Atwood, also of Delmar, watch their County Commander Ralph W. Cox sign a petition to be given to the New York State Legislature. A belated thank you to Isabelle Greenwood, chairman, Tina Romanski, and Marion Dole for the terrific job done on the Auxiliary Christmas party. It was a most enjoyable evening. Lenore Smith was mistress of ceremonies and Marie Smith and Kathy Dolan provided the entertainment.

For Christmas we gave our adopted veteran, Charlie Butler, two shirts, slippers, socks and a lap afghan—all being purchased with the collection taken at the Christmas party. There is still money left and will be used to remember Charlie on Valentine's Day and his birthday.

Thank you to the following girls who worked at the men's County Meeting in December: Della Brady, Gloria Broom, Barbara Palmer, Lenore Smith and Barbara Whitney.

A red, white and blue hand-crocheted afghan will be raffled off in April at our card party. Raffle tickets will soon be available and we need helpers to sell them. This afghan was crocheted by Betty Worden.

Membership Chairman Marcia Turner reports that we still have 10 delinquent members that have not paid their dues. If you are one of these, won't you make an effort to get them paid.

On Tuesday, Feb. 19, we will have our Birthday Dinner at the Post Rooms. All members will be called. A special reminder—all who make reservations, that must be in by February 12 and no cancellations accepted after that date, must pay for their reservations. The dinner will be $5.00 per person.

Saturday night, Mar. 9, the Auxiliary is holding a spaghetti dinner at the Post Rooms with servings from 5 to 8 p.m. Come one and all and bring your family and friends. For further information and prices, watch the Post bulletin board.

Tuesday night, Mar. 19, we are having a covered dish dinner followed by our regular meeting and initiation of new members. Each member bring a covered dish and her own place setting. We are looking forward to meeting all of our new members at this time.

Mabel McCredie has been hospitalized and has undergone surgery.

Taps

We mourn the passing of our departed comrade, E. Herbert White, and extend our sincerest sympathy to his widow and family.

Another Winner

The lucky winners for the 20 Week Club on January 11 were none other than Bernie Parker (this man won the previous week), and Fred Forlani.

• KNOW YOUR OFFICERS •

Mr. Edward Korp is his name and presently he is Vice Commander of the 1040 Post. Ed was born in Philipsburg, New Jersey 39 years ago. Mr. Korp received his primary schooling in New Jersey and attended the Universities of Oklahoma and Maryland. Ed entered the Army (Field Artillery) in 1943 and retired in 1963 with the rank of major. Some of Ed's service time was spent in Okinawa, Japan, Korea, Germany, etc. (Boy, this guy got around!)

Ed and his wife, Margaret, reside at 15 Wiggand Drive in Glenmont. They have three daughters, all of whom are married. Would you believe Ed has two granddaughters? From what I hear Ed is doing a terrific job as the Post's Vice Commander and deserves a well earned pat on the back.

WHAT'S THIS?

Some of the Friday night workers at work a few months ago. Do you recognize yourself?

HELP! HELP!

What happened to the Friday night hamburger helpers? Even though a call for volunteers is constantly being sent out, the Post cannot seem to come up with any helpers. As we have said many times, this is your Post—maintained and supported by you. Unless some cooperation is forthcoming, the convenience of Friday night hamburgers may come to an end. You may sign the volunteer list hanging on the bulletin board in the Post Rooms. Won't you please sign up.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS FOR JANUARY 7, 1974

• Regular meeting of the Post opened with 28 members in attendance.

• Minutes of previous meeting were read and accepted.

• Commander Atwood called for the following committee reports:

Ed Korp reported that present membership was at 661.

Ollie Palmer reported on the New Year's Party in which he commended the Post members for fine job done. Ollie also talked of upcoming Indoor Sports Day.

Sid Kaplan gave a brief report on Children's Christmas Party held last month.

Bill Campbell reported German Nite sold out and no more tickets available.

Russ Denninger—oratorical—said he would have the information on students by January 14.

Ernie Gall—baseball—thanked all who helped make baseball dinner a success.

Bob Smith—publicity—the motto for '74 is "stand up and be counted again." Bob gave brief explanation that this meant to try and get Legionnaires who dropped out of membership to re-join. He also said he had free bumper stickers and posters for anyone who wanted them.

Hugh Stowers asked to have the meeting closed in memory of our departed comrade, Herbert White.

• Bob Rosenfield expressed regret that in the future he will be unable to carry on as chairman of Friday night food detail. Commander Atwood requested that anyone interested in taking over to please contact him.

• In the minutes of Dec. 17, 1973, a motion was made by Ken Burns to send a sympathy letter to the next-of-kin of a departed comrade. The letter was to be sent by Adjutant of Post to inform the party involved that the meeting was closed in the deceased's name. After finding out that Hugh Stowers automatically sends a sympathy card to the deceased's family, the motion of December 17, 1973 was cancelled.

• Al Woehrle reported the Legislative Conference/dinner would be on Feb. 4.

• Commander Atwood closed meeting in memory of Herbert White.

Submitted respectfully,
 John A. Vogel, Adjutant

THE EXTRA FRAME

...and Larruping Larry MONETTE took off and clouted those pins for a 233 single ... and we are all 4-square in the corner of Champ John ENNIS in his forthcoming bout with Slugger Medico ... and I haven't seen the Dancing Dollys lately ... and class will tell as you witnessed that Syracuse Univ. Graduate Engineer Warren MOESSNER carrying the watermelon. (I'll have to ask Ron MOESSNER if she hires Warren out to carve Thanksgiving turkeys.) ... and I haven't seen our ole pals Ann and Gus WILLIAMS in quite a spell ... 'n I hear that Rose and Joe MARINO are the perfect party givers judging by reports of their New Year's Eve affair ... and a nice holiday gathering with Marilyn and Lou PICCARAZZI, Ginny and Rusty MILLER, Joan and Hughie STOWERS (on a night when Ruth BURNS was out with Gutter J. DUSTER). ... 'n always a great couple to meet at the Post are Marcia and Bob CLARKE ... 'n if you wanna reel-ly know about nice places to see in the Province of Ontario, Rollie

WHITNEY is the lad who can tell ya! ... 'n it always amazes me what a great knowledge of pre-WW2 Albany a youngster like Jack BRADY has ... and three cheers for Harold ROEHR and all those other great Fry-Nite 50-50 Workers ... 'n when ya think of rising food, gas and all other prices including taxes, shortages of various products—ya think of the old Latin phrase, "Ave, Caesar, Morituri Te Salutant!" ... and we all know what a boo-boo is, but you'll have to ask Prez Bill MITCHELL what a foo-foo is ... contact Bill BLANCHARD Sr. if you don't have your Mountaineer Card and Pine-Tree as yet ... 'n Ollie PALMER gave one of his quiet little smiles when he cracked his first 200 game of the season the other week ... missed Al DAVIS at the first meeting in January—especially the cold cuts and Swiss cheese ... and where has our buddy Lloyd 'Bud' SMITH been these past few months? ... 'n always a good guy to see around the Post is our Erin-Go-Bragh boy—Pat IGOE ... and say-hey, fellas, let us give proper credit on that John Wayne joke and that is to Mike BURNS that's who! ... and by golly I thought the Feds had raided the place when I saw those two very efficient accountants at work—but at closer look I saw it was our own Dick DALTON and Giff LANTZ ... and a big salute to Bette SMITH (daughter of Past Commander Bob and Past President Lenore) and all the other students who captured Regents scholarships. Did you note that once again B.C.H.S. students captured the largest number of scholarships of any area school? ... and as pretty a girl as Barbara PALMER is her personality is even lovelier ... 'n ya gotta admit I haven't picked on Al WOEHRLE, Bob ROSENFELD, Jack CHETNEY, Bob GENTNER, George SPAWN, Dud HARGRAVE, Peg LILLY, Joe ROEHR, Jane ALWELL, Mickey MANTLE, Marie SMITH, Freda REIS-SIG, Cool-Hand LUKE in a long, long time—watch out, you people! ... and a salute to Danny JAGARESKI (son of Mildred and Gene Jagareski) on his TV bowling triumph! ... and as I get older

(I reached that magic 55—retirement eligibility) I get wind-ier und wind-ier so in keeping to the windy month of March! The Dutter Guster

Holy mackerel, just saw a few of the dues coming in and was very happy to see Vaughn Williams and Gil Williams still with us. Gil has been in Pittsburgh a little over 10 years and was one of our dailys for a good spell and always a grand guy. ♦ Dick Williams, now out of Summit, N. J., had a little bout with the ticker but is doing fine now. ♦ Matthew Dybas gave himself a real hot foot and had to go to the cane and also had to learn to limp. ♦ Harvey Hassen is a dedicated Legionnaire and we are sure glad to have him and his wife, Margaret, as part of "ye olde gang." ♦ The Post honored the Post Baseball Team (Albany County Champions) and their manager and nice guy, Ernie Gall at a dinner at the Post Rooms on Dec. 28. ♦ We had a fine turnout on New Year's Eve and Art Blanchard did a great job of organizing the willing and helping hands. ♦ "Lefty" Joe Cummings and his sunflower gal took a southern sojourn to New Orleans and had a fine time. ♦ Friday nite hamburger fryers of late have been Dick and Lucille Cole, the Atwood family, Jim Benton, Bill Alwell, the Atwood family again, and the Betty Pellitier gang. ♦ A sincere Godspeed and good wishes to Bill Kerrigan and Tom Hasselbarth on their hospital stay. ♦ Great guy Jim Benton appointed as organizer and lobbyist for independent oil dealers. They couldn't find a more competent and willing man. ♦ Jack and Barbara Selig have to be two of the most willing workers aboard—helping on dinners, frying hamburgers, working on dance classes, selling tickets, working on clean-ups, etc., are just some of their efforts. ♦ A large group of Blanchardites seen at R.P.I. hockey face-offs lately. ♦ German night was a huge success with very good food served by many willing hands after excellent preparation by Bob Gentner. The music of Steve Anthony was very good and the beer mug collectors added their tenth. Bill Campbell did an outstanding job in presenting this affair with his committee. ♦ Back to the perch in the cage... till a visit from the leprechauns and gypsies.

Come on Kids!

February 9 is the day the Post puts on its Ice Skating Party for all the kids of this area. The ice pond is at the new Delmar Park on Elm Avenue. There will be races and games for all and enough hot dogs and hot chocolate to feed an army. The fun begins at one o'clock in the afternoon. Be there kids and help us eat the dogs, drink the chocolate and have a rarin' good time.

Thursday Nighters

Hey you Shuffleboarders, how about some news? With all that activity going on every week, I just know there must be some newsy items to tell. How about it?

Winnah

The 20 Week Club drawing started out with a bang on January 4 with Phil Lee and Bernie Parker the number one and number two winners.

INDOOR SPORTS DAY

February 2 is Indoor Sports Day. For you out there who do not know what it is, I'll explain. On this day the Post puts on a dinner and entertainment for the handicapped. These people are picked up by private cars and brought to our Post Banquet Room. After the festivities they are returned to their homes or hospitals. These people really enjoy and look forward to this day. The workers for the Post are all volunteers. For all members owning station wagons, please become a worker and help make someone happy.

Spaghetti and Meat Balls

You want a good time; you want a good feed at a reasonable price; you want to have this and help the Auxiliary raise a few bucks at the same time? Well then, come to this family Spaghetti Nite on March 9 from 5 till 8 p.m. There'll be salad, spaghetti, meat balls, dessert and coffee—and all this food will be home made by the best cooks of the area. So remember, this is a fund-raising affair, so come and bring your children. Get in touch with Barbara Palmer or Barbara Whitney for your tickets.
