Boardman Arts Park: Paula Moore and Mindy Hedges Join Team

Boardman Arts Park, Where Community and Creativity Meet

Boardman Arts Park is pleased to introduce two new board members. Mindy Hedges and Paula Moore have joined the team dedicated to further developing Boardman Arts Park and connecting the community through creative experiences and unique events.

“The experience that Paula and Mindy bring to the Arts Park team is fabulous!” says Roxanne Amidon, Executive Director of Boardman Arts Park.

Mindy Hedges brings a wealth of experience in marketing and communications to Boardman Arts Park. After working as a Vice President for an advertising agency, Hedges served as President of her own business for over 20 years. Her knowledge of strategic and analytical development of business plans is directly applicable to the growing Arts Park!

Paula Moore joins the board as Treasurer, bringing over 30 years of accounting and tax experience. Moore holds a Master’s in Accounting from Southern New Hampshire University and is a Senior Tax Manager at Maloney + Navotny. Her professional achievements also include teaching U.S. taxation to international staff in the Philippines and Mexico. In her free time, she enjoys reading, quilting, gardening, and spending time with family.

The addition of Mindy Hedges and Paula Moore to the board aligns with a period of momentum at Boardman Arts Park, with new events offered this season alongside annual traditions, and exciting installations taking shape.
