THE NEW YEAR

At the beginning of each new year, we always find ourselves in an unique position. If at no other time in the calendar year, with the arrival of a new year we invariably recall times past and plan for days ahead.

At each Post meeting, we remind ourselves that one of the primary obligations of the Legion is to recall those who, in their love of country and to the varying degrees of their ability, have given of themselves that we might inherit today's world with its many joys and responsibilities.

But to recall is never enough. How, for example, does the recalling of their actions help us today? Is not our world entirely different today with its own peculiar problems?

Certainly some of the problems with which past generations dealt so faithfully were unique to their day; and yet, in remembering the circumstances of those years, we cannot help but recall that the basic difficulties of living a responsible and moral life do not seem to change much from one generation to another. The questions are primarily the same in any age. What are my responsibilities and obligations to my community and to my nation, to my family and my associates, and finally to myself?

From the experience of those who have gone before us—from days past and from history half forgotten, we usually learn what to do and what not to do from the discernible results of their decisions. And whether we be Jew or Christian we learn in every generation from the Holy Scriptures and from the teaching experience of the body of the faithful. Primarily, we learn just who and what we are, and because of this, how we should act and react in society. We learn what our responsibilities are, and, of greatest importance, how God in His love for His creation gives each of us the strength to deal with them both today and tomorrow.

And so, faith in Divine guidance grows from one generation to another with the changelessness of God as the one positive certainty in all the changing situations of this life. With this in Congratulations to Barbara Whitney on an outstanding membership drive. Thanks to her efforts, Blanchard Auxiliary made history this year. By Nov. 21 we reached our membership quota of 189 paid members. This includes 14 new members, who are: Marion Andre, Carolyn Bliven, Cora Bliven, Eleanor Knauf, Betty Kendrick, Linda Schenk, Catherine LaForge, Freda Sherman, Carolyn Vogel, Ruth Voorhees, Jennie Wahl, Anna Mae White, Rose Marino and Christine Hoffman. A hearty welcome to them all.

As we go to press, our paid membership is 202. Barbara wants to thank all members who have made this possible by paying their dues. We have only 12 outstanding. If you are one of these, please get your dues in so we can start 1975 with all dues paid. This would be another first for our unit by having 100% paid membership by the first of the year.

Plaudits also go to Barbara Selig who did such an excellent job of running our raffle for the basket of cheer. She wants to thank the girls who helped sell the tickets. And who won the basket? Barb herself! (A just reward.) Mrs. Elsie Johnson won the case of champagne and Phil Coffey the case of beer.

We were sorry to hear that Fran Lenseseth has recently undergone surgery and hope she soon will be up and around.

Barbara Palmer wants to thank the following Auxiliary members who assisted at the VA Gift Shop: Carol Cummings, Carolyn Bliven, Cora Bliven, May Smith, Diane Grasser, Ruth Bruso, Ronnie Moessner, Lenore Smith, Marcia Turner and Madeline Bryant. Also Legionnaires Ollie Palmer, Rollie Whitney and Warren Moessner. It is because of the many hours of service given to this project that it is such a success. This is a wonderful service to our hospitalized veterans.

It is anticipated that within a few years the most widely used instrument in medical care will be the ball point pen.

From the President

To the members and friends of the Blanchard Post and Auxiliary, may I take this opportunity to wish you all the happiest and healthiest of new years.

I am always proud to represent our Post and all the other good people who belong here.

Seems like "we've only just begun" and already we're looking forward to the events of the New Year—German Night, Auxiliary spaghetti dinner, etc.

To my officers, friends and co-workers in the Auxiliary and the men of the Post, a hearty thank you for all your help in the months that I have been your President.

Till 1975—happy New Year and God bless!

ANGLERS MIXED BOWLING

Since our last report, there have been no major changes in the standings. The Piranhas, led by George Mayers, continues to keep ahead with 28½ games won to 11½ lost. Bowling with George are George Butman, May Smith and Millie Harris. Other standings are:

Bullheads (Jim Berry)	24½	15½
Flounders (Frank DiSanto)	23½	16½
Perches (Franklyn Harris)	19½	20½
Smelts (Joe Marino)	19	21
Guppies (Ollie Palmer)	16	24
Muskies (Bill Mitchell)	16	24
Barracudas (Gus Franze)	13	27

Interestingly enough, the Barracudas, in last place, hold the top team triple with 1918 and third high single of 663. Other top team scores are:

Bullheads 1881	Bullheads 686
Perches 1840	Muskies 676

Leading the league with a 610 triple is Jim Berry, followed with a 583 by Gus Franze and 577 by Franklyn Harris.

High singles honors goes to Bill Mitchell with 247, with Don Smith and Gus Franze following with 235 and 225.

In the women's department, we have Millie Albright's 509 leading the high triple division, followed by 502 bowled by Barbara Palmer and a 483 effort by Grace Franze.

Marie McMillen bowled her first 200, getting 205 for the top singles honor. High games have been bowled by Millie Albright 194, Grace Franze 191, Peg Eagan 177 (all-time high for her), Gerry Klett 176, Belle Mayers 170, Rose Marino 167, Carol Berry 165 and May Smith 160.

The birthdays of Benjamin Franklin on the 17th in 1706 and Robert E. Lee on the 19th in 1807 are observed in January.

TO THE COLORS

Previously in this column we traced the origin of the American Legion's National Americanism Commission and outlined the objectives of that Commission. Since the recognition of the inherent and fundamental rights of man is the very embodiment of Americanism it is appropriate at this point that we offer certain generally accepted definitions of what Americanism really is.

AMERICANISM is—love of America; loyalty to her institutions as the best yet devised by man to secure life, liberty, individual dignity and happiness; and the willingness to defend our Country and Flag against all enemies, foreign and domestic.

AMERICANISM—is a vital, active, living force. Americanism means peace, strength, the will and the courage to live as free men in a free land. It means a friendly hand to people everywhere who respect our institutions and our thinking. It is not a word; it is a cause, a way of life, a challenge and a hope in this world of turmoil. It is the best way of life ever known.

AMERICANISM is — an ideal of patriotism, religious tolerance, righteous freedom, fearless courage, integrity, abiding faith in the commanding destiny of the United States, and a fathomless love for the principles which led our forefathers to found this country.

AMERICANISM is — complete and unqualified loyalty to the ideals of government set forth in the Bill of Rights, Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. It is respect for, and ready obedience to, duly constituted authority and the laws of the land. It is freedom without license, religion without bigotry, charity without bias or race hatred, love of Flag, and a readiness to defend that for which it stands against every alien and subversive influence from without or from within.

AMERICANISM is—an unfailing love of country, loyalty to its institutions and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; individual allegiance to the Flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity.

Thus we learn that while Americanism encompasses patriotism, it is also much more. Patriotism is to be found worldwide, Americanism is unique to America and its institutions and ideals. Men and women of character have no difficulty following that code in good or bad times; the shallow, fair-weather citizen or soldier never makes it!

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS FOR DEC. 2, 1974

The regular meeting of the Post was called to order by Commander Burns at 8:50 with 25 members in attendance. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved on a motion made by Harvey Hasen. Commander Burns called for following committee reports:

Membership—625 turned into the County; 635 on hand.

Finance Report—All bills paid and a comfortable balance.

Post Activities—John Vogel reported that Tinsel Ball on Dec. 7 is sold out. John also stated that due to the rush on tickets for this year's parties, no tickets will be sold until two weeks before the event. It will then be on a first come, first served basis. All tickets MUST be picked up one week prior to the party or they will go back on sale.

Unfinished Business—Art Blanchard read correspondence from the Auxiliary. He also read a letter of thanks written to the Auxiliary for their contribution of 250 steak knives. The County Meeting in January is at Blanchard Post.

Good of the Legion—A motion was made by John Ennis that the Post does not wish to change its method of billing to direct membership billing. Discussion followed. It was seconded and passed. The meeting was closed in memory of our departed comrades.

Respectfully submitted,
ARTHUR BLANCHARD
Adjutant

TANKERS TIGHTEN TOEHOLD TO TOP !

Despite the fact that they were white-washed and knocked from the top by HAVILL'S LEATHERNECKS, DAN LANTZ' Tankers have retaken the lead in the league (BOB LaFORGE, GEO. BUTMAN, JOE CUMMINGS and MILT ANDRE). This despite the fact that GEORGE had the dubious distinction of apparently setting a new league record, when his new, bad-behaving BLACK BEAUTY bowling ball left him with 8 (eight) splits in one game! Can you top that? The standings are bunching up and the matches are closely contested each week. Thanks to our Friday Fillers, BUD VIELE and BILL BLIVEN, who "have a ball" with us when we know someone will be absent.

ANDRE, a pair of 204s. He also had a "once in a lifetime thrill" while golfing at Albany Muny with Al Beckmann on Nov. 19 when he scored an EAGLE on the par 4 second hole.

Visited with GUY SMITH SR. on 3 occasions during the month. He's on the fourth floor, wing C at the VA Hospital. He wants to be remembered to all his "old buddies" and friends. If you are over that way, stop in and pay him a visit—he loves company, is in excellent spirits and well pleased with his surroundings and care. Complains about his memory failing him at times but then says, "I'm in pretty good shape for a fellow who'll be 85 next June." Hope we all do as well!

JOINT MEETING REPORT

The Legion and Auxiliary recently held a joint meeting on the occasion of Girl and Boy Stater Night. We feel sorry for anyone who was not privileged to hear these young adults. The poise and self-assurance displayed by these two, coupled with a genuine sincerity and belief in the American system, left no room for worry about America's future leaders. These young adults who we feel sure are typical of most of America's youth and did a lot to restore faith in America's young people.

If the President seems to be smiling quite broadly, it might be because this year's Boy Stater is her son. Perhaps next year more people will take advantage of hearing the Girl and Boy Stater speak. We sure hope so as they merit our support.
