

in peace. Use us that all may know mercy and grace. We give you all honor and glory and praise for in You, all things are possible. Amen.

(Mon) June 23 ♦ Psalm 59:16-17

Surely, I will sing of your might; I will sing aloud of your steadfast love in the morning. For you have been a fortress for me and a refuge in the day of my distress. You, O Lord are my comfort and my peace. Amen.

(Tue) June 24 ♦ Eph 2:17-22

O Jesus, you came to bring peace that we may all be able to come in one Spirit to the Father. You call us your children - we are no longer strangers and aliens. We have been built into foundation of the apostles and prophets, with You as the cornerstone, into a holy dwelling place for God. Thank you for loving us though we do not deserve your great love. Amen.

(Wed) June 25 ♦ Luke 9:37-43a

Why are we afraid of your healing and of your miracles when all you desire is for us to experience your peace. O Jesus, teach us to trust in you with all our hearts that we may turn away from evil and be healed by your love. Amen.

(Thu) June 26 ♦ Psalm 77:11-15

O Lord, I remember your great and wonderful deeds. It is a joy to meditate on your works for your way, is holy. You are great, indeed, and worthy of all praise!

(Fri) June 27 ♦ Galatians 4:8-20

Jesus, Our Lord. We thank you for the words of Paul who sought to follow you in your ways of sacrificial love. He did not turn away from pain but he labored for others until Christ is formed in them. Give us servant hearts that we too might learn to give of ourselves for others. Amen.

(Sat) June 28 ♦ Psalm 16

We thank you, O Lord for your counsel. Our hearts are glad, our souls rejoice in you, and our bodies rest secure. The ways of this world are winding and perilous but you show us the path of life. In your presence, there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures evermore. Amen.

(Sun) June 29 ♦ Luke 9:51-62

O Lord, you sacrificed yourself to the point of death upon the cross. Teach us to follow you wholeheartedly, to turn away from evil, and never look back, and instead look to the hope of eternal life with you. Amen.

(Mon) June 30 ♦ 2 Kings 2:15-22

God of all generations, we pray that our children's children will find us faithful. May they see us as examples of people who have been changed and molded by you. May they see you at work in us. Amen.

June Readings & Prayers

- Steve & Cecilia Granadosin

Set aside a time every day to read the scripture, reflect on the reading, open up your heart to what the Lord is saying to you, and offer up a fervent prayer.

(Sun) June 1 ♦ Acts 16:16-34

You said that if we believe in you, even our household will be saved. We trust in your word so we lift up our loved ones to you. Because of your faithfulness, we know the peace and assurance of salvation through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

(Mon) June 2 ♦ Psalm 29

Glory to you, O Lord! Your power is beyond measure. Only you can sustain us in our daily struggles so we pray as the Psalmist prays, "May the Lord give strength to his people! May the Lord bless his people with peace!"

(Tue) June 3 ♦ Exodus 40:16-38

Our life is an Exodus, filled with danger and the unknown. You guide our every step. May our eyes be opened to your pillars of cloud and fire that we may not be led astray by the powers of this world. Help us focus our eyes on you, our God and Redeemer. Amen.

(Wed) June 4 ♦ Luke 9:18-27

Truly, Jesus, we often question why we need to take up our cross and follow you, especially when the going gets tough and when the world calls us to follow its ways instead of yours. Teach us the way of sacrificial love that we may gain eternal life in your everlasting presence, and the glory of the Father. Amen.

(Thu) June 5 ♦ Psalm 104:24-34

Creator, Sustainer, Redeemer, Giver of Eternal Life, we depend on you. My life is in You, so I will sing praise to You, while I have breath. May my meditation be pleasing to You, for I rejoice in You, my Lord. Amen.

(Fri) June 6 ♦ Isaiah 44:1-4

O Lord, our help comes from you so I will not fear but only serve you. Your ways are wonderful and by your blessings, you have sustained us yesterday, today, and you will sustain the generations ahead of us. We praise you for your faithfulness. Amen.

(Sat) June 7 ♦ Galatians 6:7-10

Jesus, who endured the deepest betrayals, intense pain, and even death, teach us never to grow weary in doing what is right that we may work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith. When strength fails, when faith falters, when hope dims, pour your Spirit on us that we may be renewed. Amen.

(Sun) June 8 ♦ John 14:8-17

Dear Jesus, our Christ, you said, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." We are so sinful and frail in the face of sin so we ask only that your Spirit teach us everything that in obeying, we may receive peace. Amen.

(Mon) June 9 ♦ Psalm 48

O Lord, whose glory is in His steadfast love, we lift your name even to the ends of the earth. From generation to generation, you are God, the God who guides us into eternity. Praise your holy name. Amen.

(Tue) June 10 ♦ Ezekiel 11:14-25

Though this sinful world divides us by your goodness and grace in Jesus Christ, you gather us together and you put a new Spirit in us. Remove our hearts of stone and give us hearts that love with your love, that we may follow in your will and your ways. Praise to you, our God!

(Wed) June 11 ♦ Luke 1:26-38

O Jesus, you overcame sin and death; and in your resurrection, we now know nothing is impossible with you. When we are perplexed, confused and when all seems lost, we know that by your power, we can say, 'Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.' Amen.

(Thu) June 12 ♦ Psalm 8

O Lord, our God, how glorious is your name in all the earth! Your great creation surrounds us. Though we do not deserve your goodness, still you care for us and You gave your only Son for our sakes. O Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! Holy and pure and glorious is your name. Amen.

(Fri) June 13 ♦ Proverbs 3:19-26

O Holy Spirit, the source of true wisdom, you give us treasure far beyond material things. You give us peace that surpasses understanding. In gratitude, we open our hearts, our ears and our minds to you that we may live in joy with you forever more. Amen.

(Sat) June 14 ♦ Ephesians 4:1-6

Because you have called us into newness of life by your Spirit, we pray that by the same Spirit, we may live lives worthy of the calling to which you called us. May we live in humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. May we, your people, be united in body and Spirit because in our shared faith we look to the same hope of your calling. Praise your name that is above all and through all and in all.

(Sun) June 15 ♦ John 16:12-15

Thank you, O Lord for your Spirit of truth who comes to guide us into all the truth. He whispers to us your promises and glorifies You. May His words be our light and our guide as we walk through life's journeys. Amen.

(Mon) June 16 ♦ Psalm 124

Thank you dear Lord for your protection over our loved ones and over us. No fire or flood, no rain or drought, no sickness, no enemy, not even death can destroy your flock, your mighty hand covers us in peace and in love. Praise You, O Creator of heaven and earth, Ruler of all. Amen.

(Tue) June 17 ♦ Eph 5:15-20

We thank you, Lord for reminding us to live as enlightened people, always giving thanks to you, giving praise to you, not just in word or song but more so in how we live.

(Wed) June 18 ♦ Luke 1:46b-50

O Lord, we want to obey you so we now use Mary's words as we answer your call for us to follow you: "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on his humble servant. Surely from now on all generations will call me blessed, for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name; indeed, his mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation." Glory to you, O Lord!

(Thu) June 19 ♦ Psalm 42:1-3

O Savior, we are as deer that pant for your life-giving streams of water. We thirst for your living presence for we have, of late, fed on grief and tears day and night. We remember how you took your people out of slavery and saved them from the deep waters of the Red Sea. We especially lift up your name for your gift of salvation on the cross of forgiveness. Amen.

(Fri) June 20 ♦ Psalm 42:11

Our souls are downcast and we are troubled but you have known our troubles and you have shown us that you are faithful though we may have forgotten what you have done for us. Because you gave your Beloved Son for our sakes, we are not afraid to put all our hope in you. In this time of crisis that can easily drown us in fear and dash us against the rock of unbelief, we continue to praise you and look to the fulfillment of your promise of Salvation from all that we face for you are our hope, our Savior and our God. Amen.

(Sat) June 21 ♦ Matthew 9:27-31

Have mercy on us, Son of David for we are blind in so many ways. Often our faith waivers but we know that in you, we will find strength. Touch the eyes of our hearts that they may be opened to your eternal truths. Amen.

(Sun) June 22 ♦ Luke 8:26-49

Merciful Father, we come to you experiencing loss, plagued with the spirit of evil, and seeking shelter beneath your wings. We know we can only find peace in you. Show us miracles that we may overcome our mourning and sorrow and be your face, your hands and your feet for all who hurt and all who suffer for it is your desire that may come to live
