Description:

Announcing a Three Day Learning Intensive on Trauma Processing and EMDR Therapy Treatment of Anxiety Disorders March 8, 9 and 10, 2019!

We have designed this three day learning intensive to help EMDR clinicians who want to refine and hone their skills in trauma processing and to learn how to apply EMDR across the spectrum of Anxiety Disorders. The course is designed so that clinicians can participate in either just the trauma processing component, just the Anxiety Component or all three days. The Trauma Processing workshop helps clinicians understand the basics of trauma processing, and how to specifically target and reprocess traumas. The Anxiety Disorders two day workshop focuses on the basic anxiety protocol for EMDR Therapy and application of EMDR Therapy for all major Anxiety Disorders Diagnoses.

You can sign up on emdranxietydisorders.com
