
TAGSTER
MAKE THOSE MEMORIES

Discover Tagster

Tagster is a nature-based micro-adventure company in the Blue Mountains NSW Australia, specialising in uplifting outdoor experiences that combine mindfulness, nature immersion, and wellbeing.

Founded by Deon Kasper, Tagster blends mindfulness activities with nature immersion, by intentially leading guests at a slower pace to hidden waterfalls, breathtaking lookouts, and enchanting glow worm grottos.

Each journey may include gentle, guided, nature-immersed walks, breathwork, forest bathing, gratitude practices, and mindful charcoal drawing.

Every micro-adventure is carefully crafted to leave you feeling refreshed, grounded, and reconnected.

“It’s more than a destination”

Whether you’re a couple, a group of friends, a corporate group, or a family seeking something meaningful, Tagster’s experiences nurture wellbeing, inspire curiosity, and create lasting memories.

Nature Immersion with Mindfulness

We blend mindfulness with nature immersion, helping you slow down, engage your senses, and reconnect with both nature and yourself, leaving you refreshed, grounded, and present.
