

Reconciliation Position Statement

Acknowledgement of Country

AT Resolutions acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of the lands where we live and work. We pay our respects to Elders past and present and extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Where We Stand

AT Resolutions is a small, Canberra-based business focused on the inspection and servicing of assistive technology and safety-critical equipment. We work across the disability, aged care, and government sectors — and we understand the importance of respect, inclusion, and community connection.

We believe that reconciliation isn't just the responsibility of large companies. Every business, no matter the size, has a role to play in building better relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

What We're Doing

As a newly established business, our approach is practical and in proportion to our capacity. Right now, our focus is on:

- Including Acknowledgement of Country in our public communications;
- Looking for opportunities to work with local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander suppliers, trades, or professionals;
- Building our awareness of Indigenous histories and cultures relevant to our work;
- Making sure that as the business grows, our reconciliation efforts do too — in ways that are meaningful, not tokenistic.

Looking Ahead

We're not pursuing a formal Reconciliation Action Plan at this stage, but our position is aligned with the intent of the Reflect RAP framework. We'll revisit our approach regularly as the business grows and as new opportunities arise to contribute more directly.
