NINTH EDITION

FEBRUARY 1965

INDOOR SPORTS

The annual Indoor Sports Party takes place at the Post Hall on Saturday afternoon, February 6.

As a special feature this year, Chairman Mike Norton hopes to have Garry Stevens, TV personality, entertaining the Post's guests for this event.

Indoor Sports we have come to recognize as an American Legion community activity which serves to bring pleasure to a group of our friends and neighbors whose physical limitations restrict their social activities. Blanchard Post expects to have as many as 60 guests this year. These guests, men and women mostly of adult age, reside in and around our town and the Capital District area. Indoor Sports is an organization which cooperates with the American Legion and other associations in this endeavor.

For this event, Chairman Mike is looking for more station wagon owners and drivers to augment his present volunteers to transport our guests. So far, Mike has Past Commander Dick Lenseth, Whitman Daniels and George Sykes. Anyone else wishing to participate in this Post activity should contact Mike at HE 9-3241. He can also be reached by contacting him at the Delmar Lumber & Builders Supply where he is a salesman.

The refreshments as usual for the party will be prepared and served by the 'girls' of Blanchard Post Auxiliary. President Irene will have a committee of her Auxiliary members on hand for this affair.

Remember, drivers are wanted at the Post at 1:00 p.m. to do the chauffeuring to deliver the guests to the Post Hall. The party closes about 4:00 p.m.

Commander calls upon all Blanchard Legionnaires who will have free time on that afternoon to assist in this program.

Sick Call

In Albany Veterans Hospital are Jim Tebbutts and Romeo Gagne.

A home accident caused serious injury to Paul Kemmer who was taken to the Memorial Hospital where it was reported he required eight pints of blood.

Taps

A World War I vet, F. A. Hunsdorfer, of Albany, died last month.

CLOSE THE GAP

At press time, Vice Commander-Membership Chairman George Reeber reported 611 paid-up members in Blanchard Post for this year. There remain 145 renewals or new members to acquire. To close the gap, Chairman Reeber has chosen for a committee Past Commander George Butman, Vice Commander Ed Costigan, Blood Committee Chairman Warren Moesner, Art Quinn, who is always available at the Post and your Editor, Al Woehrle. For you whose dues are past due, if you see any of these fellows, give anyone of them the $7.50—if you haven't mailed it to the Post. And if you know of any prospective new members, sign them up. If you don't have an American Legion membership application on hand, turn the name over to the membership committee and you'll get the credit for the new member. Remember, anyone who signs up ten new members is in line for a prize of dues—free for next year.

"The important thing to remember, however, for the good of the Legion", says Commander O'Hara, "is to make our quota of 755 for this year. Won't you please do your part. There isn't very much time left and your help is needed."

LET'S SEE YOU AT THE MARDI GRAS

The 1965 Mardi Gras at the Post Hall on February 27 promises to be bigger and better than ever.

Chairman Charlie Redmond who has done so well with this affair in past years has been named by Commander O'Hara to arrange for this event.

With Charlie and Vice Commander-Activities Chairman Bill McGoey, there is a six-man committee to help for the occasion. Ben Herzog will head up the decorating plans and Hank Voorhees is in charge of refreshments.

Ray Brownell, Pete O'Brien and Nick Tangredi are arranging for prizes, music and publicity for the dance. There'll be 15 prizes for the best costumes as determined by the judges. First we'll have to determine the judges. Marv Hirschburg and his musicians will provide the music.

There is no admission fee—for those who attend costumed. For those coming undressed, a dollar fine will be imposed.

So, it's Saturday night, February 27, from 9:30 until closing. Let's all look forward to a gala night!

IRENE'S CORNER

A HAPPY and HEALTHY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

Now that the holidays are over, let's start off this bright New Year with a resolution to attend all Auxiliary meetings, the third Tuesday of each month, with President Irene presiding. We have many things to do and let's all help by our attendance at meetings.

Betty Costigan is working hard on MEMBERSHIP. Let's all help her out by bringing those dues. Once again DUES R DUE!

For this month, Betty has planned an Open House for eligible members, at which time, committee chairmen will discuss programs of the Auxiliary. This will be very informal and we hope it will interest eligible members enough so that they will want to join us. Ruth Jorgensen and her committee will serve the refreshments.

President Irene, who will represent our Unit, is in charge of reservations for the dinner honoring our Department President, Mrs. J. John Luitink, which will be held at the Petit Paris Restaurant, Albany, on Monday, January 25. Irene is hoping that other Auxiliary members will accompany her to the dinner. Let her know if you are interested and can arrange to go.

Looking ahead a bit, we see our 34th Birthday Dinner coming up Tuesday, February 16. President Irene will be naming her committees and making plans for this affair, at our January meeting. More later!

Then looking ahead even a little farther, we will be making plans for the Spring Card Party, which will feature a Fashion Show from Jean Edwards' Suburban Gal. A definite date will be announced later.

Kitty Williams, Peg Lilly and Helen Deitz responded to the appeal for workers on the recent Cerebral Palsy Telethon.

To our members, Alice Vaughn, Ruth King and Mary Conner, who have been ill, we send a New Year's greeting with best wishes for a return to good health in '65.

President Irene has envelopes for the Johnny Fund and will be glad to give them to any of our members who would like to contribute to this very worthwhile cause.

We are very sorry to report the very sudden and unexpected death of Past Commander Chapman Henry and husband of our own Past President Hattie, who were both with us the night of our Christmas dinner, only to have Chapman pass away on Friday, just two days after their return to their New Jersey home. Sincere and heartfelt sympathy goes out to Hattie and her family from all their friends in our Auxiliary.

Our deepest sympathy too, to Charlotte Johnston, another of our Past Presidents, whose mother passed away just recently.

Our County Committee members attended the county meeting held Friday the 15th, at Silverstein Rooms, Albany, at which time Mrs. Mildred Helmich, Third District Chairman, was an honored guest.

See you at the meetings, the third Tuesday of each month.

CHRIS

P.S.: This note is from Betty Costigan, our Membership Chairman: "Ladies, I am very sorry I could not contact personally all eligible ladies to come to our January meeting. However, we extend a cordial invitation to all to attend our 34th Birthday Dinner to be held on February 16. Reservations may be made by calling Betty Costigan, Membership Chairman, Auxiliary N. A. Blanchard 1040."

P.P.S.: To give credit where it is due, the January meeting Open House Committee had Norrine Cooke as chairman, Betty Costigan and Helen Quinn, hospitality; Ruth Jorgensen and Jane Fearnside, refreshments.

For the February 16th Birthday Dinner we will have Betty Costigan and Helen Quinn, co-chairmen and Ann Heilmann, reservations.

Mess Sergeant is Bahn

For the World War I vets' monthly luncheon recently inaugurated through the efforts of Past Commander Winthrop Robinson, Arthur Bahn will be "Mess Sergeant" for Tuesday, February 9.

Art was an Army mess sergeant two-score plus years ago.

Last month there was a turn-out of about 60 WW-Oners. It is expected that as many or more will be at the February meeting which takes place at noon at the Post Hall. All World War I vets in the area are invited. So, if know of some World War I vets who don't know about these luncheons and get-togethers, make it your business to bring this notice to their attention.

COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR

Post Commander Charlie O'Hara has named a committee headed by John De Mallie to work with the Bethlehem Community Ambassador Project at the fourth movie of the current winter schedule.

This is the third annual Children's Film Festival sponsored by the Project. It has become the group's method of raising funds with which to participate in the Experiment in International Living. The Experiment is a non-profit educational service founded 33 years ago to foster world understanding on a face-to-face basis. It has headquarters in Poultney, Vermont, and is presented in the Empire State through the Bureau of Adult Education of the New York State Education Department. Heading up the program in our community are Blanchard Legionnaire Fred Muchelot and his wife, Jennie.

It is this program which sponsors a creditable Bethlehem resident to represent our town abroad and in turn makes welcome a visitor from other lands.

The film fare at which the Blanchard Committee will be volunteering is "The Three Stooges in Orbit". It will be shown at the Junior High School on Friday, February 5. Movies start at 7:00 p.m. While presented in the interest of entertaining the school children, many adults have been attending and enjoying the movies—and contributing to the effort.

On Friday, February 19, there will be "The 5,000 Fingers of Dr. T" and on the following Friday is "The Littlest Hobo".

Serving on the committee for the February 5 showing are Bill Campbell, Past Commander Rodger Fryer, Jim Marotta, Vice Commander Bill McGoe and Mike Norton.

Ice Carnival Coming

After a water shortage almost dried out the Von Ronne pond, sufficient snow and ice has accumulated to make the pond available for Blanchard Post's annual Ice Carnival for the kiddies of the community. Commander O'Hara named Fred Stahlhut to put the Carnival on the program for Saturday afternoon, February 6. Fred is looking for a committee to work-over the pond so that it will be smooth for the races and he also wants workers for the Ice Carnival to help and serve the food and give a hand to the many chores that always makes this day a success. Reporting time is 1:00 p.m.

Mountaineers

Chairman Bud Mosmen is looking for another 20 members to join the Mountaineers. Last month Commander O'Hara reported 30 Mountaineers to the Albany County American Legion. Our quota is 50. Anyone wishing to help fill this quota can do so by paying the dollar dues to Bud or to Art Quinn. For those who do not know, these dollars go toward the support of the American Legion Mountain Camp which is maintained as a rest area for American Legionnaires. There is also a resort area at which Legion members and their families can enjoy a lakeside summer picnic or brief vacation periods.

THE ANGLERS COVE

A three-way tie was reported for The Anglers Mixed-League of Blanchard Post bowlers in mid-January. The league bowls Sunday evenings at Sporthaven. Secretary Adele Strickland reports the leaders as Bob Strickland's Barracudas, Clarence Lephart's Bullheads and Chet Becker's Perches.

Second place was held by John Ennis' Piranhas, Stan Klett's Guppies, third and the next three in order were Flounders with Bill Flint as captain, Smelts with George Mayers as head, and last but not least, Gus Franze and his Muskies.

For the men, Norm Andrews held high single with a 242 and Bill Flint with a high triple of 593. The three top men bowlers in the league are Clarence Lephart, Norm Andrews and Bill Flint.

On the side of the fairer sex, Betty Brandon with 193 held high single and Kay Becker with 486 had high triple. The three leading ladies of the league are Ruth Andrews, Tillie Lephart and Grace Franze.

Winner of the Thanksgiving roll-off turkey was Secretary Adele with a 194 game—69 pins above her average!

A replacement pair in the league is Giffort and Dot Lantz who have taken spots vacated by Given and Fran Hynds.

GOOD FLAG PROGRAM

Commander O'Hara has high praise for the fine job as a Flag Chairman being done by Vice Commander George Reeber. Says our Commander, "George's work in this effort should be an incentive to others in our Post and in the community". Here's what George has been doing: arranged for the showing of the Post's film about the American Flag for the Girl Scouts at St. Thomas' Catholic School on December 22; and again on January 20 for another Girl Scout Troop at the Delmar Elementary School; presented, on behalf of Blanchard Post on January 11, an American Flag to the newly-formed Brownie Troop 106 which meets at the Mead home, 2 LaGrange Road, and again on January 29 he made another presentation, in the place of Commander O'Hara, to Troop 375 at the Glenmont Elementary School.

In the program to encourage display of the American Flag, Vice Commander Reeber calls on the home-builders of the community to furnish an American Flag with each new home completed. The Flags are available at a very small cost at Blanchard Post.
