Paxton Family Dental Discount Program

An affordable alternative to dental insurance

For many, dental insurance simply isn't an option. Perhaps you're out of work. Maybe your employer doesn't offer any dental insurance coverage, leaving you on your own. If you've checked out the individual dental insurance market, you know that many of the plans offered are not only expensive, but littered with limitations. It can make you wonder if the insurance is worth having in the first place!

Thankfully, there is another way: A dental discount plan that is affordable, focuses on preventive care, and removes the headaches of dealing with the insurance companies!
