December 19. Ruth's and Betty's helpers were Lee Hurley, Kay Lenseth, Esther Cooke, Ann Heilmann, Helen Quinn, Irene White, Henrietta Ballo, and Chris Barkhuff.

The Auxiliary treasury is that much richer now by the profits from the raffle of the basket of spirits and a magnum of champagne at the Egg Nog party.

We're going to say it and keep on saying it DUES R DUE. How about helping Betty Costigan to be happy by giving her that $2.50 to reach our quota?

At our January meeting Betty is planning something very special on MEMBERSHIP, so let's make a New Year's resolution to be present at this meeting and all the others in 1965!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS to all!

See "you all" in '65.

Chris

MEMBERSHIP

At the mid-December meeting, Vice Commander and Membership Chairman, George Reeber reported 546 paid-up members of which 29 are new members.

Blanchard Post has a goal of 755 members for this year. The next target date to meet this quota is February 1. The next Dues Notice will be issued in early January. Unpaid members are urged to pay their 1965 dues and everyone is urged to secure new members so that Blanchard Post can maintain its position as a leading post in Albany County—and the American Legion.

Chairman Reeber reminds everyone to take advantage of the 10-Member Club, in which everyone who secures a minimum of ten new Legionnaires into Blanchard Post will have as a reward, dues paid for 1966. There are a few nearly eligible for this distinctive membership. Make yourself one of these.

Special recognition by George was given to John Brady, one of the newer Post members who volunteers to sit at the "Membership Table" at the entrance to the Post Hall on the night of the Egg Nog Party—and getting several to either pay current dues, new dues and a transfer.

"The program to Support Your Post (S-Y-P)", says Vice Commander and Special Events Chairman Ed Costigan, "needs an extra heavy push to get it going."

"With more than 700 members in our Post", reports Ed, "we've only had a response from about five per cent."

He lists these names as those who contributed trading stamp books:

William Johnston, Charles E. Kelly, Lawrence L. Prater, Harry W. Clark, Morton E. Lilly, Al Woehrle, C. J. O'Hara, Merwin Atwood, W. C. Langer, Peter J. O'Brien, Edward Sargeant, Jr., Charles Hotaling, Victor Colonna, E. J. Costigan, Al Shutts, Earl S. Hoffman, Edgar Potter, Thomas Patterson, Donald Quackenbush, William E. McCredie, John W. Hinman, James B. Lawler, Art Quinn.

Cash donations were made by Herb Drew, Fred Peters, Henery Stockman, and Gus Williams.

The goal was to get two books of stamps from each member. It is hoped that with 1500 books it will be possible to obtain an automobile to raffle off, the proceeds of which will go toward reducing the Post's mortgage. For those who haven't responded, Ed Costigan says "get your name on the list next month!"

To the new members of Blanchard Post, membership for $1 in "Mountaineers" is a contribution to the American Legion Mountain Camp at Tupper Lake, New York, which serves to assist the more needy Legionnaires requiring recuperative services.

Also, the Mountain Camp has facilities for all Legionnaires and their families for picnicking and vacationing during the summer months.

WW1 VETS LUNCHEONS

The second Tuesday of the next three months have been marked for a noon luncheon at Blanchard Post Hall for World War 1 Veterans.

With the cooperation of Commander Charlie O'Hara, the Post's first Commander, Winthrop P. Robinson, has set up a program of these luncheons.

Win Robinson reports: "We have arranged for each month to have three of the WW1 vets to secure, prepare and serve the food. This month a mess sergeant, incinerator sergeant and a stable sergeant of the era of the Doughboys have volunteered their services for this duty. For a later date, we've got a chef de cuisine—who knows his table wines."

Blanchard Post members are urged to pass along word about this luncheon to any World War 1 vet, whether or not a member of our Post.

The dates for the luncheons are January 12, February 9 and March 9, always a Tuesday—and always at 12 noon.

If anyone has any specific questions about this program direct them to Winthrop P. Robinson, 14 Forest Road in Delmar.

LOOK AHEAD

Albany County American Legion Commander Charles F. Finning calls our attention to these coming events in which all interested Legionnaires should participate:

On Saturday, February 6, there is the annual dinner honoring the New York Department Legion Commander Michael Crino. This takes place at Scully Post, 348 Central Avenue, Albany. The time is 7:30 p.m. Tickets for the affair can be obtained at Scully Post where because of limited facilities, it is usually a sell-out.

The Legislative Conference and Dinner will be at the Ten Eyck Hotel on February 15 and 16. This is the annual meeting of Legionnaires concerned with legislative action affecting the American Legion directly and indirectly. It is at this conference that various committees of the New York Department of the American Legion discuss pending legislation and make known the sentiments of the Legion to members of the New York State Legislature.

The two-day event is climaxed with a reception and dinner on Tuesday, February 16. This dinner is usually attended by the Governor of the State of New York and it is expected the American Legion National Commander, Donald E. Johnson, will be among the guests of honor. Tickets for this event are $7.00 and are obtainable from Past Albany County Commander and Dinner Chairman, Steve Maney, 91 State St., Albany.

HEADPINS!

Bowling League President Ken Stinson appointed "Tanks" Captain Barney Greene as chairman for the League's mid-season banquet to be held Saturday, January 30 at Joseph's Restaurant on Route 9-W in Selkirk. This affair is for the League members and their ladies.

By then the teams and player's standing will surely have changed from this mid-December report made by Secretary Charley Wiley:

"You and your organization, and many others like you, are making it possible for our hospitalized veteran patients to have a happy and enjoyable Christmas."

We all thank Bill McKeogh for the Christmas tree he donated for the Post's Christmas Party for the children. He's been doing this for a decade and has been a big help to Santa Claus, who last month at the Post was represented by Dave Morrison and greeted 125 youngsters at the Post. Chairman Hugh Stowers did a fine job.

Water Shortage

Unless an unexpected deluge of rain or other water supply fills the Von Ronne pond on Gardner Terrace by next month this will be the first time in several years that Blanchard Post will not have a scheduled skating rink carnival. Chairman Fred Stahlhut has a date with the weatherman to see what can be done about this.
