Fight Of The Night

Combat Sports Coverage pick for fight of the night awards goes to the main fighters for having a 10 round war. Which was an absolutely back and forth championship title fight between these top boxers.

My Key Take Aways

This event really showed women's boxing is really starting to become main stream with half these professional boxing fights on this card were women and had a females world title fight as the headliner. Also nothing is wrong with a draws. It's better than screwing over a fighter. So I was happy to see them.

Roy Jones Jr Boxing Event

Roy Jones JR Boxing Promotion held an amazing free professional boxing event August 2, 2019 in LAS VEGAS at Thomas & Mack center home to the UNLV Rebels Basketball team. Which was a very exciting action packed night of world class boxing. Brought to you live on UFC Fight Pass.

In the main event we saw Finland's WBO champion Eva Wahlstrom (22-1-1) vs Ronica Jeffrey (17-1) fight for the super featherweight Title. Which was a very exciting action packed world class boxing match showing off how great both these female boxer are. It was a very close back and forth 10 round fight. Jeffrey started off very strong landing power punches and showed that she is very explosive inside the ring. In the later rounds we saw the more experience boxer Eva starting to pick up her fight pace and find her mark for her quick combo punches. By the end of the fight both boxer had cuts from each other punches. Truly a great back and forth war from these champions, The fight was ruled a draw but the crowned did seem to agree.

In the Co Main Event we saw two very talented boxing prospects in local Las Vegas fighter Ravshan Hudaynazarov (17-1 with 11 KOs) vs Texas fighter John Vera (18-1 with 11 KOs). With both boxers coming in with high level competition and knock out power. In this fight we saw Hudaynazarov start off very strong landing power punches and looking for a early knock out. But the Texas native Vera showed he has a great chin and stayed in the fight and started to pick park his opponent with his own power punches that came behind a beautiful jab. It was a great 6 round war, where Vera really started to pull ahead in the later rounds and take this fight by Unanimous decision.

PROSPECT'S ALERT

You definitely want to keep your eyes on these top upcoming boxing Prospects that showed up and put on a brilliant display of boxing and showed that they our ready for the next step in there boxing careers.

Former Bare Knuckles boxing title challenger Britain Hart and undefeated boxer Jamie Mitchell put on a very exciting back and forth war. It was a classic power vs speed bout with both boxers showing what they are made of. Jamie was landing some heavy punches though out the whole fight. But Hart showed her heart and stayed in Jamie's face with punches and bunches. Which ended in a draw and I totally agreed with the judges on this call.

We also saw Las Vegas owns Trevor Covington vs heavy hitter Ming Freeman. Which was Trevor's professional boxing debut, but you would have never thought that about him. He was very composed for a debut fighter and seemed like he's been a pro for years. He took some big punches in the first round from Freeman , which he didn't seem to raddled him at all. Covington stayed very composed without the fight and landed some beautiful combos on Freeman. Trevor Covington won by DEC.
