DELMAR, NEW YORK

SIXTEENTH YEAR

JUNE 1972

We thought you might want to meet our Cocktail Waitresses who have made our parties during the year so enjoyable: From the left — Sharon Sherman, Lee Morin, Sandy Barnett, and missing from photograph, JoAnn Stefanik.

A quiet corner at the bar on a recent quiet Saturday.

THE FLAG SPEAKS

Filled with significance are my colors of red, white and blue into which have been woven the strength and courage of American manhood, the love and loyalty of American womanhood.

Stirring are the stories of my stars and stripes.

I symbolize the soul of America, typifying her ideals and aspirations, her institutions and traditions.

I reflect the wealth and grandeur of this great Land of Opportunity.

I represent the Declaration of Independence.

I stand for the Constitution of the United States.

I signify the Law of the Land.

I tell the achievements and progress of the American people in art and science, culture and literature, invention and commerce, transportation and industry.

I stand for peace and good will among the nations of the world.

I believe in religious and racial tolerance.

I stand for personal liberty.

I proclaim freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and freedom of the press.

I am the symbol of American democracy and the emblem of national unity.

I am the heart of America, symbolizing the joys and sorrows, the love and romance of her people.

I wave exultantly over the school houses of the land, for Education is the Keystone of the Nation and the School-room is my Citadel.

I am the badge of the Nation's greatness and the emblem of its destiny.

Threaten me and millions will spring to my defense!

I AM THE AMERICAN FLAG!

—Col. James A. Moss, USA (Ret.)

THE EXTRA FRAME...

... And with 2983 out of 3000 precincts reporting their votes, it's a landslide victory for John HAKER, President; William MITCHELL, Vice President; Milton ANDRE, Secretary, and Lawrence MONETTE, Treasurer... A fine, fitting commendation was presented to Charley WILEY, our first President and loyal Secretary for many years when he was made a Blanchard Post Bowling League Life-Time Member. Now, Charley, just come over and bowl and let somebody else enjoy the scorekeeping headaches! ... Hi-Average Ron UNSER 183; Hi-Single Ollie PALMER 256; Hi-Team Single ARMY (Capt. Al BECKMANN, Joe PAUQUETTE, Phil GIACONE, Ken BURNS, Charley WILEY); Hi-Triple Milt ANDRE 687; Hi-Team Triple ARMY again (BECKMANN, PAUQUETTE, GIACONE, BURNS and WILEY). Hi-Lo winners and Most Improved Bowler will appear in the September issue as we go to press before they are announced! Unofficial Awards (1) Teller of the Tales—Hughie STOWERS. (2) Prettiest sight to behold at the lanes—tie vote between Lee MORIN and seeing your worst enemy get a 7-10 split. (3) Profanity Award—a tie among 34 bowlers. (4) Bad Sport Award—a tie among 38 bowlers. (5) Good Guy Award—a tie among Doug ROACH, Ed HANRAHAN, Ray BENDER, Tom FOY, Joe PAUQUETTE, Ken HAVILL, Hank RISTAU and 32 other fellows. (6) Perfect attendance at all 90 games—Jules AUPPERLE, Larry MONETTE, Jack BRADY, John HAKER and Ken BURNS ... REMEMBER SEPT. 8, 1972 at 6:45 WE RESUME BOWLING. Get a friend! a relative! a neighbor! an enemy! Call "Uncle" Milt ANDRE and say, "Got a new prospective bowler, Milt!"—Milt's number ya ask—but of course, old boy, it's 434-6904! ... AND to you guys who bowled with us this year, but can't come back next year—good luck and thanks for bowling with us and come back to the league if ya gitta chance in the future... a good bunch went to the Hempstead State Legion Tourney headed by Bill MITCHELL who did an excellent job as Post Bowling Chairman. The tourney keglers were Ed BOLLMAN, Joe MARINO, Tom FOY, Bill MITCHELL, Dick DALTON, Al ADAMS, Ed HANRAHAN, George FEIDEN, Bill CAMPBELL, Ollie PALMER, Rollie WHITNEY, Phil GIACONE, Ken BURNS and Bill DONNELLY ... SOME got to be winners! (like Dick DALTON with the gee-gees and maybe in all events), some got to see every lousy inch of Hempstead (like FOY, MARINO, BURNS, BOLLMAN and MITCHELL) ... some got to see ball games, etc. and some got what the Japs would call one 'rousy' meal! ... next year KINGSTON: the year after—ROCHESTER! nuff said for tourneys! Ja wohl, mein Hauptmann!

... Hope they keep the Post summer Friday night music going... a nice gal to see at the Post on a Friday is that charmer Peg Lilly... and Lord NELSON sez that PDN on his license plate stands for "Pritty Danged Nasty" but his ever-lovin' is more charitable ... TAKES 1 to git 1—new Legion members that is; some say, "We're big enuff!" True spirit of Legionism is "we're never big enuff!" Get an application from Vice Commander Ken BURNS or at the Post! Get that friend, relative, neighbor in our Post! Invite them over to visit on a Friday night, a Post meeting, or one of our Post affairs. One visit to Blanchard Post will convince all that $10 a year membership in Blanchard Post is the biggest bargain going... if we need more room, Gus WILLIAMS will gladly build an addition... (Don't hit me with that brick Gus!) ... signs that show time is flying when we get to see Commander Bob's daughter Bette SMITH out driving the car... good luck and best wishes to who

DEDICATION CEREMONY

On Memorial Day, May 29, at 9 a.m. the Post dedicated its new flag pole in front of the Post building. The first flag flown was also flown over the Capitol in Washington, D. C. It was presented by our Congressman, Samuel S. Stratton, and was accepted for the Post by Town Supervisor and Past Commander Bert Kohinke. Mr. Stratton and Mr. Kohinke jointly raised the flag. The Bethlehem Central High School Band and our Drill Squad participated in the brief ceremony. Future flags to be flown will be those presented to the next of kin of our deceased comrades, Harold Jorgenson and Art Bond. They were donated with the stipulation that they be flown over the Post.

As a matter of note, a bronze plaque inscribed "In memory of our comrades" is permanently mounted at the base of the flag pole.

THANKS BLANCHARD POST

It doesn't seem possible, in many ways, that a year has passed since you elected me Commander. It has been a very busy year but it has also been a year I'll never forget. I take this opportunity to thank you once again for having given me the privilege to serve as Commander of Blanchard Post.

While the year has been a busy one, it was made much easier for me by the great group of officers I had to work with. I think that they were as good a group as this Post has had and I thank them from the bottom of my heart for all they did for me. I do not see how anyone could fault their individual efforts.

Perhaps I'll be accused of being blinded by self esteem, but in my mind I think it's been a good year for the Post. We've made a conscientious attempt to continue and expand on the many programs of the Post. To that end I think we have been successful. I know that there no doubt were times when I possibly could have done more and perhaps there might have been times when I should have done a little less, but what ever I did, it represented an honest effort on my part to do what I felt was most beneficial for the Legion.

The success or failure of any organization is directly related to its regular membership. The cooperation I received from the active members was just great.

There were very few times when I asked anyone to do something that I was turned down and then it was usually for a good reason. Thank you all for the many hours of hard work you put in the support of our programs for the year.

Once again Blanchard Post, thank you all so much for giving me the privilege of having been your Commander and the attending pride that comes with having served in that office.
