

Sample Sterile Processing Technician Resume

Michael Nguyen

Fremont, CA | (510) 555-2486 | mnguyen@email.com | LinkedIn.com/in/michaelnguyen

Professional Summary

Motivated and detail-oriented Sterile Processing Technician student with training in decontamination, sterilization procedures, infection prevention, and medical instrument processing. Knowledgeable in maintaining regulatory standards, assembling surgical instrument trays, and supporting patient safety through proper sterile processing practices.

Education

Silicon Valley Surgi-Tech Institute (SVSTI)
Sterile Processing Technician Program
Fremont, California
Expected Completion: August 2026

Relevant Coursework

Sterile Processing Fundamentals, Infection Control, Decontamination Procedures, Instrument Identification, Microbiology, Medical Terminology, Surgical Instrumentation

Clinical / Hands-On Training

Performed decontamination and cleaning of surgical instruments and medical equipment.
Inspected instruments for cleanliness, functionality, and damage.
Assembled and wrapped instrument trays according to department standards.
Operated sterilization equipment including steam autoclaves.
Maintained accurate sterilization logs and documentation.

Technical Skills

Instrument Decontamination, Tray Assembly, Steam Sterilization, Infection Prevention, Surgical Instrument Identification, Inventory Management

Certifications

Basic Life Support (BLS), CPR Certified, CRCST Exam Eligible Upon Program Completion

Work Experience

Warehouse Associate – Amazon Fulfillment Center, Newark, CA (2023–Present)
Maintained organization and accuracy in a fast-paced environment.
Followed strict safety and quality procedures.

Professional References

Available upon request.