The Boardman Arts Park: Special Donation from Meijer

The Boardman Arts Park, Where Community and Creativity Meet

As kickoff for The Imagination Project begins, the Boardman Arts Park has received a special donation from Meijer.

Meijer Store #249 of Delaware has generously donated a $750 gift card to the Boardman Arts Park toward the kickoff of the Park's "Imagination Project".

In 2021, the Boardman Arts Park's "Imagination Project" vision is to convert the aging basketball courts into a lush green space with fun, interactive and whimsical art pieces throughout. The space will feature a wildflower maze, raised flowerbeds with seating walls, trees, lighting, a water feature, benches, and a unique children's play area. The Boardman Arts Park is grateful for the support of the community and businesses like Meijer. Roxanne Amidon, Director of the Boardman Arts Park: "The support of our local Meijer store has been very meaningful to our project," says Roxanne Amidon, Director of the Boardman Arts Park, "Their commitment to community projects is so appreciated."
