Poppy Day is Wednesday, May 15, and many Auxiliary members will be out to offer poppies to the public. We are proud to be able to do this because veterans make each poppy and are reimbursed for the production. The poppy funds are used exclusively for rehabilitative and beneficial purposes. Marcia Rosenfield is our Poppy Chairman and will be seeking volunteers. If you are willing to give a few hours on this day, please let Marcia know.

A thank you to all the women who did double duty preparing and serving the buffet for the Post's Tribute to the Town Firemen. Those who worked were Eleanor Atwood, Barbara Palmer, Barbara Selig, Lenore Smith, Ruth Burns, Marie Burns, Marcia Turner, Wanda Whitney, Margaret Hasen, Della Brady, Gloria Broom, Roxie Erlichmann, Lee Hurley, Betty Worden and Barbara Whitney.

Kay Mosmen wishes to thank all of the girls who worked on the Back-to-God Breakfast. They were along with Kay, Betty Worden, Peg Butman, Grace Von Ronne, Kathy Buker, Barbara Palmer, Della Brady, Lenore Smith, Madelyn Lawlor, Peg Mosmen, Helen Kemnitzer, Marge Haeusser and Barbara Whitney.

The following new members were initiated at our March meeting: Christine Romanski, Ruth Bruso, Roseann Lohrey, Ronnie Moessner, Leona Moore, Lillian Blanchard, Nancy Masters, Betty Peltiere, Doreen Masters, Carol Cummings, Stephany Makowski, Margaret Kiszka, Rosemary Blanchard, Celeste Blanchard, Theresa Blanchard, Rose Levy, Dorothy Lantz, Marie Moran, Leora Gazel, Kathy Dorn and Sharon Gazel.

A hearty welcome to our Unit to our two new transfer members: Margaret Hasen and Kay Stephany.

Plan to attend the regular meeting on Tuesday, May 21, as we will have election of officers and our Memorial Service. Our new officers will be installed on Friday night, May 24. Hope to see all of you on these two nights.

Memorial Day is May 27 and we want to see a lot of our Auxiliary members in the line of march this year. Let your officers know if you'll be able to parade.

Shuffleboard

We finished our year with a fine meal at Restseekers Inn. Ken Havill finished first with Bill Campbell second and Ed Vogel third. Our best wishes to George Spawn who retired as president and did a splendid job. Ken Havill took over as the new president.

May 27 is Memorial Day. Fly your Flag.

KNOW YOUR OFFICERS*Sergeants-at-Arms*

This year we have two Sergeants-at-Arms. The gent on the right is Robert Schenk. He was born in Brooklyn but was raised in the Greenville, N. Y. area. Bob received his primary schooling in Greenville and later attended Russell Sage College before enlisting in the U.S. Navy. Bob spent four years in service before he married Linda. Bob and Linda live in Westerlo and are a nice couple to know.

The chap on the left is Art Blanchard and I have a confession to make. Art gave me a thumbnail interview and I lost my notes and it's too late to go get another. However, Mr. and Mrs. Artie Blanchard are a very nice couple and so are his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Blanchard Sr., and so is his brother Bill and his wife and so is his uncle Jim and his wife. Weeeeeeeo—I quit!

Memorial Service

On May 19 at 7 p.m., Post members and Auxiliary will hold Memorial Services at St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church. The fire companies are also invited. Let's have a good turnout. Please meet at the Post by 6:30.

Meeting Highlights 4/1/74

Regular meeting of the Post opened with 27 members in attendance. Minutes of previous meeting read because of the format for the Fire Fighters Recognition Night in which meeting was very brief. Commander Atwood called for the following committee reports:

- Ed Starkweather gave a brief report on up-coming 20-Week Club Dinner.

- Ollie Palmer commended Joe Cummings and Bill McGoey on the fine job done on Irish Night. Ollie also thanked George Butman for the work done on the Back-to-God Breakfast.

- Ron Hoffaker gave a report on the Memorial Day Parade work he is doing.

- Bob Smith gave brief report on turn-out of Fire Fighters Recognition Night.

- Ken Burns reported on bowling in which he said anyone interested in joining the league to contact him.

- Cmdr. Atwood reported for Ed Korp that membership is now at 807.

- Bob Smith reported the Nominating Committee's selection of officers for the up-coming year.

Commander Atwood welcomed a new member, Bill Reuter, into the 1040 Post.

Hank Voorhees and Phil Lee were nominated for Board of Directors.

Commander Atwood closed meeting in memory of our departed comrades.

Submitted respectfully,
John A. Vogel, Adjutant

EXPRESS YOURSELF

At our request the Bethlehem Central School Board has deferred until their May 8 meeting their action on adopting the "Discipline Policy" statement to wit:

"Standards of discipline are to be established to assist in securing appropriate levels of control for the maintenance of the most effective learning environment, free of unwarranted distraction; it is the responsibility of all who interact (including parents) in the schooling process to assist in providing and maintaining this environment.

"Self-discipline is the ideal, and the development of it shall be an integral part of the school experience. However, when a student loses self-control to the extent that his/her actions or inactions are detrimental to the learning or welfare of others in the school, a means of control must be utilized. Such means should be well thought out so that the discipline is of benefit to those involved and provides an additional learning experience.

"Disciplinary efforts in the form of punishment must always relate to the magnitude of the offense except that corporal punishment is prohibited. This does not preclude the use of minimal force when a staff member can reasonably conclude that force is necessary to maintain control or to protect self, others or property."

To show our appreciation of their recognition of our concern about our school system, Blanchard Post Legionnaires in this School District are urged to make their sentiments known to the School Board directly.

THE EXTRA FRAME

...Hi-Lo winners and the other bi-g champions plus new officers for 1974-75 will appear in the June issue ... and an impressive nominating committee consisting of Hugh STOWERS and Ray BENDER has been chosen ... and I suspect bowling will begin on Fry-Nite next Sept. 6 at 6:45; 'n all you good gents who would like to sign up, give your name and phone no. to Secretary Milt ANDRE or any of the League gents ... and there was Ernie GALL warming up for the baseball season by indulging in a fast go at The Alley Cat ... 'n all our sympathy to the STOWERS family on the loss of Princess ... and it's always nice to see Margaret & Earl McGUIRK at the Post ... 'n I betcha that recent article on the old Kenmore Hotel Rainbo Room brought a lotta happy memories to many of our members ... and congratulations to Ron & Warren MOESSNER on the forthcoming college graduation of young Mr. MOESSNER ... and John O. SMITH set a new track record at the Back-to-God breakfast for number of slices of ham eaten ... 'n long ago I should have said hearty congrats to Dan Giff LANTZ in assuming the Vice Prez in his Fiduciary & Banking Establishment and also congrats to Al PUGLIESE on his promotion. (Just goes to prove that the rich get richer.) ... 'n 50 years ago the Washington Senators beat the N.Y. Giants 4 games to 3 to cop the World Series (which of you wise guys said, "So what!") ... and I bet a bob 'n a tupence that Ray CALLAGAN has the golf clubs out and is racking up plenty of pars & birdies ... and congrats to Cmdr. Mer ATWOOD, Sr. Vice Cmdr. Ed STARKWEATHER, Vice Comdr. Ollie PALMER, Vice Cmdr. Ed Korp, Adjutant John VOGEL and all the other Post officers on their very successful year ... 'n I'll have to ask Bill JOHNSTON and Ed VAIL how their scores compared in the different leagues on different lanes ... and any of you sports buffs who would like to see the sports section of a June 1927 Times-Union, see Ken BURNS who will be glad to let you borrow it ... 'n it seems to me there was a book, movie or tv show entitled "Now That April Is Here." Holey-Smolley (as Redd Foxx would say) weren't we the busy Post people in April with parties und schtuff gounng every week! mais oui, Mein herr! (as we say in Gaelic.) ... and Gert & Jim CLEARY have to be special pals to everyone ... and sure good to see my first hi-lo partner Ken STINSON whooping it up the other party nite ... Good to see Mr. & Mrs. Bob QUIGLEY, Mr. & Mrs. Herm WAHL at the Post party the other week but missed that other great couple Nancy & Robert DISNEY ... 'n I trust that all you good people have been sending cards to Chas. BUTLER at the VA Hospital ... Always nice to see Mr. & Mrs. Fred TROMBE out for an evening of fun 'n frivolity at a Post party ... 'n I betcha next season Jules AUPPERLE will come back and bomb those maples so hard that the guys will think that he's been sand-bagging the last coupla years ... 'n you think you're good at sports trivia? So what was the last year Turkey Tyson played for Uticer (Utica to you non-New Englanders) in the Eastern League? ... So I could be in for the hassle of my life during the forthcoming 12-long ones and if so, I'd appreciate the help of you one and all— ... Getting close to the wrap-up for a while. Your ever-loyal, obedient servant (but kinda simple).

LEGION JACKETS

More and more men of the Post are being bedecked in new jackets which show their name, our Post's name and number and display a four-inch American Legion Emblem. These jackets lend a lot to a uniform look and come in very handy when parading in the rain. A big round of thanks should be given to Jack Selig. Out of the goodness of his heart and at no monetary gain to himself, Jack has been taking care of ordering and delivering these jackets.

In a Post our size, it is impossible for any one man to know all the members. The Legion Emblem, which is patented, is intended for the use of members only. Let's give Jack a hand and not order a jacket for anyone who is not a member. If you give Jack an order and he asks to see your Legion Membership Card, do not feel offended. He is only trying to do right in protecting the Emblem that we went through so much for the privilege of wearing.

May 15 is Poppy Day. Support the ladies Auxiliary. Buy a bouquet of poppies.

Blanchard Night May 18

Formerly called Past Commanders Night, this is a very good night—consider yourself advised to purchase your tickets early—support your Post by attending the dinner-dance with cocktails at 6:30 and dinner served at 7:30. The music will be by Francis Murphy and His Henchmen, backed by his singing sidekick, Jerry Romano.

Come one, come all, and meet your new Commander and his slate. See your past Commanders. Call at the mahogany for tickets or see Mike Mele.

Finance Officer Post Filled

The complete slate of officers proposed for 1974-75 is now finalized.

We are most gratified that John A. Williamson, Sr. has agreed to accept this important post of Finance Officer.

John, who started his Legion life with the Daley Post of Buffalo, N.Y., recently joined Blanchard Post along with his son, John, Jr. Welcome to both of you!

May 12 is Mother's Day. Take her out to dinner.

WHAT'S COOKING

The shuffleboard league fattened up on shrimp, clams, steak and trimmings at Restseekers Inn. Rumor has it that there was plenty of food left over. Seems B.M. couldn't make it this year. ... Harvey Hasen is looking for chilled flies. He wants them for power for his model airplanes. No joke, he's serious. His only request is he would prefer those that have rounded rears and be able to soar on a 45-degree angle at hookup time. ... The son of Stan & Nancy Brooks joined the U.S. Air Force. He hopes to take part as an xray technician in the training program. ... A couple of Friday night helpers were Bill and Jane Alwell. Ralph Hall helped Bill in the kitchen while Jane played waitress and mediator. I can't say who (will I Bill A.), but who cooked the pizzas while still in their containers—cardboard, that is. ... Bill Campbell, Sr. is layed up with another fractured hip. Hang in there, fella! ... Maury Maskin is scarred and cut from a battle with corral while swimming in Carracus. ... Matt Klapp has his lovely gal home after a long hospital stay. ... Joe and Marge Kiszka made two grand streakers at a recent house party hosted by Andy and Sally Makowski. ... It's real nice to have Betty Pellitier and Joe's Harem helping us with the Friday night hamburgers. Good show, gals. ... Ray Bender was in for a night of shuffleboard and darts, Ray came in with a group that included two new applicants for membership. Let us all help our Membership Chairman go over the top. He needs less than a dozen to make it—the quota is 848. If you haven't paid your dues, please do so now so we may put this tough job to bed. ... A baseball bus is being planned for the middle of June. Guys and gals and kids get your name in as soon as possible. First come first served, the first 40 paid up members will get the seats. ... Happy birthday to a wonderful guy, ME, Frank Futia—39 years young—and I can prove it. Ed Yanni and I went to school together and I remember he was always 15 years older than I. ... The Post Bowling League had their banquet at the La Casa and I didn't hear many complaints. ... Dick and Ruth Dalton had a sunny vacation in Alcapolca and they looked great on their return. ... Al Rowe is back home from the South and back on the paste boards. ... So, till the May flowers start blooming—Amen.

County Meeting

The next Albany County meeting will be at the North Albany Post No. 1610, located at 29 North First Street, Albany. The date is the last Thursday in May at 8 p.m. All are invited. Please try to come.
