Boardman Arts Park: Ghost Walk- Haunted Historic Delaware
Boardman Arts Park, Where Community and Creativity Meet

Move over, Paranormal Activity... Delaware, Ohio has ghosts of its own! On Saturday, September 30, Boardman Arts Park is pulling back the curtain on the most haunted streets in the Northwest Neighborhood.

Only a few spaces remain in the Ghost Walk tours offered at 5:00, 6:00, 7:00, and 8:00 PM on Saturday, September 30! If you dare, venture into some of the most haunted streets in Delaware's Northwest Neighborhood. On your tour, you will hear actual ghost accounts from residents where the spirits reside. The walk begins at Boardman Arts Park, located at 154 W. William Street, and features 8 stops, including a tour of Delaware's Victorian Jail. Before or after your tour, have your fortune read by The Tarot Fairy (6:00-8:30 PM), and enter for a chance to win a raffle prize, donated by local businesses.

"After 6 years, the Ghost Walk is back haunting the streets and houses of the Northwest Neighborhood," says Roxanne Amidon, Director of Boardman Arts Park, "Prepare to be scared!"

The tour is approximately a 2-mile walk and runs about 1.5 hours. Tickets are $25/each and must be purchased online in advance; the ticket link can be found at boardmanartspark.com/ghost-walk.

Missed your chance to take a tour? No problem -Boardman Arts Park is still seeking volunteers for the event! Help set up or tear down the party at the Park, accompany a tour as a storyteller or guide, or perhaps most fun of all, play a ghost! Volunteer details can be found on boardmanartspark.com/ghost-walk, or email the event team at director@boardmanartspark.org.

Proceeds from Ghost Walk will benefit Boardman Arts Park, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization in the heart of Delaware, Ohio. The Park is funded by the Ohio Arts Council, and through grants and community support, they are able to offer low cost and free events. Ghost Walk is sponsored by Willow Brook Christian Communities.
