

Lullabies Boutique
Mommy & Me Consignment

Consignor Agreement

Welcome to the Lullabies Family! We are so excited that you are consigning your goods with us! Thank you!

We accept consignment during regular store hours. When you drop off your items, clothing should be folded neatly in a kitchen-sized garbage bag and labeled with your name and phone number. This allows us to assign your items to your account. If we cannot determine the owner of the clothing dropped off, due to lack of identification, it will automatically become the property of Lullabies Boutique.

When picking up baby essentials, i.e., strollers, infant seats, swings, etc., you may bring them assembled and no bag or wrapping needed. These items will be checked against the recall list as well as inspected to make sure they work properly. They should be free of any damage that will render them useless and not consignable.

All items will be inspected by staff for signs of wear and quality. Any clothing found to be in 'less than perfect shape', (stains, tears, pulls, holes, etc.) will be donated. We are very selective during this process, and we want to make sure every customer has an exceptional shopping experience.

- ❖ Items must be in new or nearly new condition,
- ❖ Clothing should be free of lint, pilling, pulls, pet hair, deodorant, formula stains, and no holes.
- ❖ All buttons and zippers must be attached and in working order.
- ❖ The items should be new with tags or freshly laundered. Most important, ODOR FREE.

The consigned item will be available for purchase for 60 days and remain on display during that time. Any unsold items may be reclaimed by the consignor. You have the option to donate the clothing which will be forwarded to a local donation company. At any time, if an item is found broken, stained, or missing parts, it will be donated and not available for sale. We do our best to safeguard consigned items, however, we are not responsible for items that are stolen, misplaced, lost, or damaged.

Any items that do not sell, and are not picked up, within 7 days, after the 60-day term, will become the property of Lullabies Boutique.

Consignor Payday

We strive to get you the most money possible for your items while still offering our customers a great deal. The staff takes this seriously, and they price all items as fair as possible. There will be no negotiating on pricing. Lullabies Boutique tracks consigned items in a computerized inventory software system. When an item sells, your commission is credited to your account immediately.

We offer two options for receiving payment:

- ❖ Pickup checks in person at 40% commission; or
- ❖ Have your check mailed at 40% commission plus $1.50 mailing fee.

If you choose to come in and decide to shop, you will receive an additional 10% discount on items purchased against your account balance.
