2021

November / December Where are you Christmas?

This year we took our Christmas dance to a next level by having an outdoor filming. Titled 'Where are you Christmas?', we hope to express and emphasize that while we are still under the pandemic restrictions and meeting our love ones could be difficult, love is constantly in our hearts and that doesn't change with time. As Christmas approaches and with the improving situation, hope is what we can hold on to. Let's keep a positive mindset and may our hearts be filled with family joy and warmth this Christmas!

Happy Children's Day!

SME 500 Award 2021

Business Resilience amidst COVID-19

We are thrilled to announce that Dance Runway has been awarded the Singapore's SME 500 Award 2021! The Award also serves as a yardstick where SMEs benchmark their business position and competitiveness against their competitors. It has been a challenging year but we are grateful for all the support of our parents, students and instructors.

"My daughter enjoyed every class with DRW, even on the few virtual classes she attended recently. We are able to understand her progress through virtual open house and regular interaction with the teachers. Well done!"

Giselle Ng's daddy

"My daughter has been with DRW since 2019. I am glad that the school provides her with rich opportunities to explore different genres of dance like classical ballet and contemporary. The school also provides exposures to competition on a National level, building up her stage confidence and anxiety management. I also appreciate that my daughter is selected for school filming events, enforcing her group identity amongst fellow dancers."
