DELMAR, NEW YORK

TENTH EDITION

January 1966

Ted Smith To Be Our Oratory Entry

For the fifth consecutive year Blanchard Post will have an entry in the Albany County Legion Oratorical Contest. This year it is Edward "Ted" J. Smith of 22 Pineview Avenue, Delmar. Ted, 16, is a newcomer to Bethlehem Central Senior High School where he is in his junior year. His family moved here last summer from Cohoes. He was formerly a student at Vincentian Institute in Albany.

In announcing Blanchard's 1966 representative, Oratorical Chairman Russ Denegar had special praise for Bethlehem High School's English Supervisor, Robert C. Lambert, who encouraged a preliminary contest in the school. Ted Smith was the winner. In the run-off, Ted showed great promise to be a star in the County final which takes place Sunday, January 23 at St. Teresa of Avila Auditorium on New Scotland Ave., Albany. The time is 2:00 p.m.

A member of Bethlehem Central High School's Debate and Key Clubs, Ted looks forward to becoming a law student and entering the legal profession.

Commander Costigan urges all Blanchard Legionnaires to mark the contest date on their calendars and make an effort to attend. "As American Legion members we can take this opportunity to show our support of a brilliant Legion program by attending this function. It's enlightening, entertaining and inspiring. It's time well spent. If you have a Legion cap wear it at the Contest. It is open to the public. For the good of the Legion, for moral support to our contestant and for the glory of Blanchard Post, I ask you to witness with me these expressions about the American Constitution from the lips of these fine young Americans."

PLANS FOR BLOODMOBILE

Blood Bank Chairman Warren Moessner is proceeding with plans for the Bender Laboratory Bloodmobile to come to Blanchard Post on Wednesday, February 9. The time may be moved up an hour to 5:00 p.m. to accommodate the Bloodmobile personnel.

To help carry out the plans, Warren has formed a committee of at least 16 others to whom he has given each a list of 25 names of our members to solicit their availability to donate a pint of blood next month.

The committee members are: Vice Commander-Membership Chairman Merwyn Atwood; John Brady; Past Commanders Ralph Butler, George Butman, Jim Fanning, Charles O'Hara and Joe Von Ronne; Vice Commander for Special Events Joe Cannizzaro; and Sergeant-at-Arms Hugh Stowers.

Also, George Feiden, Pat Igoe, Bud Mosmen, Irwin McLaughlin, Tom Patterson, Wally Riggins and Joe Saba.

"This" says Chairman Moessner, "will give those who in the past complained about the inconvenience of going to a blood lab the opportunity they sought—to donate their blood."

He went on, "We certainly hope what was printed in last month's 1040 TIMES about the Bloodmobile has been absorbed and that enough of our members are planning to donate their blood so that we will have a successful program."

Art Quinn reports that many persons at the bar have spoken about the coming Bloodmobile. But he hasn't yet been asked for a Blood-Bank card for donors to fill out. They are in the Commander's desk. Art Quinn is considered an ex-officio member of the committee.

By January 17, Chairman Moessner wants to know how many and who have indicated a willingness to donate blood so that he can finalize the arrangements with the Bender Laboratory for bringing the Bloodmobile to Blanchard Post. "Will you please give him your help, asks Commander Costigan."

MEIN HERREN UND FRAUEN

German Night again comes to Blanchard Post reports Vice Commander-Activities Chairman, Sid Kaplan.

For the excellent job he did last year, Joe Bauhofer, Jr., has a return engagement as chairman.

The date is Saturday, January 22. A typical German-American dinner costing $2.50 per plate, begins at 5:00 p.m. Servings continue until 8:30. A half-hour later dance music under the direction of Tom Ippolito commences and lasts till at least 1:00 a.m.

The dinner will be catered by Herman Habich. The Lowenbrau beer steins which were so popular as souvenirs last year will again be available for a nominal fee. Lowenbrau beer on draught will be in abundance.

Among the door prizes to be released are German-made cuckoo clocks. The decorations will be by courtesy of Luft Hansa.

Committee members serving with Chairman Bauhofer are George Butman, tickets; Bill McGoey, publicity; Fred Buker, Lou Legler, George Heilman, Bud and Fred Mosmen and Joe Von Ronne.

The atmosphere will be colorfully Bavarian. The committee members and their ladies in the roles of waiters and waitresses will be costumed in typical German clothes.

"This affair was a sell-out last year," advises Activities Chairman Kaplan, "so you better get your tickets quick."

Auxiliary President's Corner

On the evening of December 14, our annual Christmas party was held in the Post rooms. Following the presentation of Officer's, our President Betty Costigan introduced our guest of the evening, Mrs. Catherine Hastings, who is Albany County Chairman. A delicious smorgasbord was prepared for us by the Eastern Star who we thank wholeheartedly. A big "thank you" also is given to Shirley Kirk, our general chairman and her committee who were co-chairmen, Cozze' Drury, dining room, Esther Cooke, reservations, Helen Deitz and Peggy Lilly, decorations, Anne Heilman, Pat Butman, Irene White and Grace Von Ronne. They certainly made the party another enjoyable evening. While we are saying "thank you" we want to include Chet Albright who volunteered his time to play the organ for us so that we could have music for singing and listening.

Our regular business meeting was held the evening of December 21, being separated from the party this year. A short business meeting was held and refreshments served by Toni Spinosa and Esther Cooke.

On Saturday, December 18, the Post held their annual Egg Nog Party and Tinsel Ball. Kay Lenseth was in charge of the hors d'oeuvre table and wishes to add her "thank you" also to all Auxiliary members who brought hors d'oeuvres and helped her. This is the second year that Kay has taken on this job and we, the Auxiliary, want to thank her also for doing so well by us. Another thank you to Ruth Dalton for her hard work in the recent weeks in connection with our Third Annual Drawing. This may sound like a good many "thank you's", but I am sure that for all the time and effort that is put into helping to make a success of the various activities it is only a small way to show our appreciation.

On Friday, December 17, a Christmas party was held for the County delegates at the Colonial Post rooms. Those who attended from our Unit were: President Betty Costigan, Maude Hafley, Irene White, Viola Knapp, Cozze' Drury, and Maury Flanigan.

President Betty Costigan has announced that she has appointed Chris Barkhuff to represent our Unit at the meetings of the "Committee Who Cares" for the Viet Nam veterans.

"Come Alive in Sixty-Five". Yes, I know it is familiar, but it bears repeating. That is the Slogan for Membership this year and Kay Lenseth, our Membership Chairman, needs help in this area also. She would like to meet her quota this month, so let's all work together to get those dues in.

Helen Quinn, our Chaplain, would like to remind you that if you know of any ill members to be sure and contact her so that she will be able to mail a card to them.

Another year has come to an end and here's wishing each and every one health and happiness in the coming New Year.

NO PARKING

An outstanding Blanchard Legionnaire has taken it upon himself recently, when special events at the Post presents parking problems, to do something about it. Alone he's be seen on extremely cold nights guiding cars off Poplar Drive into available parking places. Most persons who drive up to the Post are considerate and respond to his voluntary service. Occasionally some unthinking person — or perhaps plain ornery — ignores this traffic guide's directions. Then other traffic problems occur.

The purpose of these remarks is twofold: first to pay tribute to Mike Norton for the time and effort he contributes to this important service; secondly, to make everyone aware we have a parking problem with the increasing number of cars which come to the Post. All drivers are urged to use discretion in their parking methods in the Post area (mainly keep out of the fire lanes on Poplar Drive).

Everyone will be interested in learning that a study is now underway toward taking steps to alleviate the parking conditions. Hopefully some positive action will come from this study.

Friday Nights

Relax is the theme of action at the Post for closing out busy weeks. A dance class and the organ playing of Chet Albright have been feature attractions at the Post on Friday nights. If you have not participated in these entertainments, you owe yourself a treat.

MEDICARE TALK

Of special interest to all war veterans, especially to World War I vets, is a talk scheduled for January 3, regular Post meeting. The talk will be by Blanchard Legionnaire Frederick Trombe who is a Field Representative from the Albany office of the Social Security Administration in the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. He will discuss the various aspects of medicare from the Federal Government's position.

For a subject of such vital interest to everyone, Commander Costigan wants it to be known that this meeting will be open to anyone who wishes to visit the Post to hear Fred's talk. The Commander says: "We are fortunate to have in our membership an individual closely associated with the Social Security program and the recently enacted medicare legislation. For Fred to come to the Post as a speaker is a tribute to him as a dedicated public servant and a service to Blanchard Post members. It is a privilege to extend this service to our friends and community neighbors and we look for a good size audience to hear Fred's remarks on this important subject."

Legion Legislative Conference

February 14 and 15 are the dates for the annual Legislative Conference. The two-day event is filled with numerous Department of New York Legion Committee meetings, taking place at the Ten Eyck Hotel in Albany. It is climaxed with a dinner at that hotel to honor the war veterans who are now members of the New York State Legislature. Usually it is the the occasion for the National Commander of the American Legion to visit Albany County. All Legionnaires are free to attend the committee meetings and the dinner (if they can get a ticket to it!).

Mountain Camp Chairman

Bud Mosmen, by appointment of our Commander, is Blanchard's Mountain Camp Chairman. He's looking for renewals of dues and any new dues-paying prospects. The dues is $1.00. Blanchard Post has a quota from the County of 50 members. Last year we were far short of our quota. When they call the roll at the County Meeting it makes your delegates wish Blanchard Post would also outshine the other posts in the American Legion program. Dues collected for a membership in Mountain Camp go toward the maintenance of the camp which serves two purposes. First, it is a rest area for Legion members who wish to use it for recuperative purposes. Next, it serves as a summer resort, at modest fees, for Legion members and their families. The camp is located in the vicinity of Tupper Lake, New York.

OPERATION SHOW YOUR COLORS

At the Albany County Legion meeting held in Blanchard Post on November 23 County Commander George Jiga, Jr., announced an American Legion sponsored program to distribute a metal miniature of the American Flag to be worn on the lapel or otherwise displayed. The program is called "Operation Show Your Colors". With the pin went a card stating "Americans are serving the cause of freedom in Viet Nam. I wear my country's Flag to show that I support their efforts." The flag-like pin and card are given away without cost.

The County officers issued about 2,000 buttons and cards to Blanchard Post to distribute. Commander Ed Costigan appointed John J. Brady as chairman for this activity. The following Saturday, Commander Costigan with Chairman Brady and Al Woehrl were at the Elsmere Shopping Plaza handing out the pins and the cards. Past Blanchard Post Commander and now Town of Bethlehem Supervisor Bert Kohinke appeared on the scene and a picture of him receiving the flag and card from Costigan and Brady was made and it appeared in the SPOTLIGHT. It showed this particular American Legion program in action.

An observation by the Blanchard Legionnaires distributing these flags and cards was the unexpected high number of persons who refused to accept them. A discussion among themselves gave this trio the conclusion that there is a need to awaken patriotism. Some persons offered a donation for the pins—and their offers had to be declined. Perhaps some of those who refused the flags thought it was a pitch for solicitations—and hurried away before getting an explanation. Perhaps the American Legion at all levels should have prepared more abundant advance publicity about the program.

What is more significant than the refusals of accepting these flags and cards is the fact that Blanchard Post has distributed the 2,000 buttons, yet very few persons can be found wearing them. This certainly points up the need for patriotism to be awakened. Do your part to awaken it!

MEMBERSHIP

With nearly 80% of our quota for this year signed up, Vice Commander-Membership Chairman Merwyn Atwood can look hopefully to making and passing the mark assigned to Blanchard Post by the County Membership Chairman. When we add the 735th paid-up member to our roll this year, it will be the first time in several years that the quota has been achieved. We enjoyed a brief period of pride in our membership size at the last County Legion meeting when Blanchard Post with 495 reported members was the leading post in Albany County. As it stands we need only 16 more than our assigned quota to become the second largest post in Albany County. Here is the line-up of Albany County American Legion Posts and their assigned quotas for this year:

Bowling Notes

This year's American Legion Department Bowling Tournament takes place at LeRoy, New York, on weekends between March 5 and May 28. Applications will be available shortly. Blanchard League Prexy Barney Greene or Secretary Charlie Wiley will have them.

The Blanchard Bowling League has its mid-season banquet for its members and their ladies late this month. It will again be at Joseph's Restaurant on Route 9-W in Selkirk.

ACTIVITIES REPORT

To the committee chairmen and all who contributed so handsomely this past month to making the Children's Christmas Party and the combined Egg Nog Party and Tinsel Ball the successes they were, I express my warmest thank you. All the members of the Post, I am certain, share my appreciation of the fine work that was done.

Hugh Stowers as chairman of the Christmas Party was a great host for the 140 children that attended. The movies that were shown was through the efforts of Joe Cannizzaro. Santa Claus was the jolliest ever. His presence was helped by Henry Clough who does Santa's tailoring and Bill Mitchell who helped a lot to keep Santa merry.

To the Blanchard Post Auxiliary ladies who out-did themselves in making the Post meeting room colorful and in preparing the hors d'oeuvre table, I cannot strongly enough express my thanks and gratitude.

I know I'm on thin ice by not stating all the names of those who helped at the Egg Nog Party and Tinsel Ball, but those whose names immediately come to me are Bill Seeger, Bill Campbell, John Ennis, Joe Cannizzaro, Bill Mitchell and Ken Simpson. All of you who helped are a great gang to work with. I'm proud to be with you and Blanchard Post.

Judge Quinn

In announcing the Shuffle Board competition last month, an important official was overlooked. He is 'Judge' Art Quinn who from his vantage point behind the bar can take a bead on lined-up quoits and make a whopping-good decision. And can he make whoppers!

By mid-December the "Blue" National were still ahead of the "Red" Americans. There's been some team changes. Jim Fanning and Royce Day have replaced Tom Cleary and Art Bahn on the Blues. Art Bahn moved over to the "sub" bench and Ray Callagan has joined the subs.

Be A Booster

As it should be, Commander Costigan heads the list of Boosters who to date have signed the Booster Roll and contributed $1.00 toward the fund for the 1966 American Legion Department Convention to be held in Albany next summer. The others on the list are Walt Van Wormer, Al Woehrle, Vice Commander Sid Kaplan and Art Quinn.

The Booster Roll is on the bulletin board in the downstairs level of the Post. Every $1.00 helps. If you don't want your name listed just make your donation to Art Quinn or his relief.
