Hello Parents,

Our days are getting shorter, the temperature is getting colder, and the leaves are changing color. Fall is here! It's hard to believe the holidays are almost here!

During the month of November, each year we celebrate Thanksgiving. This month's curriculum is focused on the family, North America, and Thanksgiving

A few reminders, as the weather gets colder, please remember to bring coats and hats for your child. Also please sign your child in and out daily. As always please don't hesitate to contact us with any questions, concerns, or suggestions you may have
