WEXFORD LANDINGS

Eric Rine recently earned his tailwheel endorsement at Ace Basin Aviation in Walterboro, SC. He flew a Citabria, C120, and a Luscombe for the endorsement process. Ace Basin Aviation also has a Stearman.

PROGRESS AT WEXFORD LANDING

This spring we did soil testing and had lime spread on the airstrip to adjust the soil pH and help the turf.

MEET THE NEIGHBORS: THE OTTERBEIN FAMILY

We are Jeremiah, Bianca, and Reagan Otterbein (plus Shelby our 6-year-old Golden Retriever). We bought Lot 9 last year and are hoping to build within the next couple of years, until then, we will plant trees! We love to go camping, go to dirt track races, and go to Disney. At home it seems we are always in the middle of at least 3 projects. We are excited to be part of this community and can't wait to be here full time!

MEET THE NEIGHBORS: THE WILLIAMS FAMILY

We are the Williams Family: Dusty, Tiffany, Kara, and Claire. We have spent a lot of time in the Aiken area over the last 13 years with my daughters' involvement in the equestrian world. The town has always intrigued us, and for 1-2 years, we have looked for a house. Last fall we stumbled across a few options at Wexford and settled on Lot T. We couldn't be happier to have found this gem. We are planning on building a house and hangar sometime this summer. We live primarily in Savannah but will spend quite a bit of time in Aiken. I own a site construction company in Savannah, and Tiffany owns a renovation company here in Savannah also. The eldest girl attends Georgia Southern University, and the youngest is home schooled so they can travel more for horse shows. I have been flying since I was 16, although it took a much more mature 40-year-old to actually complete my license 3 years ago. I am instrument rated, and a stone's throw from completing commercial and multi. My oldest, Kara, is 5 hours from having her PPL as well. We have a Saratoga that will allow me to hop to and from Savannah. We can't wait to fly in to "home" there at Wexford and run to the Pizza Joint for pie and beer.

WEXFORD WIVES

The Wexford Wives met in December for a Christmas party at Dana's. We enjoyed a lovely evening, exchanged ornaments, and collected canned goods for the local food bank. Thanks to Dana for hosting!

BUNCO!

In January, the Wexford Wives took up a new pastime- Bunco! We gathered at Cece's house in January to learn the game and play a few rounds. It was so much fun that we had another Bunco party in February at Cherie's and in March at Dana's! A fun game with crazy hats and lots of good conversation! Thanks to Cece, Cherie, and Dana for hosting us!
