When questions or comments arise about our services, we ask that you contact us through Clio for Clients. This is a secure web and mobile app that keeps you connected with our law firm for fast, efficient information and document sharing anytime, anywhere. Using the portal, our firm may need to send you documents to review and sign electronically. Most legal documents will need to be reviewed and signed in our office, often with witnesses and/or a notary public, which we have on staff. And while staff will be available to assist you and answer general questions, please remember they cannot provide you with legal advice.

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service to you and your family.
