

TRILOGY

Joyful Jazz for the Masses

Jodi Proznick, bass; Miles Black, piano; Bill Coon, guitar

Triology is a supergroup of three award winning Canadian jazz musicians – Jodi Proznick on bass, Miles Black on piano and Bill Coon on guitar.

They have joined forces to form one of Canada's finest jazz trios. All three of the members have won numerous accolades over the years including JUNO nominations, National Jazz Awards, Galaxie Rising Star Awards and Western Canadian Music Awards and have shared the stage with jazz legends such as George Coleman, David "Fathead" Newman, Ed Thigpen, Clark Terry, Max Roach, Sheila Jordan and Harry "Sweets" Edison.

They have been featured as part of the VIM Music at the Firehall series, the Vancouver International Jazz Festival, the Gordon Smith Gallery Music Series, the Fort Langley Jazz Festival, Jazz on the Wing (Whitehorse, YK), BuckingJam Palace (Calgary, AB), Yardbird Suite (Edmonton, AB), Charles Bailey Theater (Traill, BC), Selkirk College (Nelson, BC), Norman Rothstein Theatre (Oscar Peterson Tribute Concert), Muzewest Concert Series, Townsite Jazz Festival (Powell River, BC), Vogue Theater, Pyatt Hall, Jazz Waves at the Silk Purse, the Chan Center for the Performing Arts, Frankie's Jazz Club and Blue Frog Studios and have collaborated with many ensembles and artists such as musica intima, Kwantlen First Nation Warrior Spirit, Grammy nominated jazz violinist Mads Tolling and many others.

Formed in 2008 and fashioned after the great early jazz trios of Nat King Cole and Oscar Peterson, they perform wonderful impromptu arrangements of classic standards and original tunes.
