

Greetings from CLEAR Hope!

We continue to pray that you and your loved ones are doing well amidst the uncertainty of things going on in the world. We know our King is alive and well amongst us! May your light keep burning brightly so the world will know the King of Love and light!

Previously, we sent out communication to build new, and rekindle seasoned, relationships. We also gave information on what CLEAR Hope has been previously doing, current activities plus the future direction of the ministry. Our thanks to those who have participated near and afar to help us continue assisting people in growing in relationship with The Lord Jesus Christ. We are forever grateful for your prayers, financial assistance and hard work. Mighty seeds are sown for His Kingdom!

In Joy's previous letter, she communicated how we are creating a series of five booklets (each around 100 pages) which expounds on 'The Most Important Commandments' from Mark 12:30-31. Each booklet focuses on one are separately for learning more about "The – heart/ soul/ mind/ strength/ relationship – of Love", to mature in Loving God with our ALL. The first book is in the final editing stage and will be in production soon. Joy is beginning the first draft of the second book. We can't begin to express how labor intensive each step of the process is, but God is good. We are already seeing individuals and relationships on the path of healing plus strengthening of faith in our Lord Jesus during group studies with the material.

At this point, we find ourselves in need to reach out even more to ask if you would pray about giving towards our upcoming needs. As the first book is about to be printed, funds are needed to continue the following books in the series. Would you consider partnering with us, whether for the first time, or in addition to what you may already contribute? If you find it in your heart to give, please see the following page for options. We are so thankful for the women and men that have been so faithful giving and prayer over the years. Without you, this ministry would not be possible.

More than ever, your prayers are needed. Please pray for Joy's protection, clarity and continued effectiveness of the material. Our Lord is faithful!

Blessings to you and your family over the glorious time of celebration of our Lord's birthday. We pray for a refreshing of your heart and home!

Thankful for you! The Clear Hope team, Sally, Nancy, Lydia, and Priscilla
