President's Pen

Meg Raatz
info@qgghouston.org

Welcome to September, and what is usually a busy month at my house. We have 5 family birthdays; plus, high school band is in full swing.

What have you been working on this month? I'm trying to finish a quilt top that I want to enter in our Joy of Quilts show. Anyone who knows me, understands that this is a Big Deal. First of all, I don't often get my quilts to the finish line. And secondly, I forget to enter or I don't know how. I'm not going to let that stop me this year, and I hope you will all enter a quilt too!

SPECIAL ELECTION

Tuesday, September 6 7 pm, ZOOM

All members invited!
Nomination Committee
and Election Committee for the 2023 Board.

Committee members cannot serve on the Board

Please join the rest of the Board on Tuesday, September 6 at 7pm on Zoom for a Special Election as part of the Board meeting. We need a quorum of members (at least 22) to hold an election that will create our Nomination and Election Committees.

What do these committees do? Every fall, a group of 5 Guild members prepares a slate of at least one nominee for each Board office. This slate, plus a brief biography of each nominee, is published in the October newsletter. An Election Committee of 3 Guild members (these can be from the Nomination Committee) conducts the actual election at the November regular business meeting. This committee also creates an absentee ballot to be published in the November newsletter. Any member who cannot attend the regular business meeting may choose to vote using the absentee ballot. Here's an interesting tidbit – if you serve on one of these committees, you are automatically ineligible to be on the Board!

Volunteer Opportunities—Help Wanted

Throughout the year we have the opportunity to share our love of quilting with others in the community, highlight our talents and grow the number of people who appreciate our art. This section is dedicated to ensuring that you have the opportunity to use your talents and skills and provides an “at a glance” for convenience.

Charity Quilt Day

Including myself, we had 21 attendees at Charity Quilt Day on July 30, 2022. It was a great day. Some participants came early, some later. Some had to leave early, others were able to stay to the very end.

As well as working on the provided kits, some participants brought their own projects. In addition, we had a constant flow of members come for a visit. Most could not participate in the day, but dropped off completed Comforter projects and then stayed to visit for a while.

It was a fun day, it seemed like a community event that everyone enjoyed. One person, overachiever, Tina Morriss completed her quilt top that day. I have since received other completed tops. See the accompanying pictures.

Thanks to everyone who attended Charity Quilt Day. We will plan to meet again next year!

This month Comforters donated quilts and pillowcases to Sleep In Heavenly Peace. 25 of those pillowcases were made by retreaters. So cute: thank you. They were greatly appreciated. We also gave quilts to Ronald McDonald House and Halo House.

I want to thank Sheila Glover and Marsha Hennigan for taking care of Comforters for the August morning meeting in my absence. I appreciate what all of you do for Comforters, sometimes behind the scenes and without much acknowledgement. I know what you do and I am very grateful as are the recipients of these wonderful Comforter quilts.

Final Chair positions are all filled!! Thank you to all of the terrific members who have agreed to guide each of the vital pieces of the show.

Each of our in-person meetings this fall (evening and morning) will be “command central” for Joy of Quilts activity. Do try to attend so that you can participate fully in all that is going on. If you are attending meetings via Zoom, ask a friend to drop off items, sign you up, etc. or, contact me or the listed chairperson to do the same!

- Volunteer Sign-up Sheets (Janis LaRoque) are available for the nearly 200 time slots that need to be filled by volunteers for the week of the show.
- The Boutique Committee (Elaine White, Audrey Lynn, Amy Theall) will be collecting your finished projects or if you prefer, providing kits that you can pick up to finish!
- Tin Can Raffle (Carol Hanley Garcia) Do you buy too many packages of pre-cuts? Have any you no longer will use for that project you no longer want to make? Packaged pre-cuts are the perfect item to donate for the Tin Can Raffle. They can be coordinated and bundled in so many different ways or added to other “almost finished” baskets. So look through your hiding places and if you find any you are willing to donate, bring them along to the next meeting.
- Advance Sale Admission Tickets (Kathie Williams) Beginning in September they are being sold in packs of 10 ($100 non-refundable). Any member who takes 10 for resale or gifts, will received one ticket for free. This is a huge way that you can help with the show and get a ticket for yourself at no charge! With our quilt show being held in January, think about the people to whom you may be able to gift a ticket for a holiday gift! Co-workers, neighbors, friends and family are all opportunities to encourage interest in and attendance at our show.

Online Auction for the 2023 Joy of Quilts Show

We are doing something different in 2023. Something we've never tried before. An Online Auction to go along with our Quilt show is replacing our previous Live Auctions! I will need help with tasks closer to time. The auction will be from January 22, 2023 to February 1, 2023. Turn in date for Auction Quilts will be January 17, 2023 at our Evening Meeting. Fees are $10 for a quilt to be judged and auctioned. No fee for quilts that are Auction Only.

Get busy on those quilts! I know it's been a while since we've had a show. Bees and members, check your closets! Did you have some quilts ready for auction in 2021? Were they WIPs (works in progress)? It's time to make them Finished Objects! Next month I will have more details to share.

Learn to Quilt Booth

International Quilt Festival is approaching.

The dates are Wednesday, Nov. 2(Preview Night) through November 6, 2022.

Did you know the Learn to Quilt Booth at Festival originated 45 years ago and was initiated by the QGGH. We have sparked the love of quilting for over 3000 people that have joined us in this booth. The purpose of the Booth is to teach the basics of quilt making to the students who want to learn and help them learn enough to get them started. Our “students” are given a kit with necessary supplies and walk away from the booth with a finished small quilt, an understanding of the basics of quilt making, and a smile on their face. We serve children through senior adults. PLEASE CONSIDER VOLUNTEERING YOUR TIME BY WORKING ONE OR MORE SHIFTS DURING FESTIVAL. It is so much FUN and you will be blessed.

Volunteers are needed to help set up the booth, work in the booth during Festival, and to help take the Booth down on Sunday at closing. If you would like to volunteer, contact Donna M. Pyle, by e-mail (donnampyle@hotmail.com), telephone (713-772-8261), or text (713-854-5316).

Yippee! This year we have two County buses for Quilt Festival on Thursday, November 3 and Friday, November 4, 2022.

The buses are scheduled to leave Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church at 9:00 AM and scheduled to leave the George R Brown Convention Center at 7:15 PM both days. Yes, we will park and leave from Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church. Please park near the brown painted MDPC Scout House near the Memorial Drive (westside), Parking Lot C. LTQ Volunteers – Please remember to get your volunteer badge as soon as you get in the Convention Center. Show your badge and you don't have to wait in the long lines to get into the Show.

If you volunteer any day Wednesday through Sunday at the QGGH Learn-To-Quilt Booth, you get to ride free. If you're not volunteering at the LTQ Booth, then it's only $3 round trip. You don't have to be a QGGH member to ride the bus, but you do have to be 50 years old or older (Harris County rule). This is a great deal because you don't have to fight the downtown traffic and the bus will drop you off and pick you up across the street at the hotel. Take the elevator, stairs, or escalator up to Convention Center. IF YOU LEAVE QF EARLY PLEASES TEXT ME (713-885-1887), so we don't worry about you.

Bus sign-up sheets will be available at the September and October morning and night meetings at the LTQ volunteer sign-up table. If you sign up for the bus then have to cancel, please let me know.

Hope to see you at Quilt Fest!

Meeting September 20, 2022 7 p.m.

Janice Schindeler "Every Quilt Tells a Story"

Location: In Person

For QGGH member Janice Schindeler quilting has become a form of storytelling and of recording current events - both personal and political. It all began in Australia in 1996 when invited to attend a one day quilting class. From that moment on she was hooked on quilting, taking classes that focused on original designs and learning the geometry of pattern. She has delved into 3D interactive quilts, modern quilting and spent the last 10 years or so working in the folk art style of Sue Spargo and heavily influenced by the folk art appliqué work of South America. She firmly believes that we all have stories worthy of being memorialized in a story quilt. Come and be inspired!

Meeting October 18, 2022 7 p.m.

Patricia Belyea "The Alluring World of Japanese Yukata Quilts"

Location: In Person

Mother/Daughter duo and Okan Arts' co-owners Patricia Belyea and Victoria Stone are mesmerized by the beauty of Japanese textiles, they are makers of creative quilts, teachers, and speakers.

Their West Coast business imports vintage textiles from Japan and runs an online gallery representing national quilters.

Join Patricia as she takes you on an insider tour of the 2020 Tokyo Quilt Festival. Patricia presents the highlights of this international quilt event, then continues onto a traditional chusen-dyeing workshop to explain this traditional hand-dyeing process.

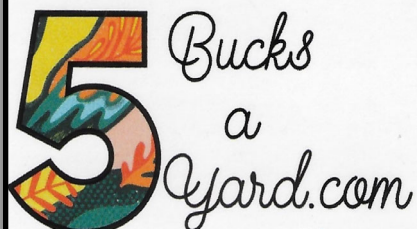

Patricia finishes with a show of her own quilts, made with vintage Japanese cottons, and talks about how these special fabrics inspired her.

Are you a little fearful of reaching outside of your comfort zone with color? Do you often wonder what's missing in your top? Have you ever looked at another quilter's work and thought, "I wish I could mix my colors like that." What are they doing differently that you feel you haven't grasped? How would you like to be more confident with color?

Penni is the owner of Cabin in the Woods Quilters, a quilt pattern design company established in 2003 and located in Fredericksburg, Virginia. She will demystify the color-picking process so that our quilts come to life. Cabinquilters.com Cathedral Window by Lucille Stubblefield made in the 1970s? Made entirely by hand, this was my grandmother's proudest accomplishment. Shoo Fly by Elsie Lillian Ahnen made in the 1930's for her family. When received for restoration, the quilt had a large hole in the middle of it – every row had a block or piece of a block missing, the quilting was also 75% missing. I lifted off the quilting, remade 16 blocks, replaced damaged parts on others. I found fabric in Etsy shops that sell vintage fabric in order to keep the era of the quilt. I do have permission from the owner for the long arm quilting that I will do.

Charmed Squares made in 2022 for Al and his mining truck. This was from a class taken at Quilter's Emporium. Very simple and went together quickly since just half square triangles

Elizabeth Fisher

Red Sunflower – Made for Joy of Quilting Boutique. This is UFO#4. This UFO was from last year's quilt festival. I took a class and didn't particularly like the teacher's methods and it was so hard to finish, but now it's done and I don't have to use her method again.

I also completed this quilt in July. It is an A&M quilt made with A&M fabrics. Also, XL Twin. Made for a friend who has a child entering A&M. I had hoped to make some college quilts for at least three other friends, but ran out of time!

Susan Boyd

Roaring Bear Pattern I made for my son, Derek who is off to college. The pattern is from Hobby Landing and is foundation paper pieced. It was modified to be in color, rather than black and white, and to be an XL Twin size instead of square. I finished it in July.

Susan Boyd

This one was the 2022 RBD block challenge by Riley Blake Designs. I must've completed it around July. It is probably for me.

"In a Flash" by Fabric Café. Made August 2022 for a cousin in Louisiana. This is UFO#6 – a lap quilt using 3 yards purchased at a quilt shop in Bandera. Quilted with my walking foot.

"Cottage Star" Made July 2022 for my sister-in-law. A Villa Rosa Design - some fabric came from my stash, some from here and there. Quilted with my walking foot.

Seeing In Color (sponsored by the Lucille Gaebler Klein Fund)

September 1 – December 18, 2022

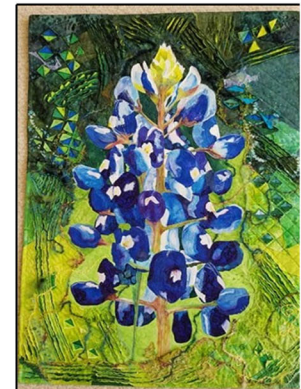

For the first time since the 2011 opening of the Texas Quilt Museum, a display cycle will be dedicated to a single exhibit—but what an exhibit it is! Visitors will be able to view all the accepted entries from the Museum's first-ever juried exhibit, Seeing in Color. It will run September 1-December 18, 2022 and is partially supported by the Lucille Gaebler Klein Fund.

We Are One by Georgia Williams of Houston, Texas

A call went out last year for entries, and artists from all over the world submitted more than 150 works. From that list, Museum co-founders Karey Bresenhan and Nancy O'Bryant juried it down to 52, all of which will be on display. Seeing in Color celebrates the huge role that different shades and hues play in our lives and is sure to be one of the most important and creative exhibits that the Museum has ever showcased.

The call was open to both art quilts and traditional quilts and asked the quiltmakers to submit quilts reflecting their idea of color and how they "see" it.

Bluebonnets by Dorothy Tiffany of Laurel, Maryland

Deep in the Heart (detail) by Hope Wilmarth of Houston, Texas.

"The quilt images submitted were awe inspiring," says Museum Curator Vicki Mangum. "The jurors had a difficult time selecting the quilts that are included. We are sure everyone will enjoy this engaging display of colorful quilts. They truly are stunning."

As the entry form notated, "Color plays a huge role in our lives. Color reflects our joys and sorrows. Reveals the ripeness of the fruits and vegetables we eat and sets the mood of our homes. Color surrounds us, enfolds us, cheers us, protects us, and delights us."
