FIFTEENTH EDITION

NOVEMBER 1970

FUN DAY FOR BLANCHARD POST ANNUAL GOLF DAY

Although rain delayed the playing date for a week, some of the boys (about 28) had an excuse to get out twice. It was a fun day for all. Everyone won at least one golf ball for one reason or another. Picture above shows Ray Callagan, chairman of the event, awarding the prizes to the winners: Bob Fraim who had a low net of 72 (who practices putting on his carpets); Bill James (who hammered the ball long and hard) for low gross of 83; Dick Dalton, who accepted for Ed Zoremski for the longest drive; and Jim Blendell for closest to the pin. Special thanks to Tip Nelson our handicapper and prize chairman, Jack Brady our sign man, and to Normanside Country Club for the privilege of using their course, to golf pro Marty Czwakiel for his patience, the delicious dinner and the courtesy of their entire staff.

See you all next year.

80 and Still Going Strong!

Congratulations to a fine gentleman, Guy Smith, who attained a goal of 80 years on Sunday, October 18. One of the most beloved members of the 1040 Post, Guy has our best wishes for a "Happy New Year" with many more to come.

Some of his cronies surprised Guy at the Post on Monday the 19th, with a party and were well rewarded by his complete look of amazement when he realized the celebration was in his honor. Hope he will remember this as one of the happy nights in his 80 years and we know that those who were present are glad they were there to enjoy it with him.

See you next year, Guy — same time, same place.

JEWISH NIGHT

Saturday, November 14, is the date of the annual Jewish Night Dinner-Dance. Hot and cold hors d'oeuvres will be served during the Dutch treat cocktail hour in the Lower Lounge from 6:30 through 7:30. Dinner will be from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m., and will be a full course meal based around hot brisket of beef.

Jerry Romano will emcee the affair and will direct Israeli folk dances, which will be part of the entertainment. The dancing will be to Francis Murphy's band, whom we enjoyed so much at the 20 Week Club dinner. Come and enjoy a good, hearty meal and a fine evening of entertainment.

Ticket sales will be limited, so contact co-chairmen Morey Maskin or Sid Kaplan early for reservations. Art Quinn will also have tickets available as long as they last at the soda fountain. This year tickets will be marked down to $3.99 per person. (Note: this is not a fire sale although the price is normally $4.00.) This is just our way of fighting inflation.

The New York State Women's Civil Defense Council held their annual conference meeting September 27-29 at the Emergency Operating Center, Public Security Building at the Campus, and at Jamaica Inn. Civil Defense Chairman Maurie Flanigan, Maud Hafley and Marcia Rosenfield attended workshops and toured the Emergency Operating Center. They also viewed a movie, "In Time of Emergency" and learned about the role of women in disaster.

Guest speaker was Miss Georgiana H. Sheldon, National Deputy Director of Civil Defense, Washington, D. C.

A great big thank you to everyone who helped make the card party a success, committee chairmen and members, all who contributed sandwiches and door prizes, and of course everyone who came and/or purchased tickets.

Our lovely models were Josephine Bollman, Della Brady, Esther Cooke, Gail Cummings, Helen Deitz, Diane Grasser, Gwen Grasser, Kay Lenseth, Marcia Nelson and Barbara Palmer.

The Third District Fall Conference was held October 16, 1970, at Governor Clinton Hotel, Kingston, with Mrs. Francis Dempsey, Third District Chairman presiding. Guests who attended were Dept. Pres., Mrs. Herman Harrington; Dept. Vice Pres., Mrs. James Coyle, Mrs. Raymond Wellington and Mrs. Francis Smack; Dept. Leadership Chmn., Mrs. Bernard Kennedy; Past Dept. Pres., Mrs. Kenneth Hack, Mrs. Herbert Hafley, Mrs. Jesse Haley and Mrs. Stanley Matthews; Past District Chmn., Mrs. Francis Gilligan; Third District Vice Chmn., Mrs. Elliott Brainard; Third District Sec'y, Mrs. Clifford Davis, Jr.; and Town of Esopus Post 129 Commander, Robert Graves.

The programs discussed were: Membership, Veteran's Affairs and Rehabilitation, V.A.V.S., Gift Shop, Dept. Finance, Constitution and By-Laws, Chaplains, National Security, Legislation and Committee on Children and Youth.

Mrs. Herman (Ann) Harrington gave a very enthusiastic talk which, if heard, would inspire each committee chairman to work a little harder for such a wonderful organization. More details of each committee will be given later as each chairman receives her booklet of information. Her president's project is "Furnishings for all Veterans Hospitals." Dept. Chaplain Maud Hafley, Unit Pres. Marcia Rosenfield, Chris Barkhuff and May Smith from Blanchard attended.

Membership Chairman Barbara Palmer reports the following new members: Virginia Bruce, Gail Cummings, Dorothy Ennis, Grace Getner, Diane Grasser and Laura Howard. Keep up the good work, Barbara and your committee.

Open house at the Veterans Hospital will be December 6. All Legionnaires and Auxiliary members are invited to attend from 2 to 4 p.m. Volunteers are needed for Tag Days on Monday and Tuesday — Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, and for Gift Shop on Monday and Tuesday — Dec. 7 and 8. Let us all volunteer to help and make this successful as great satisfaction is derived from aiding veterans.

The 8th Annual Christmas Drawing sponsored by the Auxiliary will be held at the Tinsel Ball on Dec. 12. First prize is a $50 basket of spirits and second prize is a case of champagne. Donation is 25 cents each or 5 for $1. The books were courtesy of Normanside Lunchette, Frank Maio, Prop. Chances may be obtained by calling Chairman Noreen Giaccone at 439-4239 or from Art Quinn at the bar. Help make this a success by taking a book and distributing books among your friends.

Our Christmas dinner will be Tuesday, Dec. 15, at the Legion Hall, catered by Kaa Rheu Vahn Caldron, Albany. All proceeds these girls make are earmarked for cerebral palsy. They support and work on the January CP Telethon.

Mrs. Sopic Kaminski, Chairman, Albany County, will be our guest.

Dear Friends of Blanchard Post:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you, on behalf of Blanchard Post, for the bound volume of the Stars and Stripes. It is a most valued addition to our collection and it is our intent to utilize this gift as much as possible.

We have a squad room in our new building and are inviting anyone who cares to come to this room and read in our new book of the Stars and Stripes.

I am sure that you must realize what fond memories these pages will recall for a lot of our World War 1 vets. It will also give the rest of us a chance to get an insight on how the other half lived.

Assuring you once again that your gift is most appreciated, I am

THE EXTRA FRAME . . .

Charley Wiley, the league's first president and starting his 24th season, hit the maples for a 229 single on opening night of the new season . . . And a welcome to the league this year to Joe Pauquette, Doug Roach, Bill Alwell, Hugh Stowers, Al Vanderwood and Pat Lawler . . . And will the Engineers fold after a good start? . . . And Ed Loftus who won the high average crown last year with 180 average making a strong bid to repeat the honor this season . . . And a suggestion that more bowlers volunteer to keep score now and again so that some of the fellows who keep score so much of the time can take time out to get a beer or a coke . . . And do you think that we will ever finish before 9 o'clock — of course, we can blame it on the photographer one night . . . and that's all for this issue.

The Gutter Duster

New Vice Commander

Hank Voorhees was elected unanimously by the Post members to be our Vice Commander. Hank resides at 49 Union Avenue, Slingerlands and has not only been a member for 14 years but is one of the most diligent workers we have had in the Post. There is not enough that can be said for the many hours that Hank has put into the making of the new Post, so we can only say that the members have made an excellent choice in selecting him and we wish him the highest success in his new post.

Twenty Week Club

On Saturday, October 17, the Twenty Week Club dinner and dance for sustaining members and their guests was grandly attended by 250 members and guests. Among the happy winners this time were Helen Kemnitzer, Mary Grace Von Ronne, Jack Brady, Ken Burns and Ed Rukwid.

The new books are ready and waiting for the next set of lucky winners, so pick yours up at the downstairs bargain room and cross your fingers. The next number drawn may be YOURS.

Shuffle Board League

The 1970-71 Shuffle Board League began the season on October 8 and it looks like another fine year. With a goodly number of teams signed up, Shuffy McDuffy and Bill Campbell are still vying for top honors but the eliminations will apply the equalizers at the end of the season as the high-low tournament decides where the prizes are awarded. Nevertheless, there will be plenty of razzing and fun for all until the final night at the dinner. Sooo, keep your weights on the board and don't let your scores go down with the sun.

SICK CALL

During the past months Legion members Peter Pastorok, John McGarry, Bud Mosmen, Harold Jorgenson, George Butman and Tony Pellone were ill and some hospitalized. Cards of cheer and best wishes were sent to let them know we were thinking of them and wishing them all a speedy recovery. Nice to see them up and around once again. Tony Pellone (he works hard helping to serve those delicious dinners) is still hospitalized at this writing, but well on the road to good health.

If anyone hears of a fellow Legionnaire who is ill, please notify Chairman Hugh Stowers at 439-3848 or Commander John Ennis, 439-9134.

A "Thank You" Note

Pete Pastorok, one of our members, has been very ill for a while back and although Pete was not hospitalized, he was pleased to receive so many get-well cards from the Legion. Pete and his wife, Sue, being unable to thank all of you personally, asked to take this opportunity to thank you for your consideration and thoughtfulness during their troubled time.

OVERHEARD AT THE FOUNTAIN . . .

Sid Kaplan and those classy slacks almost eliminated the need for lighting effects at the Twenty Week Club dinner.

Tip Nelson would be interested in knowing what Bill McDermott is doing at the fountain on a Friday night?

Al Beckmann (now Bill) is donating a thirst quencher for turkey winners at the bowling league. Wonder what that is.

Dianne Grasser (one of the new Auxiliary members) keeps promising Joe Cummings the keys to her new sports car but so far Joe just keeps wishing . . .

What's this we hear about Phil and Ann Lee—they took a trip to Montreal recently and the second day they were there the Canadian government called out the troops.

The manager of the Yanks may be the official manager-of-the-year, but you can bet that if Fred Vogel has his way it would be Weaver of the Orioles.

George and Marge Laird are taking off like the birds for the southland for six months or so to see how it feels to winter without a leaking roof. Keep in touch folks.

Milt Andre is aware that all bowling fees are not equal for all members but he is having so much fun needling that he refuses to tell us why. Maybe Jack Brady can come up with a good answer—if not a good score.

How come Flintstone had his old buddy Ken on the run on sports day? . . . and we don't mean running around the building.

NICE THINGS TO HEAR!

I recently spent some time in Albany Veterans Hospital and thought every Legionnaire should know of the wonderful treatment I received there.

I was admitted without any red tap—the only requirement was my honorable discharge papers. The entire staff, from the cleaning man to the doctors, were most efficient. With the good care and treatment I was out in one week—in good health.

I feel that each of you should know the hospital service that is available to you at the Albany Veterans Hospital.
