AMERICAN LEGION IN ACTION

Last year dues was increased. The majority of Legionnaires accepted the increase but there were a few gripes. For the pleasure of all of us and the enlightenment of the gripers, we publish the following reports to show some of the benefits which stem from the dues of both Blanchard Post and its Auxiliary:

Impressions of Girls' State

A week spent at Empire Girls' State is an unforgettable experience. Most important, it is meant to be an educational experience, and under the leadership of Mr. S. James Matthews, our political instructor, and of the many excellent guest speakers, we learned extensively about our state government, and our political system. Also, we learned through experience about government, for we were separated into two political parties, the Nationalists and the Federalists, held party caucuses, nominated candidates, and (hopefully) elected them to city, county, and state offices. The local officers learned about their duties from their

Report On Boys' State

Every year, Blanchard Post and a thousand other American Legion posts in New York State sponsor a boy in an experience in democratic government in the New York State Boys' State. This year it was my privilege to attend this tremendously rewarding program at Colgate University as the representative of Blanchard Post.

The main objective of the Boys' State program is to familiarize the high school juniors who attend with the democratic procedures of municipal, county, and state government. Each boy was assigned to a city and given a number, and before the first day was completed

IT'S 755 AGAIN

Membership Chairman Vice Commander George Reeber reports the Albany County Legion Membership Chairman has kept quotas at the same level as last year, which is in keeping with instructions from the National Headquarters

George has threatened Commander O'Hara with beating his record which two years ago brought Blanchard Post to an all-time high quota of 755. To that, Commander O'Hara says "Go to it!"

SPORTS DAY

This year it has a new name. It used to be called World Series Day. It's going to be Saturday, October 10, commencing at noon. Co-chairmen are Hank Voorhees and George Butman with Vice Commander - Activities Chairman Bill McGoe. Tickets will be $3.50 per man for Post members and their guests. There'll be buffet and beer and an afternoon of relaxing.

WW 1 VETS ACTIVE

It was 50 years ago last August 6 that World War I erupted. Three years later the United States was to become embroiled in that holocaust. Out of the embers was to come one bright spark—The American Legion. Another decade passed before the Legion came to the Town of Bethlehem. Then Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post No. 1040 was organized and its first commander was Winthrop P. Robinson. Past Commander Robinson is retired now but he, and others, have a deep affection for the friendships they made in those World War I days. To strengthen those ties Win Robinson has taken steps recently to bring his World War I buddies together. A few weeks ago a group of them had a small get-together. Next there is planned a bring-your-own-lunch picnic to be held at Al Rowe's camp on Helderberg Lake in Altamont. The time is noon on October 1. Any World War I vet, whether or not he is a member of Blanchard Post is invited to attend. Just go and introduce yourself, but have your discharge certificate, to Win Robinson or Al Rowe.

Win and Al are also making plans for a special program at Blanchard Post November 11, which we now know as Veterans' Day but they will always remember as Armistice Day. Next month we can tell you more about it.

HAIL, COLUMBUS!

Columbus Day is going to be celebrated at Blanchard Post this year—five days late. To mark the occasion, Saturday, October 17 has been set for a Spaghetti Dinner followed by a dance.

Giving emphasis to the Dinner will be its preparer, Joe Guido, who has gained prominence in the Capitol City area from his TV advertising of his spaghetti sauce.

Dinner is to be served from 5:30 to 9:00 p.m. It will be $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children under twelve. After the dinner there will be a dance.

Chairman for the event is Past Commander Dick Lenseth. His success with the annual Irish Night dinner and dances at the Post is certain to show with this Italian Night. It is expected several hundred dinners will be served. Tickets are being sold but if you don't get a ticket from Dick or Art Quinn or the other ticket-sellers just come to the Post during the dinner-serving hours.

Remember, there's a dance after the dinner stops.

IRENE'S CORNER

A new Auxiliary year is on the road! We in Blanchard Unit are very fortunate in having such a fine group of ladies serving as our officers for the year 1964-65. Following the election held at the meeting on September 15, the following took their oaths of office from Past President Christine Barkhuff, who acted as Installing Officer: President, Irene White; First Vice President, Elizabeth (Betty) Costigan; Second Vice President, Anne Heilmann; Secretary, Maurie Flanagan; Corresponding Secretary, Rita Greene; Treasurer, June Wilcox; Chaplain, Helen Quinn; Historian, Ruth Jorgensen; Sergeant-at-Arms, Helen Deitz.

Sincere congratulations and a word of appreciation to these members for having accepted the responsibilities of the various posts to which they have committed themselves. Let us hope that the rest of the Unit members will now pledge themselves to loyally support these officers and cooperate in every way possible in order that the year ahead will be one of success, both through accomplishments made on Auxiliary programs and social congeniality. Through active interest and participation in Auxiliary programs, we will all enjoy our membership more and also find out how rewarding it is to feel we have helped in such worthwhile causes.

Besides the new officers, the following members were elected to serve on the Executive Committee: For three years—Helen Quinn, Viola Knapp and Norrine Cooke; two years—Chris Barkhuff, Ada Turner and Ruth Dalton; one year—Anne de Heus, Mabel McCredie, Esther Cooke and Jr. Past President Mary Conner. The following were elected to County Committee: Irene White, Betty Costigan, Mary Conner, Maud Hafley, Jane Fearnside and Vi Knapp.

President Irene asks that a reminder be made that meetings will be held as before, the third Tuesday of every month. A main objective of hers is to start PROMPTLY at 8 p.m. Let's make a special note of this so that on Tuesday, October 20 at 8 p.m. we'll be in the meeting room ready to start! Irene also requested that a special plea go out to all our gals that, if she calls upon you in the next week or so to accept a committee chairmanship, you please help by saying, "Yes". Many hands make lighter work, and some of the chairmanships require very little time to do what is necessary. Thank you!

Betty Costigan has accepted the appointment of Membership Chairman and has already started with collection of dues. You will make her happy by getting them to her—the earlier, the better! Mail your check or money order for $2.50 to Mrs. Edward Costigan, 73 Montrose Drive, Elsmere, N. Y. Norrine Cooke has been appointed Chairman of the Membership Committee, to be assisted by Ruth Dalton, Helen Quinn and Kay Mosmen.

A very special note is made here of the fact that the Annual Fall Card Party and Hat Show will be held on Tuesday evening, October 6. In the last 1040 issue the date of October 7 was published. This has necessarily been changed to Tuesday, October 6, at 8 p.m. in the Legion Post Rooms. General Chairman is Mary Conner, assisted by Toni Spinosa, Co-Chairman, and the following: Tickets—Betty Costigan, Chairman, assisted by Florence (Tootie) Flint and Anne Heilmann; Door Prizes, Irene White; Table Prizes, Kathy Buker; Tables and Tallies, Charlotte Johnston and Vi Knapp; Refreshments, Esther Cooke; Decorations, Mary Conner; Hostesses, Helen Quinn, Christine Barkhuff and Norrine Cooke. The Hat Show will be put on through the courtesy of Anne's Hat Box and Accessories, from the Four Corners in Delmar. Lists of models for the hat show and members of Esther's refreshment committee are not complete at the present writing so will be included in the November 1040 issue. Tickets for the party are now available—donation $1.00. These parties represent a lot of hard work for the committees, but they don't mind when the affair is a success. Let's do our part! Plan a table—bring your neighbors and friends! If this is not possible, at least please take a ticket.

President Irene announces that the program at the October 20 meeting will feature a visit from our Girls' Stater, Miss Suzanne Flandreau.

Also, the next County meeting will be held in Rensselaerville, N. Y., on October 16. All those planning to attend should meet at the Four Corners in Delmar about 7:20 p.m. on that evening in order to be ready to board the bus hired to provide transportation to this meeting.

In closing, I repeat, "Congratulations and the best of good luck to our new officers!" May your year be a fine success. Until I see you all on October 6 at the card party and hat show,

Bye

Kay Mosmen

counterparts in the city government of Elmira (Girls' State was held at Elmira College) and the government of Chemung County. We learned legislative procedures and processes by enacting our own laws on the city, county, and state level. the climax of our political education was the election of our state officers.

Even more unforgettable than the valuable things we learned about our government at Girls' State were the people we met and the fun we had together. We learned as much from each other as we did from our instructors, for there were over three hundred girls from every part of the state, girls from schools with less than one hundred students to over three thousand students. The variety of viewpoints brought by the girls was great, and these viewpoints were shared in panel discussions at the beginning of the week, and aired informally in the dormitory rooms. Planned entertainment activities included a picnic, a hootenanny, the Musicale, an evening of musical entertainment by the girls themselves, and Skit Night, an evening of hilarity, wit, and satire.

Most of all, Empire Girls' State was a feeling, a combination of exuberant youthfulness, new-found, serious maturity, and warm fellowship. It was cringing at the ear-splitting results of the two parties' attempts to out-cheer each other in the dining room, and painting posters frantically at party headquarters; it was browsing in the college bookstore, and discussing favorite literature with a new girl acquaintance met between the book racks; it was nervousness before the musicale, and stealthy planning sessions after lights out with the rest of the girls in the dorm section, so that the skit would be ready; and it was the solemnity of the inauguration ceremony, and the candlelight procession stretching around a small pond on the Elmira Campus, the glowing flame of every candle reflected in the water, and the breathless hush as the last wish was made, and the last candle blown out.

The real unforgettableness of Girls' State is that it gave us a feeling of belonging, in spite of diversity in background, and the assumed party differences. We were a group with a purpose: to learn as much as we could, and to become, through our acquired knowledge, the best citizens, and the best people possible.

Improved Pension Program For Veterans On Horizon

Responding to a call from New York Department and Albany County Legion Headquarters, Commander Charlie O'Hara sent a telegram last month to U. S. Senator Kenneth Keating urging support of H.R. 1927, an American Legion sponsored bill which provides for a better pension program for veterans, and widows and children of veterans who come within the scope of this legislation. The CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on September 3 reported action in the U. S. Senate which cleared the way for passage of this act which has already been passed in the House of Representatives. Perhaps you would want to add your personal message to your congressmen on this issue. If you have questions on your veterans' benefits contact your Post Service Officer, William Campbell.

At this reading you no doubt have received your letter from the Chairman of Special Events. As you are well aware; your post is still in the throes of amortizing the major expenditure made a year ago to improve the Post facilities.

We have employed this group savings program involving the contribution of Top Value Stamps as a method of supplementing the building fund program.

I'm sure you will agree this can be accomplished as indicated in the letter with a minimum of effort and cooperation. It's like painless dentistry; the cavity will be filled before the novicane wears off.

Don't forget to do your part; as promptly as possible; as time is of the essence; and your committee is in high gear and rarin' to go!

two political parties had been formed, nomination for municipal offices made, and elections to the delegation to the state nominating convention had been held.

The basic unit of Boys' State was the "city" and there were three in each dormitory. Each dormitory made up a "county." Within the first two days, the city officers had been elected and a municipal government had been set up. Every conceivable type of ordinance was enacted in the various cities, including traffic and sanitation regulations, and courts were held for the violators of these ordinances.

I feel the most exciting and profitable political happening in the short week at Colgate was the State Nominating Convention in which each party nominated their candidates for the state offices of governor, lieutenant governor, comptroller, attorney general, and the five judges for the Court of Appeals. The nine hour meeting of county delegations was spread out over three days with very little loss of enthusiasm by the delegates. The political fervor reached its peak late in the second night as we had nominations for the candidate for governor.

Immediately after the candidates were announced, the campaign speeches and electioneering began. The political rallies and other vote-getting devices generated great activity until the night before the election when the campaigning hit its feverish climax.

The elections and the inauguration quickly gave way to the sessions of the Senate and Assembly, which wasted no time in setting up committees and reviewing bills dealing with Boys' State and New York State, from such things as wearing shorts to meals in the Colgate dining hall to taking Regents scholarships out of state to putting emetics in barbituates.

Twice a day, assemblies were held in the chapel at Colgate. The morning assemblies had government officials as speakers and the evening assemblies were conducted by the counselors, usually dealing with the political activities of that particular day.

Although government and politics were of primary concern, the delegates were allowed to participate in the athletics using the University facilities. I found myself playing basketball with boys from New York City, from western New York, and from all over the state.

I think the value of Boys' State lies in three main points. First and foremost is the fact that I learned more about government from participating in such a program for a week than I possibly could in reading books for a much longer time. I was fortunate enough to be involved in every major political activity, but even for those who could only observe, it was a greatly rewarding experience. Secondly, I think the friends I made at Boys' State alone made the program valuable. My roommate and other boys from my "city" all became my good friends before half the week was over. Thirdly, the experience of living away from home in a college dormitory went a long way in preparing me for the experiences of college I will face in a year.

The Boys' State delegate leaves for Colgate not knowing exactly what is going to happen and somewhat unsure of himself. He gets there and hears that his will be one of the best times of his life and does not believe it. A week passes and he has acquired a deep knowledge of democratic government and a great many friends, he is more sure of himself, and, as he leaves, he realizes that this may have been one of the best times of his life.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the Blanchard Post and its members for sponsoring me at this year's Boys' State. The experiences I shared and the things I learned are many, valuable, and not easily forgotten. I hope that this program will be continued so that more boys may have this wonderful experience.

Vice Commander-Membership Chairman George Reeber announces a program which gives any Blanchard Legionnaire who signs up ten new members this year a year's dues which the Post will carry for next year.

George also reminds everyone who signs up a new member to use care in having the membership application filled out properly—especially giving the full name, instead of initials, and correctly spelled for the applicant.
