Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

My name is [Your Name], and I recently saw your advertisement in the Boston Herald searching for a new hotel housekeeping manager. I've been working in the housekeeping industry for over nine years, and I'm intimately familiar with what is needed to keep a hotel pristine and customers happy.

A housekeeper must be both methodical and meticulous in order to keep things running smoothly. During my first housekeeping job, I worked as an assistant for Valencia Courtyards in Boston, MA, where I was responsible for tracking the status of 110 hotel rooms, as well as closely inspecting the state of all room equipment and materials. The majority of my experience comes from my time at Big City Hotel in New Brunswick, PA where I've been employed for the past seven years. Here I work in tandem with a team of 60 housekeepers to keep 188 rooms immaculate and hundreds of guests content. For example, by coordinating a hotel-wide laundry workflow, I reduced guest wait-time to under two hours.

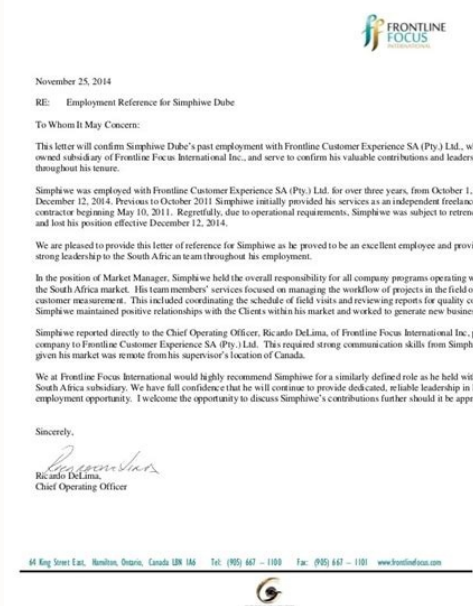

[Target Company] has been expanding recently, and with expansion comes diversity. I am fluent in both English and Spanish, and believe my communication skills would be an asset for the hotel's burgeoning housekeeping staff. My work ethic combined with my ability to easily communicate can help elevate [Target Company] to new heights.

I would love the opportunity to come in and interview at a time convenient for you. You can reach me at [PHONE] or by email at [EMAIL]. I eagerly await to hear from you. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best,
Your Name

She has done a great job looking after me, my two dogs and cat over the last 10 months. My company is unexpectedly relocating me back to the UK, which unfortunately means Raquel is looking for another job. Raquel can cook the recipes I provide and is good at following all my dietary requirements.

She can be trusted with grocery shopping and running errands and keeps my flat clean. She walks the dogs every day, takes my pets to the vet when needed and follows the vet's instructions with medication.

I travel a lot for work so it is important for me to have a helper I can rely on and trust when I'm away. I know I can count on Raquel and I would not hesitate to recommend her to any new employer. I am happy to be contacted by email or phone for further references."Sample wrote by Jose:"Arcelia is the best helper any family would dream of."

Due to her constant efforts, my house always remained clean, clothes were neatly hung, ironed or folded and my baby is well fed. There is no praise bigger than this."

Juevely has lived with my family since 2014 and had never given me any chance to object to her behaviour. Once again, I recommend her for any position that involves household chores. If there is anything that you would like to discuss with me about Juevelyn's work record, I can be reached. I wish her best of luck in her future endeavours." Domestic workers are hired to look after the cleaning and upkeep needs of people who do not have time to do them or need assistance in doing them.

They might be employed on a full or part-time basis depending on the particular needs of the employers. Some domestic workers also live with the family that they work for and are required to handle not just household chores but also provide childcare. When people say that housework is easy, they are wrong; there is so much to do, and it is not just the actual tasks themselves that make it very tiring. Due to a significant risk in crime rates, background checks are much more important than they used to be a few years ago. After all, you cannot leave your young children in the hands of anyone even if they are over 18 years old.
