Boardman Arts Park: Free Events to Kick Off the Summer Season
Boardman Arts Park, Where Community and Creativity Meet

Boardman Arts Park is kicking off their summer event season with two free community events!

Mark your calendars now for the start of Boardman Arts Park's summer season! Boardman Arts Park is excited to offer two events free to the community –an OWU A Cappella Concert on April 23 and a May Day Celebration on May 1.

On April 23 from 2-4:00 PM, Boardman Arts Park will once again be hosting A Cappella groups from Ohio Wesleyan University for an afternoon concert. The groups performing are: The Jaywalkers, an all-men's group, The OWtsiders, a co-ed group, Pitch Black, an all-women's group, and new to Boardman Arts Park, Go Four Broke. The audience can expect an hour of high energy and uplifting song! The song selection will include a variety of old and new favorites from different genres.

Join us for the second annual May Day Celebration on May 1 from 12-1:30 PM! The Woodward Elementary School 3rd graders, led by Delaware City Schools music teacher Amanda Rederstorff, will be performing the May Pole dance. Boardman Arts Park is pleased to host this revival of a May Day tradition that took place at Boardman School in the 1940s/50s. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about the cultural significance of May Day and to witness the talents of our local youth.

Both events are free and open to the public, with free popcorn and for purchase, treats from the Ciao Café cart. Guests are encouraged to bring a lawn chair or a blanket and enjoy the talents of our Delaware young people!

"Boardman Arts Park is please to bring a wide variety of unique arts and entertainment to Delaware," says Roxanne Amidon, director of the Park, "There is something for everyone!" To learn more, visit Boardman Arts Park on Facebook and Instagram and at boardmanartspark.org. Boardman Arts Park is busy preparing for the summer season which will include:
