

(Fri) Oct 24 ✠ Joel 1:1-20

O God, when the fields are bare and joy has withered, we turn to You with trembling hearts. Hear the lament of Your people and have mercy on the land, for even creation groans in sorrow. Amen.

(Sat) Oct 25 ✠ 1 Pet 4:12-19

Faithful God, when trials come, let us glorify You in every faithful act, trusting Your judgment and mercy. May we entrust our lives to You, our Creator, and continue to do good with unwavering hope.

(Sun) Oct 26 ✠ Lk 18:9-15

Merciful God, teach us to come before You with humble hearts. Let us not trust in our own righteousness, but rejoice that You lift up those who cry, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." Amen.

(Mon) Oct 27 ✠ Ps 87

Glorious God, Let our names be written among those who rejoice in Your presence, singing of Your steadfast love. May our hearts be rooted in Your holy city, where joy and life flow from You. Amen.

(Tue) Oct 28 ✠ 1 Pet 5:1-11

Good Shepherd, teach us to lead with humility, to serve with joy, and to cast all our anxieties upon You. Strengthen us to resist the enemy, firm in faith, trusting that suffering will not have the final word.

Restore us, confirm us, and establish us in Your eternal glory. Amen.

(Wed) Oct 29 ✠ Mt 21:28-32

Patient and merciful God, You see beyond our words to the truth of our hearts and actions. Help us not to rely on appearances or empty promises, but to live out Your will with humility and sincerity. May our lives bear the fruit of obedience, shaped by Your mercy and love. Amen.

(Thu) Oct 30 ✠ Ps 119:137-144

O Lord, Your commands are pure and trustworthy, a light in times of trouble. When distress surrounds us, let Your Word be our joy and wisdom, reviving our hearts with truth. Teach us to love Your statutes, for in them we find life everlasting. Amen.

October Readings & Prayers

-Steve & Cecilia Granadosin

Set aside a time every day to read the scripture and reflect on it.
Open your heart to what the Lord is saying and offer up a fervent prayer.

(Wed) Oct 1 ✠ Ps 119:49-56

O Lord, You are my hope and comfort that in every trial. Your goodness and care will always keep Your promises. Your faithfulness is my heritage and the light that guides me through the night. Amen.

(Thu) Oct 2 ✠ Jer 33:1-13

O God, speak light into our darkest places and promise joy where desolation once reigned. Call to us, and we will answer, trusting that Your plans are deeper than our understanding and more beautiful than our brokenness. We rejoice in your mercy and goodness. Amen.

(Fri) Oct 3 ✠ Mt 19:16-22

Lord Jesus, You see the longing in our hearts to do what is good and inherit eternal life. Help us not to cling to what we possess, but to follow You with surrendered lives. Teach us to trust Your invitation more than our comfort, and to walk with You even when the cost feels great. Amen.

(Sat) Oct 4 ✠ Lam 3:19-26

Faithful God, when grief and weariness weigh heavy, help us remember that Your mercies rise with each dawn and Your love never fails. Teach us to wait with quiet hope, trusting that You are good to those who seek You. In every season of sorrow, let Your steadfast presence be our portion and peace. Amen.

(Sun) Oct 5 ✠ Lk 17:5-10

Lord, increase our faith, that we may serve You with humility and trust, even when the task feels small or the reward unseen. Teach us to obey without seeking praise, knowing that we are simply doing what You have called us to do. May our hearts find joy in faithful service, rooted in love and sustained by grace. Amen.

(Mon) Oct 6 ✠ Ps 137

God of enduring love, we give thanks for Your wonders in creation, Your mighty acts in history, and Your tender care in every moment. From the rising sun to the deepest night, Your mercy never fails and Your faithfulness stretches across generations. Blessed be Your name, for Your steadfast love endures forever. Amen.

(Tue) Oct 7 ♦ Lam 1:16-22

Compassionate God, You see the tears we shed and the loneliness that burdens our hearts. Draw near with mercy, and do not turn away from our cries. Remember us with grace, for we are weary and we long for Your healing presence. Amen.

(Wed) Oct 8 ♦ James 1:2-11

Gracious God, when trials come and our footing feels uncertain, help us know You are shaping endurance and wisdom within us. Teach us to ask in faith, not doubting Your steadfast love. May we grow deeper in trust, rooted in Your eternal purposes. Amen.

(Thu) Oct 9 ♦ 1 Tim 1:13-18

Merciful Savior, You poured out grace beyond measure, turning our failures into testimonies of Your love. Thank You for the grace You revealed through Christ, who came to save even the worst of sinners for Your grace is sufficient and Your purpose is sure. Amen

(Fri) Oct 10 ♦ Ps III

Holy God, teach us to delight in Your commandments. May reverent awe lead us into wisdom, and praise be ever on our lips for your words are always right and true. Amen.

(Sat) Oct 11 ♦ Lev 14:33-53

God of cleansing and renewal, teach us to seek Your healing with humility and trust. Restore our homes and hearts through your blood of mercy. May Your presence dwell where once there was ruin, and may we walk in freedom, made whole by Your grace. Amen.

(Sun) Oct 12 ♦ Lk 17:11-19

Healing Savior, You see us in our need and respond with mercy. Teach us to return with grateful hearts, not just for the gift, but for the Giver. In gratitude, may we be bold and unashamed, always declaring Your goodness. Amen.

(Mon) Oct 13 ♦ Ps 102:1-17

Tender Lord, in our brokenness, hear our cries and lift us up that we may also know to show compassion to others. Rebuild what was torn; and restore hope to Your people, Oh Lord, we pray. Amen.

(Tue) Oct 14 ♦ Jer 29:8-23

O Lord, guard our hearts from false hopes and voices that lead us astray. Teach us to seek You with all our being, trusting that Your plans are for peace and not harm, for a future filled with hope. Even in exile or uncertainty, help us cling to Your truth and rest in Your unfailing presence. Amen.

(Wed) Oct 15 ♦ Acts 26:24-29

Lord Jesus, give us courage to speak with clarity and love. Let our witness be bold yet gentle, trusting that even kings and skeptics are within reach of Your grace. May all who hear become fully Yours. Amen.

(Thu) Oct 16 ♦ Ps 119:97-104

Loving God, Your law is my delight and my wisdom, sweeter than honey to my soul. Teach me to walk in Your truth, always discerning each step by the light of Your Word. Amen.

(Fri) Oct 17 ♦ Jer 26:16-24

Righteous God, grant us courage to stand firm in Your word even when the crowd cries out for harm. Let Your mercy preserve Your servants, and may Your justice shine through every trial. Amen.

(Sat) Oct 18 ♦ Mk 10:46-52

Jesus, have mercy on us when we cry out in despair. Even when others try to silence our voice, help us to persist in faith, trusting that You hear and will respond. Open our eyes to see Your healing power, and lead us into deeper discipleship and joyful praise. Amen.

(Sun) Oct 19 ♦ Lk 18:1-8

Faithful Judge, teach us to pray without losing heart, trusting You hear every cry. Strengthen us that we may be found faithful, watching and praying until Your kingdom comes. Amen.

(Mon) Oct 20 ♦ Ps 129

God of justice and endurance, though affliction has pressed hard upon us, You have not allowed it to prevail. You are our defender and hope. May we all dwell in Your steadfast love. Amen.

(Tue) Oct 21 ♦ Jer 39:1-18

God of deliverance, rescue us when we act with compassion and speak truth in dangerous times. Let Your promises be our refuge, and Your mercy our shield. May we find safety not in walls or power, but in Your steadfast love. Amen.

(Wed) Oct 22 ♦ Lk 22:39-46

Loving Father, teach us to watch and pray, even when weariness tempts us to sleep, that we may not fall into despair or forget Your presence. Strengthen us in moments of anguish, trusting Your will even when the path is steep. Amen.

(Thu) Oct 23 ♦ Ps 65

Lord of All, You crown the year with abundance and water the earth with Your goodness. From morning's hush to evening's song, all creation rejoices in Your care. Teach us to praise You with grateful hearts, for You hear our prayers and fill us with hope. Amen.
