A THOUGHT FOR THE FRONT-LINERS

World War 1, 2 and Korea veterans of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post, The American Legion in Elsmere, are taking steps to let those from their community now serving in the Armed Forces in combat zones know that they are being thought about at home.

To start the program the Post's Commander, Edward J. Costigan, has set up a committee for this purpose. Heading the committee is World War 1 veteran Earl S. Jones of Delmar. Serving with him is World War 2 veteran Alexander J. Woehrl of Delmar and Korean veteran Eugene F. FitzPatrick of Elsmere.

The committee is seeking the names of Town of Bethlehem residents now serving in South Viet Nam. Bethlehem residents are urged to furnish the name, the home address and APO address of anyone, male or female, now assigned to duty with the Armed Forces in Viet Nam.

When it is determined how large a contingent of Bethlehemites are in Viet Nam it is intended to invite other organizations—veterans, civic, service, social, church—to join the effort to make the program a community project.

Announcing the program, Commander Costigan stated: "The combat conditions the men from our town, with their brothers-in-arms, are experiencing in Viet Nam recall to many of us vivid memories of World War 1, World War 2 and Korea. With this committee we hope to show in some small way that we are deeply aware of the plight into which our neighbors have been suddenly thrust. We are confident that as the work of the committee progresses the community will respond to the needs for which the committee has been formed."

O SOLE MIO!

To celebrate Columbus Day this year, Blanchard Post will have its second annual spaghetti supper, Saturday, Oct. 16.

For the event Vice Comdr.-Activities Chmn. Sid Kaplano has named Gus Williams, whose Italian ancestry dates way back, as Italian Night Chairman.

Helping Gus to get the re-Discovery of America celebrated will be: Barney Greene, tickets; Al Beckman, publicity; Red Kernahan, decorations; Russ Brandon, Bill Flint and Ken Stinson, dining room; Bill McGoey and Hugh Stowers, service-line; A. P. Lozano, chief cook. The chief of K. P. will be Gus Williams.

A special feature of the dinner will be a wine-serving by some of the ladies of the Auxiliary headed by Ann Carrol.

The dinner serving will commence at 5:30 p.m. Tickets are $2 per plate for adults and $1.50 for children. There is a limit of 275 tickets. Dining ends at 9 p.m. After dinner the music of Tom Ippolito furnishes the dance music for the rest of the night and into Sunday.

Sick Call

Mort Lilly was confined to Albany Hospital last month for a check-up resulting from an internal ailment.

GET THE DUES IN!

First call for membership renewals are now out. You can help your Post earn membership honors by immediately returning the notices with your payment of dues for 1966. Membership Chairman Merwyn Atwood says: "This message is intended for those with the best intentions of sending in their dues later. Their intent is laudable but what the Post needs is paid-up members now. We have 735 members to gather on our roll this year. From past experience we know we have to recruit, relocate or rout out ten per cent. Sending out dues notices is only good for keeping most of what we've got. To get another 75 or 100 members into the Post needs the help of every present member. If you haven't a membership application, make it a point to get one so it'll be handy for when you meet that prospective new member."

In Albany County

County Commander George Jiga, Jr. has retained two Blanchard Post members as committee chairmen. They are William Johnston, Jr., for Boys' State and Harold C. Barkhuff for V. A. V. S. Representative.

BLANCHARD BLOOD BANK BANKRUPT!

"Christmas comes but once a year; and this is the season for giving." That's what the wise-man said. But what about the need for blood plasma fifty-two weeks out of the year; by Legionnaires and their immediate family; in order to combat the plague of un-anticipated illness or the recovery measures as the result of required surgery. At the moment the account of your Post in this area is in dire need of improvement. The call for blood plasma donations from our bank have been turned down with embarrassment due to the lack of supply. It is our intention to correct this situation as soon as possible. A move is in motion to arrange with the "Bender Blood Bank" to carry our account; and furnish the blood mobile service on a designated night to handle the collection of the necessary pints from donors at the Post to put our account in the condition necessary to meet the need for this Legion service as it arises. What can you do? Give the necessary time on the date designated to contribute a pint of this precious commodity that cost you nothing. Who can tell; you might be the first member to request the use of this plasma in the near future! Don't be a slacker—be a donor.

Auxiliary President's Corner

Here we are on the road to another new Auxiliary year! Sincere congratulations and best wishes go to all our new officers and other members, who have accepted responsibilities of their offices and committees. All Unit members should resolve to support these officers and co-operate in order that the coming year will be another successful one in carrying on our various Auxiliary programs, which are all so very worthwhile.

All meetings are held on the third Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. Let's start off with a good attendance at the first meeting: Oct. 19.

We've said it before and we have to say it again: DUES R DUE and payable on or before Oct. 20. Let's help our membership chairman by getting dues to her NOW. At the County meeting Friday, Sept. 17, at Ruane Post, in Cohoes, we learned that our Unit quota has been raised ONE more. This really isn't so much but it is much easier if those dues come in NOW!

Third District Conference will be held in Albany, Tuesday, Oct. 26 at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel, and I'm sure our president will be happy to be able to report a goodly number of dues paid at that time.

Friday, Oct. 15, County meeting will be held at Fort Orange Post Rooms, Albany, at which time the annual election of County officers will be held. County committee members from our Unit, of course, will attend and other Unit members are always welcome.

On Tuesday, Oct. 5, a dinner honoring our past presidents will be held at Tall Timbers, Voorheesville, at 7 p.m. Lee Hurley is reservations chairman and all reservations must be in to Lee by Oct. 2. This is a new affair for our Unit and maybe it will become a yearly affair.

Looking 'way, 'way ahead, our card party and fashion show will be held Tuesday, Nov. 9 in the Post Rooms at 8 p.m. General chairman Ann Heilman will be assisted by Past President Irene White. Other committees are as follows: Tickets, Maud Hafley and Mary Conner; Refreshments, Betty Costigan; Table Prizes & Tallies, Maud Hafley; Door Prize, Irene White; Decorations, Ann Heilman; Hostesses, Maurie Flanigan, Jo Brusio and Pat Van Galen.

Remember to donate some of your trading stamps—that's how Irene will get our door prizes. They are always nice prizes and every little stamp helps!

Fashions from The Clothes Horse, Slingerlands, will be shown. Names of models for the fashion show and other members of the refreshment committee are not available yet.

Card parties mean a lot of hard work for all committees. Let's do our part! Plan a table or at least take one ticket!

I'll see you, and congratulations to all new officers and committee chairmen. May this year be a most successful one!

NEW LAST MAN'S CLUB?

An outgrowth of the recently formed Advisory Committee of Past Commanders is the revived suggestion for a Last Man's Club formed of World War 2 vets.

A group of Blanchard's World War 1 members have a Last Man's Club formed about 20 years ago. With 20 years behind the end of World War 2 it seems timely that this new Last Man's group be organized. To bring the new club into being, Commander Ed Costigan has appointed his predecessor Charles O'Hara chairman of the organizing committee.

Chairman O'Hara says: "If sufficient interest is shown, plans will be drawn to establish the club, which will essentially be a group to meet once a year to memorialize the spirit which bound them together in the cause of freedom for which America was the victor in World War 2. There will be no dues or assessments except a nominal fee to cover the cost of the annual dinner meeting. It is hoped that sufficient interest will be expressed in order to set Dec. 7, 1965 as the closing date for charter membership in this new club.

"To learn the reaction of the membership of the Post to this proposal, Commander Costigan joins with me in urging a strong turnout for the Oct. 4 Post meeting at which this proposal can be fully discussed. For those who do not attend the meeting, their expressions will also be welcome by mail, phone, or in person.

"This idea is but another ripple in the great pond of our organization dedicated to the interests of all veterans, and the wishes of its membership—not merely a social-club venture. It is the intent of this idea to encourage more of you Blanchard Legionnaires to support the ideals of the American Legion by joining with your fellow veterans on meeting nights—and then helping to advance the program envisioned in the Legion Constitution."

1965 ROSTER

With this issue of the 1040 TIMES is the current membership roll for our Post as of this past Labor Day. A committee of three, Commander Ed Costigan, Vice Comdr.-Membership Chmn. Merwyn Atwood and Editor Al Woehrle, that day spent five hours screening the roster.

After each name in this roster there is a space to fill in the number of years each of you have had continuous membership in the American Legion. In an effort to bring the "continuous membership" program up-to-date you're asked to write the number of years you've been in the American Legion on a slip of paper with your name and mail it to the Post. This roster is then to serve as a reminder for you to do this as well as giving you a ready reference list of your fellow American Legionnaires.

Notes of Interest . . .

Adjutant Dave Parr recorded these minutes at past recent meetings:

Rising vote of thanks to Bill McGoey for his work as activities chairman last year. . . Action to set up an office in the Post in which the Commander and the other officers can work on administrative details. . . Immediate Past Commander O'Hara presented Commander Costigan with paid-off mortgage. . . Past Commander Winthrop Robinson tells Post to include Gold Star Mothers in its 1966 Memorial Day Parade. . . Past Commander Al Woehrle reported Blanchard Post was represented at the Bethlehem Post Lodge of Elks Annual Flag Day ceremony.

Team Captains

The Blanchard Post Bowling League has its 1965-66 season underway with the following teams and captains:

Marines, Milt Andre; Infantry, Ken Stinson; Engineers, Skip Larkin; Tanks, Barney Greene; Army, Walt Berry; Artillery, Bryant McCarthy; Coast Guard, Ed Loftus; and Navy, "Doc" Stan Klett.

The league bowls each Friday night at 6:45 at Sporthaven Lanes.

TO GET A MEMBER

The American Legion among all veterans organizations credits itself with having the most influential lobbying efforts in Congress and the State Legislatures. This is a good selling point to encourage membership in the Legion.

Of interest to everyone is the recently enacted Public Law 89-117, the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965. It defines: "Under this section the term 'veteran' means any person who served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States for a period of not less than 90 days and who was discharged therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable. In effect, peace time veterans will be eligible under the provisions of this act."

New Career

Congrats and good wishes go to our Blanchard Legionnaire Hank Voorhees who has just embarked on a new business venture with the establishment of the Slingerlands Package Store.

Series Day

Remember, Saturday, Oct. 9, between 1 and 5 p.m. is set aside at the Post for the men-folk to have a few hours of relaxation. Usually, this time is fixed for a World Series TV showing. Because the games may be on the West Coast it will not fit into our schedule. That will not prevent the fellows who show for the party from having a good time. Chairman is Hank Voorhees. There'll be a goodly supply of beer, clams and other delicacies. Fee: $2.50. Come—have fun.

Americanism

Blanchard Post members may take pride in their Post's efforts which contributed toward the special recognition given the Dept. of New York American Legion which was awarded the Heart Americanism Award at the National Convention in Portland, Oregon.
