The SouthEast Harvest Festival, the premier annual event for Sustainable Agriculture and Gardening Eurobodalla (SAGE), will be held at Moruya Showgrounds on Friday and Saturday, March 31- April 1.

This year it is a wonderful co-creation with the local Walbunja community with the theme "From First Farmers to Future Harvests".

On the Friday evening from 5.30pm - the festival kicks off with the Chew The Fat forum at SAGE garden.

On the Saturday from 9am, the journey continues at the free day-long festival at Moruya Showgrounds.

Among the highlights is a talk by Bruce Pascoe, senior Bunurong/Yuin man on the roots of agriculture in times of our First Farmers and his ideas for the future.
