September Yard-of-the-Month

September's yard of the month is a cute home just inside our neighborhood. They have been working hard in it for years picking plants that make the yard flow and never thought they would get picked. It has been a trying summer but they have been working hard to keep it up making the neighborhood a better place to be.

