Boardman Arts Park: Princesses, Superheroes and K-Pop Stars Interactive Show

Boardman Arts Park, Where Community and Creativity Meet

On Friday, July 10th, Boardman Arts Park will transform into a world of Princesses, Superheroes, and K-Pop Stars for an unforgettable interactive stage show designed just for kids and their families!

This free community event will feature lively music, dancing, and interactive fun, plus a special meet-and-greet photo opportunity with fan favorite characters after the show, including princess sisters and some monster-slaying singers.

“We’re thrilled to host this interactive show for families with the exciting addition of K-Pop Stars!” says Roxanne Amidon, Director of Boardman Arts Park. This event premiered at Boardman Arts Park in the summer of 2025, and was a huge hit with the community.

This event is free to the public thanks to a generous donation and continued support from the Delaware County District Library as a crown sponsor. Boardman Arts Park encourages the community to express their gratitude and support their local library!

Please help Boardman Arts Park plan for the event by registering for your free tickets at <https://givebutter.com/PrincessesHeroesKpop>. Doors open at 5:30 P.M., the show starts at 6:00 P.M., and the photo opportunity with the stars of the show will be held from 7:00-7:30 P.M. Seating is lawn seating, so guests are encouraged to bring lawn chairs and picnic blankets. There will be snacks onsite for purchase.
