DANCE TO AID FUND

As someone has mentioned we'll get the money to pay for the building renovations some way or another. Some way to get it has been the means of a "Fund Fun Frolic" set for Saturday, Jan. 26th.

Chairman of the program is Fund Raising Chairman Barney Greene. Aiding him in this and all the other ways of raising the nearly $25,000 to pay for the overhaul are: Harold Barkhuff, George Butman, Bud Mosmen, Fred Dearstynne, Bill Segur, Bill O'Bryon and Hank Voorhees. Commander Fryer is an ex-officio member of the committee which means he works harder than anyone at it.

There will be a fee for the frolic. It will be $10 per person for food, drinks and dance music between 10 p.m. and closing which is 2 a.m. Tickets are available from the Fund-Raising Committee or from Art Quinn and Bob Ballantine. It is hoped that a capacity attendance of say 100 couples will help considerably to lower the Post's indebtedness for its recent repairs.

KIDS ICE CARNIVAL

With the help of Old Man Winter this year's Ice Carnival for the children of the Town of Bethlehem will be on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 19 at Joe Von Ronne's pond off of Gardner Terrace, Delmar. Activities will start at 1:30 p.m. until about four o'clock.

The Ice Carnival, which has become an annual community event sponsored by Blanchard Post, promises to be the biggest and best ever.

Post Commander Fryer started the "red ball" rolling by naming Hank Voorhees head of a committee last month to get the pond in readiness for the winter season. With them, Joe Von Ronne, Ed Costigan, Warren Moessner, Gene Fitzpatrick, Wayne Davis and Dick Williams' wife Elaine, who looked after a group of neighborhood boys and girls who pitched in, all took part in clearing the first snow cover from the ice-pond to make it usable. Hank will have charge

Blanchard Post Praised

For its help in urging the use of seat belts in automobiles, a letter of appreciation was sent to Blanchard Post Com-

In this connection there may be some people who have been overlooked for their contribution to this effort. We all know, of course, that Dick Lenseth carried a goodly share of the burden in getting the work underway. He and those whom he got to help him deserve the thanks of all of us. Among these are Royce Day and Don Gregory.

A fund-raising barometer prepared by Art Bahn is on the downstairs wall. By Dec. 20 it was past the $2,000.00 mark.

Another fund-raising incentive underway is a scroll of honor to be made up of all those who contribute $50 or more in the pledge program which the Greene committee has working. With the holiday season and expenses that go with it behind us, the Fund-Raising Committee expects that its December 17th letter will now receive your serious attention.

At a recent Post meeting it was mentioned that if each Post member could pledge $30, payable over a year, the building costs could be cleaned up in a year. Let's see if we can do it.

of keeping the Pond usable and for that he may be calling on those among us who will be available to give some free time, especially after a snow-storm to clear the ice. When he or his aides call, try and help him.

For the Kids Day Ice Carnival, Comdr. Fryer called upon Ed Starkweather to again be chairman for the event. He'll be needing lots of help for it, especially for serving the Kiddies with hot dogs and soda and conducting the races and other events which will round out the program.

Beside asking for a working committee, Ed is asking that all Blanchard Legionnaires who come to the Pond wear their Legion hats while "on duty".

Joe Von Ronne, a Blanchard Post Commander, again wins the thanks of all of us for his contribution in the use of his land for this American Legion project sponsored by Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post.

mander Rodger Fryer by George A. Lewis, Chairman of the Bethlehem Traffic Safety Council.

MORE ON MEMBERSHIP

As the 1963 membership drive goes into its final stage we once again are urging all of our members to help put us over the top. You will recall that our quota is 718—as of now we have passed 600, but the last hundred is obviously the key to whether we "do or don't". And a very substantial element in that key is the "new member".

We know that there are many, many eligible veterans in the area who have never been asked to join. If you do know such a veteran, or veterans, we are again suggesting that they be invited to join, either by yourself or by giving his name to the membership chairman, Charles O'Hara. Membership applications may be obtained by telephoning Charlie at HE 9-4076, or from Art Quinn or Bob Ballantine at the bar.

To those present members who have not as yet remitted their 1963 dues, may we say that we have now learned that we can still save the $.50 increased assessment on all dues forwarded to Department if postmarked by Jan. 15. So here too we are asking for cooperation.

From two recent experiences we have reason to believe that there is money around — two of our members paid their dues twice. Now that really isn't necessary — if you have any extra moola just remember Barney Greene and his building fund drive.

MARY'S CORNER

To start this New Year right, let's all make a resolution to attend Auxiliary meetings on the Third Tuesday of each month. The date for January is the 15th, at 8:00 p.m. at the Post Rooms, with President Mary presiding. Happy New Year! There is much to be done and each member can help a little by just adding her voice to decisions at meetings. Right now, mark your calendar to attend the Auxiliary's 32nd Birthday Party to be held on Tuesday, Feb. 19.

Saw Ruth Jorgensen and her committee busy hanging drapes in the Squad Room and downstairs, and the new Venetian blinds in the Squad Room are a gift of the Auxiliary.

Grace Von Ronne and Kay Mosmen wish to thank all contributing members for the elegant hors d'oeuvres at the Egg Nog Party. Grace and Kay's helpers were Florence Battista, Peg Butman, Kathy Buker, Mary Greenwood, Helen Kemnitzer, Mad Lawler and Helen Segur.

Christmas greetings abounded at the Auxiliary's party, and it was good to give the wishes of the season to old friends and new. Mrs. Santa Claus, alias Esther Cooke, was the hit of the evening with her jingle bells and gifts for all. Charlotte Johnston directed and narrated a play "Nine Cheers for Christmas". Lucky Helen Kemnitzer went home with a magnum of champagne, and the Auxiliary treasury was enriched by profits from chances, sale of candy, note-paper, and centerpieces. Norrine Cooke, pinch-hitting for Chairman Lee Hurley who was unable to attend, led the carol singing, with Gerry Klett accompanying. Besides being talented, the sisters Klett — Sandy and Sue — looked like dolls you'd like to find under your Christmas tree as they sang during the program.

A dinner honoring our Department President will be held on Saturday, February 16, at Jack's Restaurant. Mary Connors will take reservations for our Unit, and we'll tell you more about this party in February column.

Chris Barkhuff still has candy. It's good if you want to treat your own sweet tooth, but if you don't, perhaps you could help Chris with the sales program.

And, we wouldn't feel we'd done our duty if we missed one column without mentioning dues. Hate to keep "hounding" you for this $2.50, but we want you as members, so please, please, do it now. Get in touch with Norrine Cooke, by phone, by mail, by carrier pigeon, or any way at all, but DO IT NOW.

INDOOR SPORTS DATE

Mike Norton has been named by Commander Fryer to be Chairman for the Indoor Sports Party on Saturday afternoon, February 2. Mike has always been a favorite of the Indoor Sports guests who visit Blanchard Post each year.

Indoor Sports is another major Legion program. Through this activity, afflicted persons confined to their homes because of physical impairments are brought to the Legion Post which each year has elected to be the host Post. Blanchard generally has the event on the first Saturday in February.

For the program, Mike knows he has the support of the Auxiliary whose active members will prepare the refreshments which will be served our guests. There will be entertainment and for a certainty many of the guests will contribute the vocal and musical talents. Mike's Irish songs have been a hit at these parties in the past.

Mike will be looking for help in the transporting of our guests. He'll appreciate all the assistance he can get for this event. Remember: wear your Legion cap.

For Americanism

The New York Department Commander's Citation for Americanism was presented to Commander Fryer for Blanchard Post recently by County Americanism Chairman Henry J. Wickert. At the Post meeting last month, action was approved to have the Post's citations framed and posted in a suitable location of the Post for all to see.

RAPP TO BE POST ORATORY ENTRANT

The selection of M. Anderson "Andy" Rapp of 17 Albin Rd., Delmar, as Blanchard Post's representative in the County Legion Oratorical Contest has been announced by Post Oratorical Contest Chairman, Mark Scurrah.

Andy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin A. Rapp. His father is vice president of Nassau Community College, Mineola, N. Y. A Senior at Bethlehem Central Senior High School, Andy is President of the Student Council. He aspires to further his education in the field of political science and law.

On Sunday afternoon, January 13 at 2 o'clock, at St. Teresa of Avila School Auditorium on New Scotland Avenue in Albany our Andy will vie with entrants from at least four other Albany County High Schools in this year's annual County American Legion Oratorical Contest. The subject of the oration will be the American Constitution.

The winner of the County contest will go on to participate in the District and if successful take part in the Department oratory. The Department winners contest will determine the National champion. With the honor of winning in the upper echelons of the contest, the winning orators are rewarded with scholarships sponsored by the American Legion.

To give our contestant moral support, Comdr. Fryer and Chairman Scurrah urges as many Blanchard Legionnaires who can possibly do so, with whomever they choose to accompany them, attend the County Oratorical Contest. It's an interesting, enlightening and entertaining event. It's a chance to see the American Legion in action. Those Legionnaires who attend this program are, if they have them, expected to wear the Legion cap.

OLD TIMERS NIGHT

The mid-January Post meeting night on Jan. 21 has been set aside as Old Timers Night. For the occasion, Post Comdr. Fryer will turn over the gavel to P. C. Ralph Butler who will preside.

Ralph is getting a special program arranged and he expects, weather permitting, a goodly turn-out of some of Blanchard's pioneer members. Old-Timers usually refers to WW I vets but now with more than a score of years since WW II commenced, the Old-Timers are taking on a new look. It's that "new look" that Ralph expects to see at the January 21 meeting. He's encouraging WW II vets to join with the older ex-soldiers, sailors and marines, (air force, too) to have a memorable gathering at this meeting. The time: 8:30 p.m.

What's in a Name

Commander Fryer appointed P.C. Al Woehrlé chairman of a three-man committee set up for the purpose of selecting names for the Post rooms. The other committee members are P.C. Bud Mosmen and Ed Cassidy. Anyone else who has any ideas on this ought to give them to the Name Committee.

Sick Call

Fred Vogel remains confined to his home, 59 Wisconsin Avenue, Delmar. A greeting card or visit will give him some cheer.

Milton Prue, 373 Wellington Road, Delmar, a former active Blanchard Legionnaire had a heart attack last month and is in the Albany Hospital.

Bob Hurley was stricken ill last month and taken to St. Peter's Hospital.

Charles "Chuck" Kelly, 316 Kenwood Avenue, Delmar, was in St. Peter's Hospital last month for a knee operation.

SANTA'S THANKS

Vice Commander and Activities Chairman Bill Flint salutes the following for their efforts and contributions toward the Post's social functions last month:

Bill McKeough for the holly wreaths that decorated the downstairs walls and the Christmas tree for the children's Christmas Party.

David Morrison of 163 North Allen Street, Albany, who at the request of Mort Lilly subbed for Santa Claus at the children's party; Earl McGuirk got his friend and fellow-worker, Frederick Chambers to serve as projectionist for the movies shown to the kiddies; Jimmy Williams provided the music for singing of Christmas carols; the Ladies of the Auxiliary and all those who helped them in making the Egg Nog Party the success it was.

MILT ANDRE HIGH

The mid-December records for the Post's Bowling League put the spotlight on Milt Andre for high triple of 583 pts. and high single of 246. The scoring also reflected some changes of position in the League standings. While the Engineers maintained their first place, Navy overtook Infantry and the Army got out of the cellar to a midway spot, swapping places with the Artillery.

Here's the way League Secretary Charlie Wiley reports it:

Programming

If you've got a program to present or an idea for one, Fred Stalhut, chairman for meeting programs, will certainly welcome them. Fred's given us several good programs this Legion year and he's got a half year to go. One way to respond to the fine job Fred is doing is to get out to the mid-monthly meetings which usually feature a speaker of distinction. Fred says he's glad to see more Legion caps are being worn at the meetings and he hopes this fashion spreads.

Korean Bonus Push

High on the Department of New York Legion program is the pressing for a bonus for Korean War vets. We will be hearing much about it and it should prove to be a highlight of the current session of the Legislature. The Legion is moving to have the matter presented to the New York State voters for a referendum.

Bender Leads Last Man's Club

That elite group of members of Blanchard Post who are in the Last Man's Club held their annual dinner in December. The dinner also had a brief business session at which the 1963 officers were elected. Normand Bender was chosen as the new President; Alton C. Rowe, Sr., Vice President. Post Comdr. Rodger Fryer was the sole guest at the Dinner, which was attended by about twenty of the remaining members of the Last Man's Club.

Mountaineer Lifers

Bud Mosmen, Chairman of the Legion Mountain Camp program for Blanchard Post is seeking 1963 members. Dues are $1.00. For $25.00 a Life Membership is available to bring you distinction for your contribution to this outstanding American Legion activity.

Med-Alert Program

The announcement of Blanchard Post undertaking a Medic-Alert program has brought several inquiries to co-chairmen Royce Day and John DeMallie. Their committee is working out plans to get more information about this community activity to the public.

1963 Resolutions

In your list of resolutions, some to be unbroken, you may want to include: Resolve to be an active Legionnaire; get and wear a Legion cap; for the good of the Legion support the Legion activities in which you are interested; get at least one new member into the Legion.
