

FEED THE HERD

2026 Community Livestock Assistance Program

Official Terms and Conditions

Organized and Administered by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC
Trent, Texas

Effective Date: October 17, 2026

IMPORTANT PROGRAM DATES

Livestock Assistance Application Deadline: Saturday, October 31, 2026, at 11:59 p.m. Central Time

Feed the Herd Community Event: Saturday, November 14, 2026, at Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC, Trent, Texas

Approved Recipient Assistance Pickup: Sunday, November 15, 2026, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Central Standard Time, by assigned appointment

Redistribution of Unclaimed Assistance: Monday, November 16, 2026

These Terms and Conditions establish the requirements governing the 2026 Feed the Herd Community Livestock Assistance Program, including community contributions, event admission, sponsorships, commercial event sales, applications, eligibility, independent selection, proportional allocation, recipient pickup, safety, and financial accountability.

Applicants must affirmatively acknowledge these Terms and Conditions before submitting a livestock assistance application.

SECTION 1. PROGRAM PURPOSE AND ORGANIZATION

1.1. Feed the Herd is a community-supported livestock assistance initiative organized and administered by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC, a privately owned, for-profit business located in Trent, Texas.

1.2. The program was established in response to drought-related hardships affecting livestock owners in the surrounding region, including reduced grazing availability, increased feed and hay expenses, and the financial burden of maintaining livestock during prolonged dry conditions.

1.3. Feed the Herd is not a registered charitable nonprofit organization, government assistance program, or government-sponsored initiative.

1.4. Community assistance may include qualifying donated livestock feed, hay, feed-store gift cards, and hay purchased through designated community sponsorships.

1.5. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC has also experienced drought-related livestock feeding challenges and may submit an application for assistance.

1.6. Any application submitted by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC will be evaluated by an independent selection committee under the same published eligibility and allocation requirements as other applicants.

1.7. No applicant is guaranteed approval or receipt of assistance.

SECTION 2. NOVEMBER 14 COMMUNITY EVENT AND ADMISSION

2.1. The Feed the Herd Community Event will take place at Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC in Trent, Texas, on Saturday, November 14, 2026.

2.2. The purpose of the event is to bring community members together to support eligible livestock owners experiencing drought-related feeding hardships.

2.3. Admission requires one of the following qualifying contributions for each group of up to five admitted guests:

- One unopened, commercially packaged 50-pound bag of qualifying livestock feed; or
- One feed-store gift card with a value of at least $20.

2.4. Each qualifying admission contribution admits up to five people.

2.5. Groups of six through ten people must provide two qualifying admission contributions. Groups of eleven through fifteen people must provide three qualifying contributions. The same requirement applies for each additional group of up to five people.

2.6. Children younger than two years of age will be admitted without an additional contribution and will not count toward the five-person admission limit.

2.7. Admission groups are not required to consist of members of the same household or family.

- 2.8. Additional voluntary contributions are welcome but are not required.
- 2.9. Admission contributions will be designated exclusively for the Feed the Herd Community Livestock Assistance Program and distributed through the program's established procedures.
- 2.10. Feed-store gift cards submitted for admission must be valid, unused, and issued by a retailer that sells livestock feed or hay. Gift cards may be subject to reasonable verification.
- 2.11. Bagged feed submitted for admission must meet the program's feed quality and suitability requirements.
- 2.12. Admission does not include separately priced Cowfari experiences, food, beverages, merchandise, or other activities unless expressly advertised.
- 2.13. Attendance, purchases, sponsorships, and contributions do not provide preferential consideration for livestock assistance.
- 2.14. All guests must comply with event safety rules, designated access areas, and instructions from authorized ranch personnel.
- 2.15. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may modify, postpone, or cancel event activities when reasonably necessary because of weather, emergencies, safety concerns, or other legitimate circumstances.

SECTION 3. EVENT SALES AND CONTRIBUTION OF NET PROCEEDS

- 3.1. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC will contribute 100% of net proceeds from ranch-operated merchandise sales, Cowfari experiences, food, beverages, and other designated event-day sales conducted as part of the November 14, 2026, Feed the Herd Community Event to the Feed the Herd Community Livestock Assistance Program.
- 3.2. Net proceeds will be calculated as recorded qualifying event sales revenue, excluding applicable sales taxes, refunds, and discounts, less actual, documented direct costs of the products or services sold and related payment-processing expenses.
- 3.3. Documented direct costs may include merchandise purchase or production costs, food and beverage costs, disposable serving supplies, fuel actually consumed in providing Cowfari experiences, and other incremental costs directly attributable to qualifying sales.
- 3.4. Regular livestock feeding expenses, ordinary ranch operating expenses, property taxes, unrelated overhead, and arbitrary owner labor charges will not be deducted when calculating the contribution.

3.5. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC will use designated event-specific barcodes, item identifiers, stock-keeping units, point-of-sale categories, or equivalent tracking methods to separately identify qualifying event sales.

3.6. Cash transactions, electronic payments, refunds, discounts, and applicable sales taxes will be recorded and reconciled.

3.7. The resulting net proceeds will be designated for community livestock assistance and will not be treated as direct financial support for Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC.

3.8. Net proceeds from qualifying event sales will be converted into feed-store gift cards or store credit for distribution to independently approved recipients unless a specific event sales promotion expressly identifies a different community assistance purpose before purchase.

3.9. Records supporting event revenue, direct costs, net-proceeds calculations, and contributions to Feed the Herd will be maintained.

3.10. Purchases of ranch merchandise, Cowfari experiences, food, beverages, and other products or services are commercial transactions and are not represented as tax-deductible charitable donations.

3.11. If independent vendors participate in the event, their sales will not automatically be included in the ranch's 100% net-proceeds commitment. Any separate vendor contributions will be disclosed and documented.

SECTION 4. SPONSOR A BALE OF COASTAL HAY

4.1. Feed the Herd offers a voluntary Sponsor a Bale opportunity at a sponsorship amount of $110.

4.2. The $110 sponsorship amount is based on an actual supplier quote received by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC for coastal hay.

4.3. The supplier's name will not be publicly disclosed as part of the program's standard promotional materials. Supporting price documentation will be retained in program records.

4.4. The $110 amount represents the quoted price at the time of the quote and does not guarantee future pricing, availability, or the purchase of exactly one bale per sponsorship.

4.5. Community-designated hay sponsorships will be pooled and used exclusively to purchase hay for the Feed the Herd Community Livestock Assistance Program.

4.6. If actual hay prices differ from the quoted price, available community sponsorship funds will be used to purchase hay at actual supplier prices.

4.7. Any remaining community sponsorship funds will remain designated for eligible community hay purchases.

4.8. Hay purchased through community sponsorships will be distributed among independently approved eligible recipients according to the established proportional allocation procedures.

4.9. Community hay sponsors may not select individual recipients of their sponsorship contributions.

4.10. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may receive community-funded hay only if independently approved under the same requirements as other applicants.

4.11. Sponsorship receipts, supplier invoices, quantities purchased, and subsequent distributions will be documented.

4.12. Community hay sponsorships are not represented as tax-deductible charitable donations.

SECTION 5. OPTIONAL DIRECT HAY SUPPORT FOR CHASING DREAMS RANCH

5.1. Individuals may separately and voluntarily designate financial support specifically for purchasing hay for livestock owned or cared for by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC.

5.2. Direct ranch support is separate from the Feed the Herd Community Livestock Assistance Program.

5.3. Direct ranch support will not be included in the community assistance pool, reviewed by the independent selection committee, or allocated among community assistance applicants.

5.4. Funds expressly designated for direct ranch hay support will be used to purchase hay benefiting livestock at Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC.

5.5. Direct ranch support must be clearly identified before payment, and the contributor's designation will be recorded.

5.6. Community assistance contributions, admission contributions, community hay sponsorships, and event net-proceeds contributions will not be reclassified as direct ranch support without the contributor's separate, informed authorization.

5.7. Direct ranch support will be separately tracked and will not be reported as assistance distributed through the independent community program.

5.8. Direct ranch support is entirely voluntary and is not required for event admission.

5.9. Direct ranch support is not represented as a tax-deductible charitable donation.

5.10. If direct ranch support is offered through the website or at the event, it will be clearly distinguished from Feed the Herd community assistance contributions.

SECTION 6. GEOGRAPHIC ELIGIBILITY

6.1. To qualify for community livestock assistance, livestock must be physically located in one of the following Texas counties:

- Taylor
- Jones
- Callahan
- Nolan
- Fisher
- Shackelford
- Runnels
- Coleman

6.2. Eligibility is determined by the physical location of the livestock rather than the applicant's residential or mailing address.

6.3. Applicants must accurately identify where their livestock are maintained.

6.4. Livestock located outside the designated counties are not eligible for assistance through the 2026 program.

6.5. Reasonable verification of livestock location may be requested when necessary.

SECTION 7. QUALIFYING LIVESTOCK

7.1. Feed the Herd is intended to assist owners and primary caretakers of qualifying grazing livestock affected by drought-related feeding hardships.

7.2. Qualifying livestock includes cattle, horses, donkeys, mules, goats, sheep, pasture-raised grazing pigs, including Kunekune pigs, and other qualifying grazing livestock.

7.3. Poultry, other birds, rabbits, household pets, working dogs, and nongrazing animals are not eligible.

7.4. Applicants must own or have primary responsibility for feeding the livestock included in their applications.

7.5. The same livestock may not be counted in more than one application for the purpose of receiving additional assistance.

7.6. For general hay and feed-store gift card allocation purposes, each verified qualifying animal counts as one animal regardless of species, breed, age, size, weight, or miniature or standard classification.

7.7. Other grazing livestock will be evaluated consistently under the published eligibility criteria.

SECTION 8. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS AND DEADLINE

8.1. Applications must be submitted by Saturday, October 31, 2026, at 11:59 p.m. Central Time.

8.2. The application deadline may be extended only through a publicly announced extension applied consistently to applicants.

8.3. Applicants must provide the required contact information, livestock location, livestock categories and counts, assistance needs, hardship information, pickup acknowledgment, and certification.

8.4. Materially incomplete applications may be denied when information necessary to determine eligibility is not provided by the applicable deadline.

8.5. Submission of an application does not create an entitlement to assistance.

8.6. Applicants must notify program administrators of material changes affecting eligibility or qualifying livestock counts before assistance is distributed.

SECTION 9. APPLICATION CERTIFICATION AND VERIFICATION

9.1. Applicants certify that all information provided is truthful, accurate, and complete to the best of their knowledge.

9.2. Livestock photographs and supporting documentation are not required with the initial application.

9.3. Reasonable verification may be requested when necessary to confirm livestock counts, livestock location, ownership or feeding responsibility, or other eligibility requirements.

9.4. Verification may include photographs, livestock records, veterinary documentation, or other reasonable supporting evidence.

9.5. Verification requirements will be applied consistently to similarly situated applicants.

9.6. Materially false, misleading, or intentionally incomplete information may result in denial, disqualification, or cancellation of assistance.

SECTION 10. INDEPENDENT SELECTION COMMITTEE

10.1. Community assistance applications will be evaluated by an independent selection committee.

10.2. The committee will have sole authority to determine eligibility and approval based on the program's established criteria.

10.3. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC and its owners, Martha and Mark Hartranft, will have no voting rights or authority to approve, deny, or override application decisions.

10.4. Applications will be assigned identification numbers before committee review.

10.5. Applicant names, ranch names, contact information, and other reasonably identifying information will be redacted before committee review.

10.6. Applications submitted by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC will be subject to the same redaction and review procedures as other applications.

10.7. Committee members will be informed that the organizing ranch is eligible to apply, without identifying any particular application as belonging to Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC.

10.8. Committee members must disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest and recuse themselves from decisions affected by those conflicts.

10.9. Committee member identities will not routinely be publicly disclosed, except where legally required.

10.10. Complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed because application details may indirectly identify an applicant.

10.11. Eligibility decisions and recusals will be documented.

10.12. Committee decisions will be final for the 2026 program, subject to correction of clerical errors or verified material inaccuracies through the independent review process.

SECTION 11. EQUAL TREATMENT AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

11.1. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may receive community assistance only if independently approved.

11.2. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC will not receive automatic approval, preferential consideration, additional allocation weighting, or a guaranteed minimum allocation.

11.3. A person independent of the ranch's ownership and not receiving assistance through Feed the Herd will verify Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC's qualifying livestock count and allocation calculations.

11.4. Program organizers may coordinate contributions, communications, financial records, and distribution logistics but may not override committee decisions or manipulate allocations.

11.5. All approved recipients will be subject to the same published allocation and redistribution procedures.

11.6. Direct ranch support designated under Section 5 is separate from community assistance and will not be included in proportional allocation calculations.

SECTION 12. PROPORTIONAL DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNITY ASSISTANCE

12.1. Available community assistance will be allocated among approved applicants based on verified qualifying livestock counts, available contributions, and feed suitability.

12.2. For general-purpose hay and feed-store gift cards, each verified qualifying animal counts as one animal regardless of species, breed, age, size, or weight.

12.3. Each approved applicant's proportional share will be calculated by dividing that applicant's verified qualifying livestock count by the total qualifying livestock count of all approved applicants eligible for the particular assistance.

12.4. An applicant with 20 qualifying animals will generally receive twice the proportional share of an applicant with 10 qualifying animals, subject to available quantities and rounding procedures.

12.5. Species-specific bagged feed will be distributed only among approved applicants with livestock for which the feed is reasonably appropriate.

12.6. No applicant is guaranteed a minimum quantity or value of assistance.

Whole-Bale and Whole-Bag Rounding

12.7. When donated items cannot reasonably be divided, including whole hay bales and sealed feed bags, calculated allocations will first be rounded down to whole units.

12.8. Remaining whole units will be allocated according to the largest fractional remainders.

12.9. Equal fractional remainders will be resolved through a documented random drawing.

Gift Card Allocation and Rounding

12.10. General community monetary contributions and net proceeds from qualifying event sales will be converted into feed-store gift cards or store credit for distribution to approved recipients.

12.11. Gift card allocations will be calculated proportionally in dollars and cents.

12.12. Calculated amounts will first be rounded down to the nearest cent. Remaining cents will be assigned according to the largest fractional remainders, with ties resolved through a documented random drawing.

12.13. Variable-value gift cards or store credit may be used when available.

12.14. If retailer denomination restrictions prevent exact allocations, the closest feasible amounts not exceeding calculated allocations will be distributed. Remaining value will continue to be reserved for eligible community livestock assistance.

12.15. Allocation calculations, rounding adjustments, and final distributions will be documented.

SECTION 13. FEED AND HAY DONATION STANDARDS

13.1. Donated bagged feed must be unopened, in its original labeled packaging, and within its applicable use-by date.

13.2. Donated hay must be reasonably clean and free of visible mold or contamination.

13.3. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may inspect, reject, or withhold feed or hay that appears spoiled, contaminated, damaged, improperly stored, or otherwise unsuitable.

13.4. Feed known or reasonably suspected to be unsafe or subject to an applicable recall will not knowingly be distributed.

13.5. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC does not manufacture, formulate, or independently certify the nutritional content or safety of donated feed.

13.6. Reasonable precautions will be taken in accepting, storing, and distributing contributions. Visual inspection cannot identify every possible safety concern.

13.7. Recipients are responsible for determining whether received feed or hay is suitable for their livestock, including species, age, health, and dietary requirements.

13.8. Recipients may decline unsuitable feed but are not guaranteed replacement assistance.

SECTION 14. MONETARY CONTRIBUTIONS AND FEED-STORE GIFT CARDS

14.1. Feed the Herd may accept voluntary community monetary contributions, including cash, checks, and authorized electronic payments.

14.2. General community monetary contributions and net proceeds from qualifying event sales will be converted into feed-store gift cards or store credit for distribution to independently approved recipients.

14.3. Gift cards are intended to assist livestock owners with purchasing feed and hay.

14.4. Ordinary retail feed-store gift cards may be redeemable for products other than feed and hay.

14.5. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC cannot guarantee or control the ultimate use of unrestricted gift cards by recipients.

14.6. Contributors will be informed of the unrestricted nature of gift cards before making general monetary contributions.

14.7. Gift cards will be distributed according to the proportional allocation procedures in Section 12.

14.8. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC, if independently approved, will be subject to the same gift card allocation rules as other recipients.

14.9. Gift cards remain subject to the issuing retailer's terms and conditions.

14.10. Community hay sponsorships will be used to purchase hay rather than converted into general-purpose feed-store gift cards.

14.11. General monetary contributions, community hay sponsorships, direct ranch support, and commercial sales will be separately identified in financial records.

SECTION 15. FINANCIAL TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

15.1. Feed the Herd is organized and administered by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC, a privately owned, for-profit business.

15.2. Contributions and sponsorships are not represented as tax-deductible charitable donations.

15.3. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC will not issue receipts falsely identifying contributions as tax-deductible gifts to a qualified charitable organization.

15.4. Contributors should consult their own tax advisers regarding the tax treatment of any contribution.

15.5. Records will be maintained documenting community feed and hay contributions, monetary contributions, hay sponsorships, gift card purchases, event sales, documented direct event costs, approved recipients, allocation calculations, distributions, forfeitures, and remaining assistance.

15.6. Community-designated contributions will not be diverted to unrelated ranch business operations or personal expenses.

15.7. Direct ranch support will be separately identified and will not be included in the community assistance distribution pool.

15.8. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC will prepare an aggregate summary following distribution identifying community assistance received, assistance distributed, and the number of livestock owners assisted.

15.9. Event sales contributions will be reported as net proceeds contributed to the community program, rather than as the full gross amount of commercial sales.

15.10. Direct ranch support and ordinary commercial revenue will not be reported as community assistance distributed through the independent program.

15.11. Individual applicant identities and confidential application information will not be publicly disclosed without appropriate authorization, except where required by law.

15.12. Supporting supplier quotes, invoices, receipts, point-of-sale records, and distribution records will be retained for reasonable verification and applicable recordkeeping requirements.

SECTION 16. APPROVED RECIPIENT PICKUP REQUIREMENTS

16.1. Approved recipients must collect their allocated assistance at Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC in Trent, Texas, on Sunday, November 15, 2026, during their assigned appointment between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Central Standard Time.

16.2. Alternative pickup arrangements require prior written approval from Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC.

16.3. Feed the Herd does not provide delivery.

16.4. Recipients must provide suitable vehicles and trailers capable of safely transporting their allocated assistance.

16.5. Recipients are responsible for ensuring that their vehicles and trailers are roadworthy, appropriately rated for their intended loads, and equipped with adequate load-securing equipment.

16.6. Recipients are responsible for inspecting and securing their loads before leaving the property.

16.7. Recipients may be required to verify their identity and sign a receipt documenting assistance collected.

16.8. Gift cards may be distributed during pickup appointments or through another documented method authorized by program administrators.

16.9. Approved alternative arrangements will be documented and will not change the recipient's calculated allocation.

SECTION 17. LOADING EQUIPMENT AND SAFETY

17.1. Tractor, hay spear, and other mechanical loading operations will be performed exclusively by Mark Hartranft or another qualified individual expressly authorized by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC.

17.2. Recipients and unauthorized individuals may not operate ranch loading equipment.

17.3. Visitors must remain outside designated equipment operating areas and follow instructions from authorized ranch personnel.

17.4. Recipients and accompanying individuals may exit their vehicles only when directed by authorized ranch personnel.

17.5. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may delay, suspend, or refuse loading when equipment, vehicles, trailers, weather, visitor conduct, or other conditions present an unreasonable safety risk.

17.6. Visitors must follow designated traffic routes, parking instructions, posted signs, and restricted-area boundaries.

17.7. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may limit the number of vehicles or individuals in loading areas at any given time.

SECTION 18. RANCH PROPERTY ACCESS AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RISKS

18.1. Approved recipients and authorized accompanying individuals may enter designated portions of Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC solely to collect allocated assistance during approved pickup periods.

18.2. Access to private residences, livestock pastures, barns, equipment storage areas, and other restricted areas is prohibited unless expressly authorized.

18.3. Visitors acknowledge that active ranch properties may contain hazards, including uneven terrain, moving vehicles, tractors, heavy hay bales, livestock, equipment, and changing weather conditions.

18.4. Visitors must exercise reasonable care, comply with safety instructions, and supervise accompanying minors.

18.5. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may suspend activities, restrict access, or require visitors to leave when reasonably necessary for safety or emergency response.

18.6. Visitors acknowledge ordinary and inherent risks associated with entering an active ranch and participating in feed pickup activities, to the extent permitted by Texas law.

18.7. Recipients remain responsible for their own conduct and for properly securing and transporting their loads.

18.8. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions is intended to exclude liability or waive rights that cannot legally be excluded or waived.

18.9. A separate pickup-day safety acknowledgment or release may be required where lawful and appropriate.

SECTION 19. UNCLAIMED ASSISTANCE AND REDISTRIBUTION

19.1. Approved recipients who fail to collect their allocated assistance during the November 15, 2026, pickup period, without prior written approval for alternative arrangements, will forfeit their allocations.

19.2. Forfeited assistance will be redistributed on Monday, November 16, 2026, among other approved recipients under the established proportional allocation procedures.

19.3. For redistribution, the forfeiting applicant will be removed from the eligible recipient pool for the forfeited assistance. Remaining eligible recipients' proportional shares will be recalculated using the same qualifying livestock counts and applicable allocation rules.

19.4. Redistribution will account for feed suitability, available quantities, and recipients' ability to accept additional assistance.

19.5. Recipients offered additional assistance must confirm their ability to accept it within the timeframe communicated by program administrators.

19.6. Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC, if approved, will be subject to the same forfeiture and redistribution procedures as all other approved applicants.

19.7. All forfeitures and redistributions will be documented.

19.8. Any feed, hay, gift cards, or other designated assistance remaining after November 16 will continue to be reserved for eligible community livestock assistance purposes.

19.9. Reasonable efforts will be made to offer remaining assistance to previously approved recipients who can appropriately use it.

19.10. If previously approved recipients cannot accept remaining assistance, it may be held temporarily for a subsequent documented distribution to livestock owners meeting the program's established eligibility requirements, with eligibility determined through an independent review process.

19.11. Remaining assistance will not automatically become the personal property of Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC or its owners.

19.12. If perishable feed cannot safely be stored until a later distribution, program administrators may arrange an earlier documented transfer to independently approved eligible recipients. Unsafe feed will not be distributed.

19.13. Any subsequent distribution will remain subject to donor restrictions, applicable law, and the program's conflict-of-interest safeguards.

SECTION 20. INSUFFICIENT CONTRIBUTIONS, PROGRAM CHANGES, AND CANCELLATION

20.1. Feed the Herd depends upon voluntary community contributions actually received.

20.2. Neither Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC nor its owners, Martha and Mark Hartranft, is personally obligated to purchase, provide, replace, or finance additional feed or hay to satisfy applicant requests, contribution shortages, or unmet needs.

20.3. Application submission or approval does not guarantee receipt of assistance.

20.4. Collection or distribution activities may be postponed, modified, suspended, or canceled for legitimate reasons, including severe weather, emergencies, unsafe conditions, equipment failures, insufficient contributions, or applicable legal requirements.

20.5. Program changes will not authorize Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC or its owners to override independent committee decisions or preferentially alter allocations.

20.6. Reasonable efforts will be made to notify affected applicants of material changes.

20.7. If the program is canceled after community contributions are received, those contributions will remain designated for eligible livestock assistance purposes, subject to donor restrictions and applicable law.

20.8. Any cancellation-related disposition of community contributions will be documented.

20.9. Feed the Herd does not guarantee continuation in future years or future livestock assistance.

SECTION 21. APPLICANT PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

21.1. Applicant information will be used for eligibility evaluation, verification, program administration, distribution coordination, and appropriate recordkeeping.

21.2. Applications provided to the independent selection committee will have identifying information redacted to the extent reasonably practicable.

21.3. Applicant contact information, ranch names, personal hardship stories, and individual application details will not be publicly disclosed without permission, except where required by law.

21.4. Information may be shared with authorized individuals when reasonably necessary for program administration, verification, distribution, or legal compliance.

21.5. Reasonable safeguards will be used to protect applicant information against unauthorized access.

21.6. Access to unredacted applications will be limited to individuals who reasonably require the information to administer the program.

21.7. Applicant information will not be sold or used for unrelated marketing purposes without appropriate authorization.

SECTION 22. PERSONAL STORIES, PHOTOGRAPHS, AND PUBLICITY

22.1. Feed the Herd may invite applicants or recipients to voluntarily share their experiences, photographs, videos, interviews, or testimonials.

22.2. Participation in publicity is entirely voluntary and will not affect eligibility, selection decisions, or allocation amounts.

22.3. Submission of an assistance application or hardship story does not constitute permission to publicly publish identifiable applicant information.

22.4. Separate written authorization will be obtained before publicly sharing identifiable personal stories, ranch names, photographs, videos, or testimonials.

22.5. Applicants may decline participation without penalty.

22.6. Responses indicating willingness to participate in publicity will not be provided to the independent selection committee as part of eligibility review.

22.7. Participants who authorize publicity may request discontinuation of future use, subject to the terms of their separate authorization and the practical limitations of retrieving previously published material.

SECTION 23. APPLICANT ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT

23.1. By affirmatively accepting these Terms and Conditions and submitting an application, applicants certify that the information provided is truthful and accurate to the best of their knowledge.

23.2. Applicants acknowledge that they have been provided access to, have read, understand, and agree to these Terms and Conditions.

23.3. Applicants understand that the independent selection committee has sole authority over community assistance approval decisions.

23.4. Applicants acknowledge that assistance is not guaranteed and that allocations depend upon eligibility, qualifying livestock counts, available contributions, feed suitability, and established proportional distribution procedures.

23.5. Applicants agree to comply with applicable pickup requirements, transportation responsibilities, loading instructions, and ranch property safety rules.

23.6. Applicants understand that failure to collect allocated assistance without approved alternative arrangements may result in forfeiture and redistribution.

23.7. Applicants understand that participation in publicity is voluntary and requires separate authorization.

23.8. Applicants acknowledge that Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may apply for and receive community assistance if independently approved under the same requirements as other applicants.

23.9. Electronic acknowledgment may be retained as part of the applicant's program record.

SECTION 24. GOVERNING LAW, INTERPRETATION, AND CHANGES

24.1. These Terms and Conditions will be interpreted under applicable Texas law.

24.2. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions is intended to waive legal rights or exclude liability where prohibited by law.

24.3. If any provision is determined to be unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue to apply to the extent legally permissible.

24.4. Material changes to these Terms and Conditions will be identified through an updated effective date and communicated as appropriate.

24.5. Changes will not be applied retroactively to deprive applicants of rights already established under an accepted version unless permitted by law.

24.6. The version of the Terms and Conditions affirmatively accepted by an applicant will be retained or otherwise identifiable in program records.

REQUIRED LIVESTOCK ASSISTANCE APPLICANT CERTIFICATION

I certify that the information provided in my Feed the Herd Livestock Assistance Application is truthful, accurate, and complete to the best of my knowledge.

I acknowledge that I have been provided access to, have read, understand, and agree to the Feed the Herd Terms and Conditions.

I understand that applications are reviewed by an independent selection committee, that Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC and its owners have no authority over applicant approval decisions, and that assistance is not guaranteed.

I understand that community assistance is allocated proportionally based on qualifying livestock counts and available contributions.

I agree to comply with applicable pickup, transportation, safety, and program requirements.

Required acknowledgment: I have read and agree to the Feed the Herd Terms and Conditions.

IMPORTANT PUBLIC DISCLOSURE

Feed the Herd is organized and administered by Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC, a privately owned, for-profit business located in Trent, Texas.

Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC may apply for community livestock assistance and, if independently approved, may receive a proportional share under the same published requirements as other applicants.

Admission to the November 14, 2026, Feed the Herd Community Event requires one unopened, commercially packaged 50-pound bag of qualifying livestock feed or one feed-store gift card valued at $20 or more for each group of up to five people. Children under age two are admitted free and do not count toward the group limit.

Admission contributions and community-designated Sponsor a Bale contributions support the Feed the Herd Community Livestock Assistance Program.

Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC will contribute 100% of net proceeds from its designated November 14, 2026, event sales, including merchandise, Cowfari experiences, food, beverages, and other qualifying ranch-operated sales, to Feed the Herd community assistance.

Net proceeds are calculated after applicable sales taxes and actual, documented direct costs associated with qualifying sales. Regular ranch operating expenses and unrelated overhead will not be deducted.

Community hay sponsorships of $110 are based on an actual supplier quote for coastal hay. Actual purchase prices may vary, and sponsorships will be combined to purchase hay for independently approved recipients.

Voluntary direct hay support specifically designated for Chasing Dreams Ranch LLC is separate from the community assistance program and is not allocated by the independent selection committee.

General community monetary contributions and net proceeds from designated event sales will be converted into unrestricted feed-store gift cards intended to assist eligible livestock owners. Because the gift cards are unrestricted, their ultimate use cannot be guaranteed.

Contributions and sponsorships are not represented as tax-deductible charitable donations.

End of 2026 Feed the Herd Community Livestock Assistance Program Terms and Conditions